Dear Jean,

Just had a chance to read over the September issue of the Genealogical Helper a little more thoroughly and noticed your ad which included the names: Canfield and Lacy. Since my maternal great, great, great grandmother's name was Penelope Lacy and she was the daughter of Freelove Canfield and Ebeneezer Lacy, thought by chance there might be a connection. Will send copies of my ancestor charts and if there is any connection, would be glad to correspond. Noticed you mentioned the county courthouse..I work at the Defiance County Health Dept. and have access to birth and death records there. As you will see by my charts, I have very little on the Canfields and not much more on the Lacys. Hop to hear from you.

Sincerele,

Lucy M. Weaver

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

I want to let you know I have the Lacey/Lacy line back to John who d. 1690 aged 104yrs. I own three book which cover data on this family

The Lacy Family of Fairfield, Conn.
The Roll of the House of Lacy
Ackley-Bosworth Genealogy

Our local Court House charges 20¢ a copy; there are 11 pages in book one; 2 pages in the second book and 3 pages in the third that deal with your particular line.

Then the 3rd book also has the allied lines that married into the Laceys, about another 15 pages.

I would copy all this to send but right now after Christmas I would be unable to do it. I only began my search a year ago. So far I have only proven data back to Ebenezer and Frelove.

They are buried in the Lacey St. Cem. in my home town of Laceyville. Ebenezer and his brother Isaac were the founders of Laceyville. They both died there.

I follow Penelope's brother Isaac, who had Ebenezer II and so on.

I'll get this in the mail and hope to hear from you real soon. I'm sure I can help you quite a bit on this family.

Sincerely,
Jean

Dear Jean,

Thank you for your prompt response to my letter of inquiry. It sounds as if you have lots of information on the LACEY family. I would love to have you copy the material for me. You said that you would be unable to at the present time, but when you are able to, let me know and I will forward a check to you. On your chart, you have listed Stratfield,Conn. several times..did you mean Stratford? Since we are dealing with Fairfield and Stratford, it is easy to confuse them in copying information. One basic difference between your information and some that I received recently is in the name of the mother of Freelove Canfield..in the copy that I am sending you, Mary Baldwin is listed as the mother. Also have enclosed a copy of the little material I have on the Gregorys. Most of my material has been gathered at the Fort Wayne,Ind. Library, which has an excellent genealogical section, and from correspondence with other people. Hope to hear from you soon as to when you can copy the material, etc.

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

Here are copies of the Lacey data I have. Maybe between the three of us; you, Mr. Wheaton, and I we can figure out the parents of Sarah Baldwin who married Thomas Bassett. I know we all want to have the correct set of parents in our papers. Let me know your deductions when you've had a chance to Go over these things.

I'll wait to hear from you.

Sincerely,
Jean Christian Brewer

Dear Jean,

Many thanks for sending copies of the Lacey data that you had. It has been a great help and very interesting to read. Have studied it carefully and the research on the Baldwins and Bassetts seems to have been carefully done with references to document the findings. Will let you know my conclusions on it after doing a little more checking at the library.

I believe that you said originally that it would cost twenty cents a copy for each page. Will enclose a check to cover cost of copying and the eighty cents for postage that it cost you to mail it. If the amount is more than I have on the check please let me know...also realize that your time is valuable too .

Glad to hear that Mr. Wheaton got in touch with you also. I always feel that several people working on a project are better than just one. Perhaps we can pool our resources now and then and come up with more answers.

Will get back with you later and the next chance I get, I'll do some more research at the library.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Lucy Weaver

Dear Lucy Marlene (RULMAN) WEAVER :

I was very pleased to receive your letter of 7 Jne '77 and to learn of your descent from The Lacy Family From Fairfield, Connecticut (Philip S. LACY ; 601 West 115 th Street New York, NY 10025 ; pub. 1973 @ $25.00 post paid).

Interestingly, Mr. Philip S. LACY, at the time of publication, did not include the descendants of your Penelope (LACEY) WHEATON and I would be very interested in learning of any and all additional genealogical data which you may have on the issue of Penelope, or on the issue of her other (?) children, including all full names, dates & places of birth, marriage, death, burial, and etc.

I am still searching for the name of my 3rd Great Grandfather, father of 14 (!) children, including my 2nd Gr "E. Urial / Eurial LACY", b. 1 Jan. 1794, place unknown (poss. Conn.), and I hope to include all genealogical data I receive in the forthcoming issue of "The LACY-LACEY-deLACY Family Association Quarterly Newsletter", Vol. 1, No. 1 to press ca Jan. 1978. (See: Sept '76 Helper ad for specs.)

The names (a) "William", (b) Henry, (c) "Elanson", (d) Charles, (e) "George", are found often in the descendants of my "Eurial" LACY/LACEY. . . and I think that there may be a close connection between your lines and mine. Exactly what the connection is . . . remains to be learned.

On p. 58-9 of Fairfield, I see that Ebenezer LACEY's will included reference to his three (3) daus., including (a) Mercy (LACEY) SMITH, (b) Lucana (LACEY) HOGIKIS, and (c) Penelope (LACEY) WHEETON.

Please feel free to send as much data as you have on our family. I assure you that it will be well cared for !

Until I receive your reply, I remain, with warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

David George Lacy

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

Please excuse the delay in answering your letter regarding our Sutliffe - Sutcliffe family.

My line descends as yours does down to no. 6 on your letter (Hannah Sutliffe) who m. Thomas Wheadon. My line goes to her brother Nathaniel Jr. It appears that we have seen the same sources as my information is the same as yours. I fear that we never find more than we already know. I will copy a couple of charts and enclose, so that you may see what I have and also what I have on the Plympton line which is also difficult to research further. I always keep hope but have not actively researched these lines for a couple of years.

Dear Mrs. Weaver:

I saw your ad in the Genealogical Helper and am curious as to which LACY line you are researching.

I, too, am searching the LACY line and have found three distinct branches in America. One came from England in the 1600's, one is the French Huguenot line which came here in the 1700's via England from France, and then there are the LACY's from Ireland which is what I am researching.

Are we on the same line?

Dear Jeanne,

Thank you for responding to my ad which mentioned the LACY family.

My LACY branch started out in England, landed in Conn. traveled to Pennsylvania and finally ended up in Holmes County, Ohio, where my great great great grandmother Penelope LACY lived with her husband Jonathan Wheaton.

Sounds as if we are on two different branches. Will keep your letter for future reference.

Sincerely,
Lucy

Dear Duane,

I really don't know where to begin to help on your research on the Lacy family.. I did notice your address.. our Lacy's started out in Conn. and then a branch settled in Laceyville, Pennsylvania, Wyoming Co. which is in the Northeastern section on Pa. I tried to find Markleton,Pa. on my map..but couldn't locate my regular sized map of Pa. I would assume that Markleton is small just like Laceyville.

I would suggest starting with where William Lacy lived in 1900. The 1900 census should be available at your nearest largest library in a metropolitan city. In the 1900 census William would have had to list where he was born and where his parents were born...His death certificate, obtained from the county in which he died would list his parents names and where they were born. Censuses and County histories would be your next best step.

My Lacy branch started out in Stratfield and Fairfield Conn. Will send you a copy of a LACY genealogy that I have.. I am connected through Penelope Lacy, daughter of Freelove Canfiled and Ebenezer Lacy Jr. Penelope married Jonathan Wheaton.

Hope this may help get you started.. please write again and I'll try to help.

Sorry to be late in responding,but my correspondence got ahead of me.

Sincerely,

Dear Lucy

Thank you for your response. I'm very happy to have the copy of the LACY genealogy, it sure makes it easier if there is ever a tie-in.

The first thing that struck me was that you didn't use a S.A.S.E. that I'm sure I must have included. Could it be that I did't? If so I am very sorry.

I didn't notice any footnote reference to "New London Conn. and Vicinity Early Families- Compiled by Charles Dyer Parkhurst Originials in Hartford Conn. State Lib - Photo copies in New London Public Lib. I don't have access to them but have a section that was taken out for me on the Willey family. It might be a good source for your Conn. families. It seems tho that you are in pretty good shape in that area.

Just in case it will help you- I ran across this-- American Ancestry-- Stephen SMITH^6 (Son of Stephen ^{5})

I don't know how far she got. You might have something in common. She was very helpful to me on my BAR NUM line.

Markleton, PA. is a very small town. We really live about 6 miles from the P.O. This is in Somerset Co. - Somerset will show up on most maps - about 10,000 population and on the PA. Turnpike- about 75 miles East of Pittsburg.

Please accept this $1.00 to cover postage and copy. It is so very little for the help you sent.

Thanks again

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

Aurilla Lacey 1860-1942, married James Hobart in Marion Co., Ind.m Aug, 1875.

Aurilla was supposed to have been an orphan in The White Water Shaker Colony in Ohio. I found her listed as one of the girls in one of the cottages.

Would there possibly be any information of this kind in your records? She was a real doll, curly hair-red when she was young- very witty and had two husbands after James died.

Thank you for any help.

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

I found your query seeking correspondence on Lacys in a past issue of "The Genealogical Helper" recently.

I still have many gaps in my material, especially dates, and could not prove all my facts, I do feel certain, however, from some older distant Kentucky relatives memories and census records that Alexander Lacy, #16 on my ancestor chart, was John Lacy's son.

The list of Newton and Elizabeth's children and grandchildren was written many years ago by their son Scott's widow, Laura Craft Lacey.

The notes from cemeteries I made on my too short trip to Kentucky. Caroline (wife of H. C. Lacey) was my grandfather's 1st (?) wife; her maiden name was Sebastian.

The sheet of John Lacy's Revoluntionary War service is the only sheet I received from his file at the Archives.

If you are interested, I will send you what I have on the more recent generations. I would appreciate receiving any information you have that would add to my line.

Sincerely,

Dear Gene,

I reseived and read your letter with interest on the LACY GENEALOGY. Enclosed you will find a run-down on my LACYs who originated from Fairfield, Conn. I don't know if it will be much help to you. Please note on page 1 the sources which you might be able to locate at the Fort Wayne Public Library second floor genealogy section. I also noted with interest that you live in Auburn, a close neighbor of Defiance. For years my grandparents the Elemer Wheatons resided on E. Quincy St. in Garrett, Ind. just a few miles from Auburn so I am quite familiar with your town. Each year my husband and I visit there on Labor Day for the Auto Auction.

Wish that I could be more help to you. Will keep your letter on file for future reference.

Dear Lucy,

I have returned to Florida after spending most of July and much of Aug up north. We left the end of June for our Dart family reunion at Traverse City, MI, and returned thru Columbus, OH, to pick up our 2 oldest grandchildren (9 and 11). Brought them home with us for 2½ weeks, then took them back home and just got home from that last Friday. We'll be here now until Christmas. I am just now, getting all my mail read.

Thank you for the death cert. and Civil War info. How much do I owe you for William Hall's cert?

Since my letter from Mrs. Somes, in Omaha, on the Halls I have been comparing the info she sent with your original data on the Wheatons and what I had on Reuben. I beleive she is right that William Hall was a brother to Reuben and Sarah. There are, too, many things in common - ages, locations, and use of names. Also, there were many marriages into what appears to be the same families.

You will note in the article from the Hist of Defiance Co., on the Hall Family, that John Hall, son of William, married Lydia Bills, Esther Wheaton, dau of William and Sarah Hall may have married a M. Bills. In the 1860 cen., Reuben and Almira had a Frances Bills age 3 living with them. The list of children of William Wheaton, you received from Jeannette Wheaton Haas, shows a Frances Bills born 1852. (another age recorded differently).

Jonathan L. Wheaton, son of William and Sarah, died in Franklin Co. Neb. Rachel Ann Hall, granddau. of William Hall, married Henry Oliver Hendricks, 1866 in Paulding Co them moved to Franklin Co, Neb., where she died in 1933

In 1838 William Hall purchased real estate in Seneca Co, OH, and Reuben S. Hall was one of the sureties.

These are just some of the connections which indicate the families were well acquainted, at least.

Mrs. Sones believes that the father of William, Reuben, and Sarah was James and he was living with Reuben in 1850, at age 85. I had read the name as Joseph from the way it was abbreviated but on rechecking, I go along with the James, but need more proof he was the father. He could have been an uncle.

I have really been thru Constantine, Cornwall. In fact we stayed 2 or 3 days at Mawnan Smith, which is 4 or 5 miles away. I dont remember the village but the area is, indeed, lovely.

Hope you can make out all of this and excuse the paper but I am trying to catch up and I can write faster than I type.

Sincerely,

Chet

To: Chet Dart, 534 68th St., Holmes Beach, FL 33510
Lloyd Hendricks, 125 So. 34th St., Boulder, CO 80303

From: Georgene Sones, 6604 Curtis Ave., Omaha 68104

Dear Chet & Lloyd:

Thank you for your letters. Lloyd, I was overwhelmed with all the HALL data that you sent. Chet, this data includes lots of census info on the Halls & Wheatons, so I will send it along for your use & you can return when finished with it.

Chet, that was surprise info that Wheatons are buried in Franklin Co. at Bloomington. Somewhere in this godawful mess I had a scrappy note that some Halls are buried in Naponee - I believe it was - but for the life of me I can't find the note!

There are so many things I need to pursue in Franklin & Kearney Cos. Nebr. but every time I go down there it is with my aged parents who must attend to business matters so my time is limited. We do make a few whirls thru some cemeteries but on the old ones it is imperative to try to locate the cemetery assoc. records, if possible.

I've been working on the BOYD family with sources available in Omaha or Lincoln but so far have not come up with anything earth shattering.

The death records from Paulding Co. show:

William HALL died 14 August 1871

These records were compiled shortly after the death (or birth) occurred. If I recall the probate judge or such directed the information to be compiled. I am sure there is a margin of error. My having the birth date of 4 January 1796, was from the lady in Defiance (Ruth Hall Simon). She said: "I have a real old paper turned yellow that has the following names on" -

Elizabeth Boyd was born Oct. 30th 1796
William Hall was born Jan 4th 1796
We was married Nov 22nd 1819
James Hall was born Feb 2nd 1821
John Hall was born August 13th 1823
Mary Ann Hall was born June 11th 1827
Sarah Grizzy was born July 8th 1830

Chet, if I had an unlimited United pass as you do I would really be on the go! Of course once you get somewhere then you need a car, a place to stay & food and right now my funds are limited so it wouldn't do me any good anyway! Our oldest daughter (21), Dayla, works for Westin Hotels as a pkg. agent. They are in partnership with United but she does not get any benefits on air travel. Of course Doyle & I can stay at the hotels but they are really expensive. Some in Mexico are upwards of $350 a day. Of course you get a private swimming pool, etc.

Why don't you & your wife join us in Salt Lake, Chet? Lloyd you & Betty are welcome too, however, I imagine your new job might prevent it. We leave the afternoon of 25 Sept. & will arrive in Salt Lake in the late p.m. on Sunday. We stay at Motel 6 - a cheapie - but you are never in the room much anyway. It is very near the airport so no problem to pick you up. There are 4 of us going from here so by sharing expenses it is not very costly. It seems I spend lots of dollars on lousy photo copies! If you joined us then we could spend time researching the Hall family & compare ideas instantly. If you wanted a change of pace you would be welcome to use my car. We are research fanactics! and spend every minute possible at the library. I am not LDS, nor is Lloyd. In fact I almost become paranoid while there as I smoke & drink coffee.

Lloyd, I am so glad to hear that your notebook was found. Chet for your info it was stolen while he & Betty were in Kankakee, Ill. - along with their clothes.

23 August

Long ago I found this marriage record in Minden (Kearney Co. Neb);

> William Monroe HALL age 21, son of Samuel Hall & Sarah E. Olniger (Olinger?), born Paulding Co. Ohio & Zelma Augusta BURROWS age 17, father not named, mother Anna Burrows.

Dloyd, this is probably the S. & S. E. Hall, parents of Wardena (or ?).

I'm enclosing a typed census sheet on HALLs that I have compiled from the info that Lloyd sent & what I had here.

Lloyd your census searches are really appreciated, we have very few available here so that means we would have to order from LDS & for me that means a long wait & several trips to the library. Chet, what census do you have in your libraries?

Keep the letters & info coming!

Dear Chet,

Glad to receive your packet of materials. Had assumed that you were traveling since I hadn't heard from you.

You don!t owe me anything for William Hall's death certificate. You have sent me many beautiful photographs and material for which I am very grateful and for which I have never sent you any money. Since we have one goal in mind, I'm very happy to have someone else who is just as interested in the family background. I really get discouraged at times with the indifference shown by some people who fail to even answer a letter when a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to them. Oh, well, if it were too easy, it would not be as fun and as interesting. I think I would have been a good detective since I'm always investigating things..whether in genealogy or in my public health work.

Mrs. Sones lists William's birthdate as 4 Jan. 1796..if so..his brother Reuben was born 27 July 1795..rather improbable in 5 months to have another child! Wonder where she obtained his birthdate? His death cert. says he was aged 74 yrs. 6 mos. 14 days and that he died Aug. 14, 1871. My math is poor but:

1871 - ~~8~~ - ~~14~~ 44
74 - 6 - 14
1797 - 1- 30

or proven

7 +30
1871- ~~8~~- ~~14~~
1797 -1- 30
74 yrs. 6 mos. 14 days

My figures show Wm. was born 30 Jan. 1797. If you use the birthdate shown by Mrs. Sones:

1871 - 8- 14
1796 - 1- 4
75- 7- 10 (He would have been 75 yrs. 7 mos. 10 days old when he died) What do you think?

How about this:
Reuben 27 July 1795 New Jersey
William 30 Jan. 1797 New York
Sarah 20 Oct. 1802 New Jersey

They must have lived near the New York/New Jersey border since Reuben was born in New Jersey, Wm. in N.Y. and Sarah in N.J. The southernmost New York Counties are: Orange, Rockland and Westchester. The northern counties of New Jersey are Sussex, Passaic and Bergen. I recall that one time you had found a Sarah Hall born 2 Oct. 1801 in a New Jersey county...but had discarded the idea due to the date discrepancy..do you remember what county that was? I think we need to look for a James Hall in the 1800 census of the mentioned counties. Will investigate this when I can get to Ft. Wayne Library.

The problem with mail correspondence is that I forget what has been sent. I must not have sent you the following info:

Esther Wheaton was married 22 Jan. 1852 in Seneca Co.Ohio by Andrew Boyd, J.P. to Nelson Bills.

I believe that Nelson Bills was first married to Mary Ann Hall (who died) because the 1850 Seneca Co.Oh. census shows:
53-58 1 Aug. 1850

Nelson Bills	30	m	carpenter	$400	Ohio
Mary A.	21	f			Ohio
Sovina Mann	25	f			Unknown
Sarah McWit	20	f			Ohi o

(He had a whole houseful of ladies!!!)

Seneca Co.Oh. marr. lic. show:
Bills, Wilson(could have been mistakenly written as Wilson) married Mary Ann Hall 21 July 1844 by Harrison Moovil, J.P. (altho if Mary Ann was only 21 in 1850, she would have been 15 in 1844..)
Mrs. Sones shows Mary Ann born 11 June 1827..so she would have been 23 in 1850 and 17 in 1844.

According to the 1850 census of Seneca Co.OH. Reed Twp. Nelson Bills, James Hall, Reuben Hall, and John Hall were listed:
53-58 54-59 56-61 57-62 all in a row..so they were neighbors.

Another interesting fact:
Seneca Co.,Oh. marriages:
Wheaton, Mary married Judson Gilbert Nov. 1860 by J.H. Ludy,J.P. (Could this be Mary Wheaton, dtr. of Wm. & Sarah Hall Wheaton) although her parents were in Paulding Co.Oh. by then..but this same Mary could have stayed behind in Seneca Co. since: The 1860 Seneca Co. Oh. census(taken 20 July) shows Mary Wheaton age 26 servant with James Hanford family) Our Mary Ann would have been 28).

Also: Hall, Ansen W. married Ann M. Gilbert Dec. 19, 1855 by Andrew Boyd, J.P.

Esther Wheaton Bills had 3 chn: Frances born 10 Dec. 1852, Emanuel E. born 6 Nov. 1854, and Antoinette born 17 March 1857 and died 23 Sept. 1861. Esther died 26 May 1859 and her name and Antoinette's are on the tombstone of Wm. and Sarah Wheaton in Colby Cem.Def.Co.O.

The Seneca Co.OH. Census 23 July 1860:

347-339	Reuben Hall	64
	Almira	58
	David	22
	Francis	7	f
	Francis Bill	3	f

Frances Bill would have been 7 in July 1860 and 8 in Dec. that yr. so I think the first Francis..7..f. refers to her. Emanuel would have been 5 and a male. I think an error was made on the census since Francis was recorded twice. I wonder whatever happened to these chn/?

It may be coincidental but it is very interesting that Rachel Hall moved to Franklin Co. Neb as did the Jonathan Wheatons. James, bro. to Jonathan also went to Neb. and ended up in Lincoln.

I wondered whether or not the Joseph could be James. The index to Ohio census listed him as James. The William Wheaton family seemed to stick to family names and they had a son James. Note too, that Wm. Hall had a Mary Ann, Reuben and Almira Hall had a Mary and Wm. and Srah Hall Wheaton had a Mary Ann. Could it be that the matriarch of the family was Mary Ann Hall??

About flipped when I read the article from Def.Co.Oh. Hist. 1976. I know exactly where the Hall farm is. If Ruth Simon is still lviing, I will go out and see her. Want to find out if she knows more than appeared in that article. Noticed that she mentioned having a brick and railroad spike from the Hall homestead in Lodi, Oh. LODI IS IN REED TWP, SENECA CO. OH. WHERE OUR HALLS AND WHEATONS LIVED.

They really traveld in those days(without the benefit of airplanes!) N.Y. ..N.J...Holmes Co.OH...Reed Twp.Seneca Co.OH.....Paulding Co.OH and Fulton Co.OH.....and then some scattered back into Def.Co.

When you visited the Fulton-Union Twp. Cem. and found Reuben & Almira Hall's tombstones.. did you search the entire cem? There is a possibility that Almira's brother Sylvester Wheaton could be buried there since he died in Fulton Twp. I was at that cem. last Sun. but it became dark before we had searched very far. We found Almira's stone since I had the photo to help identify it.

Don't know whether or not I sent you Seneca Co.OH. Mar. that I found in May on film at the Ft.Wayne Library:

It has been a busy summer..just can't get everything done.. Would spend 24 hrs. a day on this stuff if I didn't have to work and do a few other things.

We have been looking at a property along the Maumee River which has quite a history ..the house is 160 yrs. old and the 48 acres was Camp. No. 3 of General Anthony Wayne. There are several indians buried there and probably many artifacts. The two story house doesn't have as much room as our present home and the well is inadequate...so I think we are merely looking and of course fascinated with the history of the property!!!

Our daughter was ~~#######~~ injured ~~###~~ in an auto acc. Aug. 8 but came out of it o.k. facial lacerations, broken nose and injured leg. She had facial surgery Fri. Luckily, she works for a plastic surgeon in Detroit.

Don't want to make this a 6 pg. letter
So will stop here. Let me know your ideas or theories on the info. Will get in touch with Ruth (Hall)
Lemon here in Def. Co.

Dear Lucy,

I am inclosing a lot of info I received from Georgene Sones on the Halls & Wheatons. Part of it is matterial sent to her by a Lloyd Hendricks, of Boulder, CO. He is also descended from the Halls---but I don't know how. I have consolidated all the census data that you have sent with what they sent and copies of that is inclosed, also. I can understand it better in this form.

I believe that you have figured the birth date of William Hall correctly. Thats what I got,also.

They are working on the theory that the Halls came from around Orange Co., as you have suggested. You will notice that they found a James in the 1800 Orange Co. census that fits all the ages.

Have you gotten out to see Mrs. Simon, yet? It will be interesting to see what she has to say!!!

I am going to meet Georgene Sones in Salt Lake City in 2 weeks and maybe, working together we can find the answers to some of the many questions. While there, I'll check the Fulton Union Cemetery index for Wheatons. I have a list of all the Halls. I'll let you know what we find, if anything, when I get back.

Hope your daughter is continuing to get along OK.

Sincerely,

Chet

Dear Lloyd & Chet: also Lucy:

Re: page 5 of LJH epistle dated 23 October 1982

Yes, I could be wrong on James & Mary HALL being parents of Wm, Reuben, Sarah but:

1. possibly James re-married
2. seems I have heard that Sarah can be Mary & vice/versa
3. On the 1820 Coshocton only 1 of the 2 men are in agriculture so is one feeble or what?
4. There HAS to be a relationship to this HALL bunch in Holmes Co. who (Wm, James, John, Frederick etc) since many of them reside in S7 T9 R6.

Re: Sarah, wife of James HALL from Census that we have compiled: 1800 age 26; 1810, age 36; 1820, age 46, 1830, age 56;1840 she should be 66 but the James & wife in 1840 Holmes Co. has wife's age 50/60; & if still alive in 1850 she would be 76 yrs. So I don't know if we "fit" with the Sarah in the 1850 mortality of Seneca or not.

 (LJH: I checked back to pg 3 of Continuing Saga of the Hall Family & believe that you used the 1830 census info for the 1840 . Do you have James on the 1840?)

Wouldn't it be nice if we could find a tombstone for this Sarah (age 93 or such) who died May 1850 in Seneca? I thought the mortality schedules showed what township or such that the dec'd resided.

Lucy: I don't know if Chet passed the info on to you that I found that James & Mary HALL sold land to Wm. & Elizabeth HALL in 1824. James of XXXXXXXXX Wayne Co., Wm. of Coshocton., for land in what is now Holmes. (Wm & Eliz sold in 1825 this same piece of land to Jonathan Wolgamod(or t).

You also made comments in your letter of 22 Aug to Chet the possibility of MARY being the matriarch of the family. I also had these same thoughts after finding the land sale.

It was customary for the 1st dau born to be named for the wif'e's mother & for the 2nd girl to be named for the husband's mother. However, I don't know if the HALLs followed custom or not!!

Lucy: did you make contact with Ruth Hall Simon? Isn't it strange how one gets their info? I was so delighted when she & I made contact with each other. What a big help she was to us on this research. It was from Ruth that I got the birthdate of William, Elizabeth, James, John, Sarah. She said this data was written on an old yellowed sheet of paper. (Perhaps Bible records?) We may never know the exact dates but at least we are in the right century! I had found the Defiance Co. book in Salt Lake.

Chet: I think our SLC meeting was successful in a lot of respects. You led us to Steuben Co. NY & I do believe we will hit "pay dirt" there. Do you have any additional land records from Coshocton or other nearby cos.? You had sent me all the land deals involving Reuben.

LJH: Veda Clements sent me duplicate copies of the info she sent you from Franklin Co. Nebr. (I've known Veda for years & if I recall she has a Hendricks connection - maybe from ex husband or such - I can't recall now.)

Well anyway in this info I note one of the Wheat~~s~~ons died in Smith Co. Kans. & a logical location from where their land was in Franklin Co. Well.....this Smith Co. is adjacent to Phillips Co. where my Morris family lived. Also the Rigginsboys (who married Hendricks) said to be born in Phillips Co. Well......there are a bunch of Wheatons buried in Phillips Co.

Fairview Cemetery at Phillipsburg, Kansas. (1st known as Close cem. as was on Jacob H. Close farm west of town. In 1879 the 25 burials were removed to new Fairview). Phillips Co. Kansas Epitaphs & Inscriptions publ. ~~1080~~ (1980):

Penny Jo Wheaton 12 Feb 1959 - 30 Dec 1972

Wilson A. Wheaton b 22 Jan 1873 bur. 10 Aug 1955 (interesting first name isn't it?)
~~sxx~~ g.s.
Norma Blaine Wheaton 1937 - 1976

Chet: a lot of those crazy land deals in Seneca Co. involving Wm. Hall & non-payment of taxes was the result of Wm. trying to settle the Daniel VAIL estate. Remember Reuben was involved too.

In some of the info that I copied in Salt Lake & passed along was in regard to a Frederick HALL being one of the founders of Millersburg in Holmes Co. I note that F. is the middle inital for some of the Halls - for Fred.? I wonder what relationship he is to ours?

Dear Mrs. Bowman,

On a recent trip to Laceyville, Pennsylvania, I met Annis Tyler, who gave me your name and address. She thought that you and I might have information to exchange regarding the Lacey family.

I made the trip to Laceyville to visit the gravesites of Ebenezer and Freelove Canfield Lacey, who are my direct ancestors. I also met Esther Mauselle and Ruth Baker, descendants of the Lacey family.

My lineage is:

Edward Lacey Sr.(1655-1695)Fairfield,Ct. m. Sarah ____

Annis told me that your maiden name was Margaret Lacey. Were you from Laceyville? I know that Isaac Lacey, a brother of Penelope resided in Laceyville and many of his descendants are in that area. Penelope Lacey moved to Millersburg,Ohio in the early 1800s and her son William moved to Seneca Co.,O. and later to Paulding Co.O. My great grandfather Anson eventually moved to Defiance Co.,O.

I have other information on the Lacey family which I would like to share and would be interested in hearing from you.

Dear Lucy,

Thank you for writing. I am glad that Annis Taylor gave my address to you. She is mistaken, though, about my Lacey line for Margaret Lacey who married Alfred Ackley was my great-grandmother. I am named for her and that is probably why Annïs spoke of that connection.

My lineage is:
Edward^{I}, Edward ^{2} Ebenezer ^{3}, Ebenezer ^{4} then Isaac ^{5} who married Lydia Pratt, Daniel^{6}Pratt Lacey who m. Maria Northrop ,Margaret^{6} Lacey, Maria Abigail Ackley ^{7} m. James Gardner Leighton, Marian^{8} Leighton m. Isaac Thompson Kepperley and(me) Margaret K. Bowman^{9} m. Philip G. Bowman.

I have never been in Laceyville but I was born in Tunkhannock,Pa. My parents moved to Toledo, Ohio when I was four years old and although I visited in Tunkhannock after that I never got up to Laceyville although I should like to have! I shall be interested in anything you care to comment about Laceyville. Are there any Lacey homes still standing,etc?.

Have you ever seen the book," The Ancestry of Lorenzo Ackley and his wife, Emma Arabella Bosworth" compiled by N.Grier Parke II and published in Woodstock,Vermont in I960? Our Lacey line down to my Daniel Pratt Lacey is given inthere on pp.223 - 227. plus our Gregory, Jackson and Canfield lines. If you have not seen the book I'll be glad to give you information from it. I notice that you need Ebenezer Lacy Sr's death date- That is not in this book, either. By the way the name became Lacey starting with Ebenezer Jr.

Are Esther Mauselle and Ruth Baker descendants of Isaac Lacey? The only Lacey I ever corresponded with was Arthur Lacey who died quite awhile ago and who went to the Lacey Street cemetery one time to get Maria(Northrop') Lacey's gravestone record for me.

Did you know that Israel Canfield,brother of our Freelove C. was the ancestor of the writer, Dorothy Canfield Fisher? She writes an interesting description of life in Israel Canfield's time in her book,"Vermont Tradition.",

I also own a copy of the "Roll of the House of Lacy" by De Lacy Bellingari published in Baltimore in 1928. I have also seen the book about Lacys in Normandy in the earlydays and can get that from an inter library loan in this State.
I wish I had started my interest in genealogy when I was your age! I am now just 75 and while I do have a lot done on my Mother and Father's lines I am still working on some names that seem to elude me!

I belong to the Connecticut Society of Genealogists and to several others and I enjoy them and find them helpful, especially the Conn. Society and its publication, The Connecticut Nutmegger.
I hope that we can correspond and I shall enjoy anything that you write about the Laceys or Laceyville. If you are searching any lines you need information about do let me know and I'll watch for the names. I get quite a few genealogical periodicals.

One other Isaac Lacey descendant lives out here in SanDiego, Conway Sams. He and his wife came to Ventura one time and we had a good visit. He has been back to Laceyville.

I am glad that you wrote to me, Lucy.
With best wishes,

Margaret K. Bowman

Dear Mrs. Weaver:

Please forgive the delay in this letter - I won't bore you with the details of why I didn't write - it all adds up to lack of TIME (and organization of same!) —

I've gleaned the following information that I'm enclosing on scraps of paper as I took them down. Mr. Wm Korroch was here Thursday of last week. He'll be back to his home at Lansing Mich. next week.

I failed to find Philip Lacey's address in N.Y.C. but I'm sure Mrs. Phillip Bowman, 13 Chaucer Lane Ventura, Ca. 93003 (the last address I have for her) will have the source of "The Lacey Story". A postcard to her will probably get it for you.

I also find in my correspondence from her a David George Lacy - 384 East Marie Ave. - West St. Paul, Minn. 55118 - that might help you!

I just wish I had the time to do more to help you folks but family, church & Oldest House leave me little time for any more on the schedule.

We hope your parents are better now. We're sorry they were ill. This month's heat has been a killer.

Try to make it back to the Oldest sometime if you possibly can. Our Fancy Fair is the next to the last weekend in Oct - the 20 - 21. Christm Tea is first weekend of December. Well send you a card. But mark it on your calander to be sure.

Much success in your search!

Yours,
Annie Tyler

Dear Mrs. Weaver,

First of all, my sincere appologies for not answering your letter of July 11, '83 before this. I was deeply involved in a month long family reunion, plus many work pressures.

Secondly, I was delighted to hear from you and find that we have ancestors in common and would be very pleased to share with you all of the information gathered together by my father, before he passed away in 1981, on my mothers family - she having been a Lacey.

The information is most complete and is at my winter home in Hudson Falls, I received your letter at my summer home at Lake George

The one name from your lineage that I am sure is on mine is Ebenezer (1717-1807) who married Freelove Canfield. My mothers name was Dorothy (1905-1960) Elizabeth Lacey. She was the only child of Winfield Winston Lacey and Helen Doolittle (approx.) 1872-1968) and I cannot from memory tell you any more than that until I go back to Hudson Falls and dig out the material my father gave me. That should be in a week or so.

Please rest assured that I will write again as soon as I have that material at my fingertips.

Both of my parents are now dead but I have two brothers - Jeffrey Tudor Davis and David Lacey Davis, and ~~between~~ amongst us we have 11 children and, so far, 4 grandchildren.

I shall be writing again soon.

Sincerely,
Diane Noble

Dear Erma:

As a member of the Ohio Genealogical Society you name was referred to me as researching the family of Henry Gregory. I too share this descendant with you and as you will see by my pedigree chart am searching for some missing dates particularly relating to my gr grandmother.

Through a cousin living in Rock Creek I obtained/zerox pages of the book "Ancestors and Descendants of Henry Gregory". The zerozing referred to those members of the immediate family in our line. This book can be found in the Western Reserve Library in Cleveland, Ohio. There is also a microfiche of this book in the Pennsylvania State Library at Harrisburg, Pa.

According to the book on Henry Gregory we ~~are~~ were unable to determine who is the father of Josiah Gregory. That is one mystery we have. The other that we cannot find out much about Lydia Gregory. She appears in the census for 1850 as being 16 and living in Harpersfield, Ohio. I am aware that this family lived in Harpersfield, New York, which is not too far from where I live at present.

I have not dug too deeply into the Gregory family as I have been searching the last year for the Pierce family. I just solved that family in March finding my ancestor came to America in 1646 living in Hingham, Mass.

My cousin in Ohio has been searching for the Ohio Gregory's. She is about to start looking through old newspapers in Ashtabula County.

Last September I received an inquiry about Gregory's from a Richard B. Walker, 416 Rockhill Ave., Dayton, Ohio 45429. He had been at the Ohio Genealogical Society and found my 3 x 5 card, did he find you. He was looking for a Harrison Gregory, b. 25 May 1813 in Ashtabula Co. m. August 1834 Mary Sivers. Moved in 1837 to Moulton Twp, Allen (now Auglaize) County Ohio. To my knowledge he has never solved his problem.

I'm a beginning genealogist so it is possible you have a lot more information than I.

I use to live in Ashtabula, Ohio until I went into the service (WWII), but my mother and father lived their until their deathes. I come to Ohio almost every year as I have a brother living in Mayfield Village, O.

I trust that I shall hear from you in the near future. I find looking for my ancestors and interesting hobby, but time consuming. I'm retired as is my husband, so we have all the time in the world.

Marjorie Isaac

Dear Lucy:

Thank you for all the information on the Gregory's. I didnot have any of the information regarding the ancestors in England. The book I had started with Henry Gregory in the United States. I'm enclosing copies of some of the families early history according to another genealogist. In places the dates don't coincide but are near enough to be accepted.

You will note in the zerox copy that the daughter that married William Crooker is named Anne. In the book PIERCE's Colonial Lists of Plymouth and Rhode Island Colonies, published by Genealogical Publish Company, 1968 I found William Crooker or Crocker listed as Constable of Barnstable in 1644. In 1654 he was a Grand Jurymen of Barnstable. He is listed as a non-commissioned officer in Plymouth Colony being between the ages of 16 and sixty years and able to perfomr Military duty in August 1643, for Barnstable County.

Unfortunately the rest of the Zerox papers I have on the Gregory's relate to son John - my descendant. Possibly you may be able to go to the Western Reserve Historical Society to read about your descendant Judah.

The missing links I have are not in the book. about Henry I shall try to borrow the books you have mentioned and see if I can learn more.

Subject: JOHN HALL CONFUSION UPDATE

Dear fellow HALL researchers:

Here is a list of what some of you sent me and some of which I obtained trough family searches, Ancestry, and other avenues both on and off line. I'm sure that once you read this, you will then fully understand how much confusion there really is.

JOHN HALL B. 15 Jun 1584, Kent, England
D. 26 May 1673, Middletown, MA
m.1 Esther

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1673, ae 89, Middletown, CT) & _______; in Eng. before 1619; Roxbury/Hartford/Middletown, CT."

Halls of New England by Rev David B. Hall 1883 list Esther as his wife. Some others claim that her maiden name is Wilcox or Willocke.

JOHN HALL B. Circa 1586, Coventry, England
D.
m.1 Pease Farmer

JOHN HALL B. 1605
D. 1696
m.1 Joanne Woolen B.
D. 1690

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (1605, 1610?-1676 not 1696) & Jeane/Jane (Woolen/Wooten?) (-1690), m.2 John Cooper, ca 1678; before 1644, before 1641?; Roxbury/Hartford/Wallingford, CT."

****

JOHN HALL B. 1609
D. 1696
m.1 Bethiah Farmer

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1696) & Bethia

(?Farmer)(-1683); before 1636; Charlestown/Barnstable."

JOHN HALL B. 1611, Coventry, England
D. 23 Jul 1696, Yarmouth, MA
m.1 Elizabeth Learned

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1693, not 1696) & Elizabeth (Learned?)(1621-?); before 1645; Charlestown/Dover, NH"

****

JOHN HALL B.
D. 23 Jul 1696, Yarmouth, MA
m.1 Bethia Farmer

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1696) & Bethia (?Farmer)(-1683); before 1636; Charlestown/Barnstable."

JOHN HALL B. 1611, Coventry, England
D. 23 Jul 1696, Yarmouth, MA
m.1 Bethia Farmer, m. John Hall (-1696)
m.2 Elizabeth Layton, m. John Hall (?1617-1677)
m.3 Bethia Learned, (Bethia Farmer?/Elizabeth Learned?/perhaps a sister?)
m.4 Mrs. John Hall, (Whan all else fails......)
m.5 Elizabeth Learned, m. John Hall (-1693)

This person has no clue whatsoever. This is a classic example of why documentation is so important and the documentation is out there.

****

JOHN HALL B. 1617
D. 1692
m. ? 1645, Dover, NH

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1693, not 1696) & Elizabeth (Learned?)(1621-?); before 1645; Charlestown/Dover, NH"

Halls of New England by Rev. David B. Hall states, under the section Halls of Dover, N.H, in talking about John Hall's Will - "This paper was proved May 4, 1692, and recorded Feb. 1694, 5. It would appear that he died before thse dates, that is before May 4, 1692, or at least before Feb. 16, 1694/5." Friends, Romans and Countrymen, if a will is proved, that means the person is dead. Therefore, if the above statement is correct (and I strongly suggest someone personally looks at the will), John Hall of Dover, NH died before May 4, 1692 - even if you use the old calender dating system.

JOHN HALL B. 1617
D. Aft 29 Aug 1677, Portsmouth, NH
m.1 Elizabeth Leighton on Circa 1643.

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (?1617-1677) & Elizabeth Layton?; before 1649, before 1645, as early as 1641; Dover, NH.

JOHN HALL B. Of Greenland, NH
D. Bef. 31 Oct 1677, Greenland, NH
m.1 Elizabeth (?)

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (?1617-1677) & Elizabeth Layton?; before 1649, before 1645, as early as 1641; Dover, NH.

JOHN HALL B. Circa 1611, Coventry, W. Mids., England
D. 23 Jul 1696, Barnstable, MA
m.1. Elizabeth Learned betweenn 1632 - 1664, Charlestown, MA

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1693, not 1696) & Elizabeth (Learned?)(1621-?); before 1645; Charlestown/Dover, NH"

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1696) & Bethia (?Farmer)(-1683); before 1636; Charlestown/Barnstable."

JOHN HALL B. Before 1586, Ansley, Warwickshire, England
D. Ansely, Warwickshire, England
m.1 Pease Farmer Circa 1612, Ansley, Warwickshire, England

This looks good, we have a parish, county, and a country. However, we don't have a year of death or burial, and we don't have a date of baptism. Needs further documentation to be "proof." (i.e., Edward Hall, born circa 1611, Henbury, Gloucestershire, England; bapt. 29 Sep 1611, Henbury, Gloucestershire, England (Baptism record of Henbury, Gloucestershire, England); died 27 Nov 1670, Rehoboth, MA (Rehoboth VR)

JOHN HALL B. Circa 1611, Ansley, Warwickshire, England
D. 23 Jul 1696
m.1 Bethia Farmer
m.2 Bethia Farmer
m.3 Elizabeth Learned

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1693, not 1696) & Elizabeth (Learned?)(1621-?); before 1645; Charlestown/Dover, NH"

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1696) & Bethia

JOHN HALL B.
D. 23 Jul 1696
m.1 Bethia Larned, supposed mother of his first three children.
m.2 ?

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1693, not 1696) & Elizabeth (Learned?)(1621-?); before 1645; Charlestown/Dover, NH"

New England Marriages prior to 1700 states "HALL, John (-1696) & Bethia (?Farmer)(-1683); before 1636; Charlestown/Barnstable."

I'm still not comfortable with this. Were Bethia Larned or Learned and Elizabeth Learned sisters or the same person? Was Bethia Farmer's maiden name Learned and she married second (as a young widow),John Hall who died in 1696? Your guess is as good as mine.

So you see, John Hall's of New England can be very confusing. I would really like to continue this project. These need to be sorted out. I will act as a central focus point. I would strongly recommend, for those of you who want to continue this, that you try to get some sort of documenation on the date of death of your individual John Halls. Once you have that, you will have a better focus on who he married, and once you have that, you will need to check the parish registers of the parish and county of where you think he came from in England as proof of his baptism. Once you have the baptism, you will at least have the year of birth. Once that is sorted out, we will have separated them all.

Please let me know how you all feel about this and be kind. I am sincerely only trying to help.

Sincerely,

Joseph Hall

Lucy Weaver,

I am compiling a genealogy on the descendants of William Hill(i)ard) who settled in Duxbury, Plymouth Colony in 1635. This is a different line than the John Hillyer you mentioned in your query, but I have some information on John. I could send you a gedcom if interested. Roughly I have the following (from NEHGS Register, Volume ?):

John Hillier, born St. Andrew, Plymouth, Devonshire, England, ca1601; died Windsor, Hartford Co., CT, 16 JUL 1655; married St. Andrew, 21 MAY 1627, Joann Escotte, born St. Andrew ca 1608. Joann married (2) Norwalk, Fairfield Co., CT, 9 DEC 1656, John Fitch. She probably lived 20 years after the death of John Hillier.

Children of John and Joann (Escotte) Hillier:
(1) John Hillier, baptized St. Andres, 2 APR 1630.
(2) John Hilliard, born Windsor, 3 JUN 1637; died Hadley, MA, 29 DEC 1729; married 30 SEP 1664, Anne Baxter.
(3) Mary Hilliard, born Windsor, 25 DEC 1639; died 13 MAY 1681; married (1) 15 APR 1658, Joseph Crowfoot; married (2) 11 MAY 1680, John Matthews.
(4) Timothy Hilliard, born Windsor, 3 JUN 1642.
(5) James Hilliard, born Windsor, 23 JUL 1644; died 28 MAY 1720; married (1) 28 JUN 1677, Mary Wakefield; married (2) 30 MAR 1798, Mary Case.
(6) Andrew Hilliard, born Windsor, 4 NOV 1646; died Simsbury, CT, 28 JUL 1720; married Hartford, CT, SEP 1681, Hannah Burr.
(7) Simeon Hilliard, born Windsor, 25 DEC 1648.
(8) Nathaniel Hilliard, born Windsor, 1 JAN 1650; died before 24 JUL 1655.
(9) Sarah Hilliard, born Windsor, 25 AUG 1652; married 10 JUL 1673, Jeholade Bartlett.
(10) Abigail Hilliard, born Windsor, 21 AUG 1654.

Hi Lucy,

Wow! you are the descendant of a very well-known line of Halls from Wallingford. The book has a great, great deal of information, which will make your day if you don't have it. Please bear with me, though, as it is too much to type so I will scan it into text and send it along as an attachment in a later message. However, a cursory reading mentions no Shakespeare connection.

Great info Lucy !!! Do you have an e-mail for Vic Hilliard or snail mail address? I would like to contact him for certification and substantiation of the DOB and location for ol' John. Looks like his widow only waited 18 months before getting re-hitched to Mr. Fitch. Many thanks,

Subject: Hall

Lucy, I was just wondering about something. In Holmes Co., Ohio, a land warrent given for military service of 100 acres was given to Frederick and Thomas Hall, also mentioned Joel Hall, in 1818. Do these Hall's have anything to do with the family of James, and William Hall?
I still think there must be some way to prove James Hall's father, but there are so many Hall's in every book I pick up in the library that it becomes very confusing.
Also, in Highland Twsp. the, land records show an Adam Hall, later a George W. Hall owned the Hall farm which I worked on for a century farm award. The earliest owner bought the land in the 1850's, however I could prove only the 1871 owner, J.D. Hall. Were Adam and George W. from our line?
I have a lot of questions I guess. It is so confusing working on the Hall line. It is the most difficult one of the lines I've worked on.
I don't know if you can help. I just thought I would give it a try. I 've been working on another line, and thought I would try working on the Hall's again. Are you still working on it?

P. 640 HISTORY OF THE COLONY OF NEW HAVEN BY ATWATER

JOHN BALDWIN (16-- TO 1681), A SON OF SYLVESTER BALDWIN (15-- TO 1638), WHO DIED ON THE SHIP MARTIN IN 1638 ON THE WAY TO BOSTON, BY HIS FIRST WIFE, MARY (16-- TO 1652), HAD SEVEN OR MORE CHILDREN. HE MARRIED , 1653, MARY BRUEN (16-16..), AND BY HER HAD SEVEN CHILDREN, ALL OF THESE LATTER THROUGH THEIR MOTHER TRACE BACK TO ROYAL LINES AND TO WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR. MARY BRUEN WAS A DAUGHTER OF OBADIAH BRUEN (1606-168-) OF BRUEN, STAPLEFORD, CHESHIRE, ENGLAND. ABOUT 1667 OR 1668 HE REMOVED TO NEWARK, N.J., BUT RETURNED TO MILFORD, WHERE HE DIED JUNE 1681. HE WAS BURIED THERE JUNE 21, 1681. IN HIS WILL, MADE MAY 24, 1681, HE MENTIONS ALL OF HIS CHILDREN, EXCEPT SAMUEL, MARY AND SARAH, WHO HAD PROBABLY DIED THERE BEFORE 1681. (FOR FURTHER INFORMATION SEE BALDWIN FAMILY BOOK, 1889, PAGES 1373, BY JUDGE C.C. BALDWIN, CLEVELAND, OHIO.)

JOHN BALDWIN

MILFORD, CONNECTICUT

I. JOHN BALDWIN

John^1 Baldwin, "Sr.," born probably in Buckinghamshire, England, about 1610-1615, buried at Milford, Conn., 21 June 1681; married first, Mary Camp, who died about 1651-2; married second, recorded at Milford, between 10 and 24 Nov. 1653, Mary Bruen, baptized at St. Julians, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, England, 12 June 1634, died at Milford, 2 Sept. 1670, daughter of Obadiah and Sarah (———) Bruen.

John Baldwin was doubtless related to the other Baldwins who settled in Milford, but his parentage was not ascertained by Hon. Charles Candee Baldwin (Baldwin Genealogy, 1881, p. 297), nor was it disclosed by the later English research of Capt. Evelyn B. Baldwin of Washington, D. C., nor by the analytical study of all the available English data on the part of Dr. Herbert F. Seversmith. The reader is referred to the last-named's Colonial Families of Long Island, New York and Connecticut (mimeographed, 1939, vol. 1, pp. 227-68) for a very complete record of the Buckinghamshire Baldwins.

John Baldwin seems to have been among the original settlers of Milford, 1639-40, but did not become a member of the church there until 19 Mar. 1648. His will, dated 24 May 1681, mentioned his eldest son John Baldwin, sons Josiah, Nathaniell and Joseph Baldwin, daughters Elisabeth Porter, Abigaile Baldwin, two [unmarried] daughters Sarah and Hannah Baldwin, and sons George, Obadiah and Richard Baldwin; overseers, Rev. Daniel Buckingham and Lieut. Samuel Eells. The inventory was taken 5 July 1681.[a]

The present Milford record reads that John Baldwin married [for his second wife] Mary daughter of "John Brewen of Pequot." There was no John Bruen of New London, then called Pequot; Obadiah Bruen of New London did have a daughter Mary of available age; Obadiah's half-sister Mary Bruen, daughter of John of Bruen Stapleford, Cheshire, died young according to her father's funeral certificate. The early Milford vital records contain a number of demonstrable errors, as for example when John Baldwin's son Josiah married Mercy Camp (see below), she is called daughter of Samuel Camp although other records prove conclusively that she was daughter of Edward Camp. The present record may not have been the original record, and there are some indications that it has been written over at some time, perhaps to darken and preserve the entries. Whatever the explanation, the errors are there. Mary (Bruen) Baldwin named her first daughter Mary, her second Sarah (for her mother), and her eldest son Obadiah (for her father), and we conclude that she was daughter, not sister, of Obadiah.[b]

The first wife of John Baldwin, also named Mary, was undoubtedly a daughter of Nicholas Camp, Sr. His youngest son Richard had been under the guardianship of Dr. John Fiske, husband of his sister Hannah Baldwin. In 1685 Joseph Baldwin [youngest son of John Sr. by his first wife] appeared before the Court and represented, on behalf of his brother Richard, that his brother-in-law Mr. John Fiske (guardian of Richard) has removed out of the Colony and desires liberty for Richard to choose another guardian, viz., his uncle Nicholas Camp.[c]

This is a difficult record to interpret. Of whom was Nicholas Camp uncle? The pronoun "his" certainly does not apply to Dr. Fiske, who came to Milford from Wenham, Mass., and whose parents there are known. One might normally suppose that Richard would choose his own uncle for guardian. But Richard's mother was Mary Bruen. The first Nicholas Camp had died nearly thirty years previously, so the "uncle" was Nicholas Camp, Jr., born about 1630, died 1706; this Nicholas is positively proved to have married about 1651 a young widow, still living in 1685, Sarah (Beard) Brisco, whose brothers and sisters are completely known from probate records. There is no possible way that Nicholas Camp could have been uncle of Richard Baldwin.

Hence we have to accept the only other hypothesis, that Joseph Baldwin, the one who appeared before the Court, was asking to have his uncle appointed guardian to his young half-brother, although his uncle was not related to the youth. There may have been good reasons for this, such as that Camp could make use of the services of a youth of eighteen while at the same time rearing and instructing him.

In this case, the mother of Joseph Baldwin, first wife of John Baldwin, Sr., was a sister of the second Nicholas Camp, since we know that Camp's wife had no sister who married a Baldwin. He was born 1629-30 according to the age stated on his gravestone. His father, Nicholas Camp, Sr., is supposed to be the one baptized at Nazing, co. Essex, in 1597. It was therefore entirely possible for him to have been father of Mary, born about 1620-2. We lack dates of birth for the first four children of John and Mary Baldwin, but the eldest need not have been born earlier than 1640 and could have been born a year or two later. Hence a Mary Camp born 1620-2 would have been 20 to 22 when the first child of John and Mary Baldwin was born. The Baldwin-Camp marriage could have taken place at New Haven or Milford, 1639-41.

This seems to be the only logical explanation of a puzzling record, and we place the first wife of John Baldwin as daughter of Nicholas Camp, Sr. Further records confirm this conclusion. The only daughter of John and Mary (Camp)

Baldwin, Elizabeth, married Nathaniel Porter of Stratford who, in his will in 1680, made four friends overseers of his estate, one of whom he called "cousin Nicholas Camp." The term "cousin" was applied to many types of kinship or connection, and here must mean his wife's uncle. It seems impossible to postulate any Camp connection for Porter himself, whose parents and relatives were of Windsor, not Milford, and Nicholas Camp in 1684 was also one of the administrators appointed on the estate of Elizabeth (Baldwin) Porter. Finally, there is a record in 1696 in which Nicholas Camp called Nathaniel Baldwin, cooper [son of John Baldwin, Sr.] his cousin [nephew].[d] All these records considered together seem conclusive.

His wife was admitted a member of the First Church, Milford, in 1671. She was wrongly called daughter of Samuel Camp in the marriage record in Milford, but her identity is established by her mother's will and other records. Mercy was living in 1702 when she joined in a deed with her son Josiah.[f]

THOMAS BASSETT

THOMAS BASSETT, AGED 37, CAME ON THE CHRISTIAN IN 1635, HENCE WAS BORN ABOUT 1598. HE IS CREDITED WITH SERVICE IN THE PEQUOT WAR (1637), THOUGH WITHOUT AUTHORITY AND PROBABLY MISTAKENLY. ON 9 APR. 1640 HE WAS MADE A FREEMAN AS AN INHABITANT OF WINDSOR, CONN. HE WAS STILL THERE IN 1644, BUT MOVED TO FAIRFIELD, LEAVING SCARCELY A RECORD OF HIMSELF AT WINDSOR. ON 19 MAY, 1659, THOMAS BASSET OF FAIRFIELD WAS FREED FROM MILITARY TRAINING. THAT WAS DOUBTLESS BECAUSE HE HAD PASSED THE AGE OF 60.

PRESUMABLY HE WAS MARRIED WHILE LIVING IN WINDSOR, BUT IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT HE HAD SURVIVING CHILDREN, AS NO MENTION OF CHILDREN IS FOUND IN EITHER THE VITAL OR CHURCH RECORDS OF WINDSOR, NOR IN THE RECORD OF CHILDREN BORN AT WINDSOR MADE BY MATTHEW GRANT. THE WIFE MAY HAVE BEEN A WOMAN OF PECULIAR AND UNSOCIAL TEMPERAMENT, FOR WE SUPPOSE SHE WAS THE "GOODY BASSETT" WHO WAS ACCUSED OF WITCHCRAFT AT STRATFORD IN 1651, TRIED, FOUND GUILTY, AND EXECUTED. IT THUS APPEARS THAT THOMAS SOJOURNED FOR A TIME AT STRATFORD, BUT IN AUGUST 1653, HE RECEIVED A HOMELOT OF 2 1/2 ACRES IN FAIRFIELD.

WHETHER HE HAD ANY FAMILY AT THAT TIME, WE ARE NOT INFORMED; BUT HE MARRIED SECOND AFTER 1656, JOANNA, WIDOW OF THOMAS BEARDSLEY OF FAIRFIELD; A WOMAN MUCH YOUNGER THAN HIMSELF, AS SHE WAS BORN ABOUT 1634. ON 25 NOV. 1661, HE SOLD THE HOUSE OF THOMAS BEARDSLEY AS HIS "SUCCESSOR." IN MAY 1666, HE TESTIFIED, AGED 68, AS DID HIS WIFE JOHANNA, AGED 32, IN THE TRIAL OF THE WANTON MARY BENFIELD. THIS STATEMENT OF HIS AGE IDENTIFIES HIM WITH THE IMMIGRANT ON THE CHRISTIAN.

HE WAS ONE OF THE FOUR " POOR MEN" WHOSE DEBTS WERE FORGIVEN BY DR. PELL IN HIS WILL IN 1669. HE DIED PRIOR TO 14 JAN. 1669/70, WHEN THE INVENTORY OF HIS ESTATE WAS TAKEN. A WIDOW AND CHILDREN WERE MENTIONED BUT NOT NAMED. HIS ADMINISTRATORS SOLD AN ACRE IN "CONCORD FIELD," 4 MAY 1678, AND THOMAS DICKERSON ACKNOWLEDGED NEXT YEAR THAT HIS FATHER HAD GIVEN THE ACRE TO BASSETT.

SARAH BALDWIN AND THOMAS BASSETT

SARAH, WIFE OF THOMAS BASSETT, WAS ADMITTED TO THE FIRST CHURCH, MILFORD, 10 OCT. 1703, AND THEIR SEVEN CHILDREN WERE BAPTIZED THERE TOGETHER 24 OCT. 1703.

ON 7 FEB. 1736/7, JOHN BASSETT, JOSIAH BASSETT, JERUSHA BASSETT, WALTER LEWIS, AND SARAH HIS WIFE, ALL OF MILFORD, THOMAS BASSETT OF DERBY, AND AZARIAH CANFIELD AND MERCY HIS WIFE OF NEW MILFORD, CONVEYED THEIR INTEREST IN LAND IN MILFORD, FROM " OUR DECEASED FATHER THOMAS BASSETT, LATE OF MILFORD."

THOMAS BASSETT

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT

NOTE

As will be proved below, Azariah³ Canfield married at Milford, Conn., 26 Feb. 1719/20, Mercy, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Bassett of Milford. It is supposed (1) that this Thomas Bassett was son of Thomas¹ Bassett of Fairfield, and (2) that his wife Sarah was daughter of Josiah² Baldwin of Milford. Neither one of these suppositions has been proved.

The Report of the Second Reunion of the Bassett Family Association (New Haven, 1898), page 16, states: "Thomas Bassett, who located and died at Fairfield, Conn., had a son Thomas, who married Sarah, daughter of John Baldwin, of Milford, Conn., where he located." It is known that Thomas¹ Bassett left children, but no proof has been found who they were. By elimination of other possible fathers in the Bassett families of western Connecticut, it seems extremely probable that Thomas² of Milford was son of Thomas¹ of Fairfield.

No John Baldwin of Milford had a daughter Sarah available to marry Thomas² Bassett. However, Josiah² Baldwin by his wife Mercy Camp did have a daughter Sarah born in 1668, of suitable age to be mother of Thomas² Bassett's children, none of whom was probably born earlier than 1690. The second Bassett son was named Josiah, which would be for Sarah's father; the first Bassett daughter was named Mercy, which would be for Sarah's mother, and the second Bassett daughter was named Abigail, which could be for Sarah's sister Abigail.

In addition to the evidence of names, it seems entirely possible that the early genealogists of the Bassett family obtained from some family source their statement that Thomas² Bassett's wife was Sarah Baldwin, even though they erred in calling her daughter of a John Baldwin.

Finally, when the marriage of Mercy³ Bassett to Azariah³ Canfield was entered, the recorder plainly wrote her name as Baldwin, although deeds in Milford prove conclusively that she was a daughter of Thomas² Bassett. The presumption would be that she was a young Baldwin widow in 1720 when she married Canfield. However, no Baldwin husband for her is disclosed in the Baldwin Genealogy, nor in the intensive research conducted in Milford records by Nathan G. Pond and later by George C. Bryant, the two well-known genealogists who worked for years on Milford families. Hence it seems quite possible that the Milford recorder made a slip and wrote Mercy Baldwin in error for Bassett, and such a slip is understandable if he knew her mother and was thinking of her Baldwin mother when he wrote the name.

Despite the uncertainties involved, we are including the Bassett and Baldwin lines, with the caution that the ancestry is not proved by record evidence back of Thomas² and Sarah Bassett.

I. THOMAS BASSETT

Thomas¹ Bassett, aged 37, came on the Christian in 1635, hence was born about 1598. He is credited with service in the Pequot War (1637), though without authority and probably mistakenly. On 9 Apr. 1640 he was made a freeman as an inhabitant of Windsor, Conn. He was still there in 1644, but moved to Fairfield, leaving scarcely a record of himself at Windsor. On 19 May 1659, Thomas Basset of Fairfield was freed from military training. That was doubtless because he had passed the age of 60.[a]

Presumably he was married while living in Windsor, but it is doubtful that he had surviving children, as no mention of children is found in either the vital or church records of Windsor, nor in the record of children born at Windsor made by Matthew Grant. The wife may have been a woman of peculiar and unsocial temperament, for we suppose she was the "Goody Bassett" who was accused of witchcraft at Stratford in 1651, tried, found guilty, and executed. It thus appears that Thomas sojourned for a time at Stratford, but in August 1653 he received a homelot of 2½ acres in Fairfield.[b]

Whether he had any family at that time, we are not informed; but he married second, after 1656, Joanna, widow of Thomas Beardsley of Fairfield; a woman much younger than himself, as she was born about 1634. On 25 Nov. 1661, he sold the house of Thomas Beardsley as his "successor." In May 1666 he testified, aged 68, as did his wife Johanna, aged 32, in the trial of the wanton Mary Benfield. This statement of his age identifies him with the immigrant on the Christian.[b]

He was one of the four "poor men" whose debts to him were forgiven by Dr. Pell in his will in 1669. He died prior to 14 Jan. 1669/70, when the inventory of his estate was taken. A widow and children were mentioned but not named. His administrators sold an acre in "Concord Field," 4 May 1678, and Thomas Dickerson acknowledged next year that his father had given the acre to Bassett.[b]

Probable child of Thomas and Joanna (———) (Beardsley) Bassett, born at Fairfield:

+ i. Thomas², b. [say 1660]; d. by 1737.

II. THOMAS BASSETT

Thomas² Bassett, born [say 1660], died at Milford, Conn., before 7 Feb.

1736/7; married SARAH, probably BALDWIN, born at Milford, 29 Mar. 1668, daughter of Josiah and Mercy (Camp) Baldwin.

Sarah wife of Thomas Bassett was admitted to the First Church, Milford, 10 Oct. 1703, and their seven children were baptized there together on 24 Oct. 1703.

On 7 Feb. 1736/7, John Bassett, Josiah Bassett, Jerusha Bassett, Walter Lewis and Sarah his wife, all of Milford, Thomas Bassett of Derby, and Azariah Canfield and Mercy his wife of New Milford, conveyed their interest in land in Milford, from "our deceased Father Tho^{s} Bassett late of Milford.[c]

   Eulalia's will dated 27 May 1684.
   "There is an interesting story told about Eulalia (MARCHE) BURT; that in England she apparently died, was put in her coffin for interment when signs of life were seen and she was resuscitated and recovered, came to New England and live to a great age..."

BURT FAMILY

THE BURT FAMILY WAS TRACED IN ENGLAND BY GEORGE SKELTON SHERRY, B. SC. AND THE RECORDS WERE PUBLISHED IN THE NEW ENGLAND HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL REGISTER IN 1932. HENRY WAS A PROSPEROUS CLOTHIER AND LANDHOLDER, WHO HAD HIS OWN FLOCK OF SHEEP AND OWNED AT HIS DEATH A CONSIDERABLE AMOUNT OF CLOTH AND YARN. IN HIS WILL, HE GAVE L30 TO THE POOR OF THE PARISH OF HARBERTON. HIS WIDOW, ISOTTE BURTE, IN HER NUNCUPATIVE WILL, GAVE ALL HER GOODS TO HER DAUGHTERS AGNES BURTE AND ELIZABETH BURTE, WHOM SHE MADE HER EXECUTORS. HER ESTATE (PERSONAL PROPERTY ONLY) WAS APPRAISED AT L9.13.4.

HENRY BURT

HENRY BURT LIVED AT HARBERTON, CO. DEVON, ENGLAND UNTIL HIS EMMIGRATION, WAS A CLOTHIER, AND IN 1624, WAS TAXED ON LAND AT HARBERTON. HE CAME TO NEW ENGLAND BY 1638/9 AND SETTLED FIRST AT ROXBURY, MASS. WHERE HIS HOUSE WAS BURNED AND IN NOV. 1639 THE GENERAL COURT MADE A GRANT OF L8 TO THE TOWN BECAUSE OF THIS LOSS. THE FOLLOWING YEAR, HE REMOVED TO SPRINGFIELD, OF WHICH TOWN HE MAY BE REGARDED AS ONE OF THE FOUNDING FATHERS AND CHIEF CITIZENS, THOUGH HE DID NOT ARRIVE WITH THE EARLIEST SETTLERS. HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE FIRST BOARD OF SELECTMENT 1644, SERVING CONTINUOUSLY UNTIL 1652 AND AGAIN IN 1654. FIRST TO HOLD THE OFFICE OF CLERK OF WRITS BEING ELECTED 29 MAY 1649 AND SERVING UNTIL HIS DEATH IN 1662. THE VITAL STATISTICS FOR THAT PERIOD ARE IN HIS HANDWRITING.

HENRY BURT

SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

ORIGIN

The Burt family was traced in England by George Skelton Terry, B.Sc., and the records were published in The New England Historical and Genealogical Register in 1932.[a] It is therefore unnecessary to include the basic documents herein, and we give only the genealogical connections deduced from them.

Henry Burtt of Harberton, co. Devon, clothier, died between 10 July 1617, the date of his will, and 10 Sept. 1617, when the inventory of his estate was taken. He married Isett or Isott ———, who died between 14 Mar. 1629/30, when she declared her nuncupative will, and 8 July 1630, when the inventory of her estate was taken.

He was a prosperous clothier and landholder, who had his own flock of sheep and owned at his death a considerable stock of cloth and yarn. The entire estate was appraised at £602.7.9. In his will he gave 30s. to the poor of the parish of Harberton, and bequeathed to his wife Isett; his sons Henry and John; his daughters Raddegan (under 21), Allies [Alice], Agnes, and Elizabeth (all under 20); another daughter Johan, wife of Christine [Crispin] Saunder[s]; his grandchildren, Joseph and Samuel Saunders; his brothers' and sisters' children; and others.

His widow, Isotte Burte, in her nuncupative will gave all her goods to her daughters, Agnes Burte and Elizabeth Burte, whom she made her executors. Her estate (personal property only) was appraised at £9.13.4.

I. HENRY BURT

Henry^1 Burt, almost certainly the one who was named in the will of the earlier Henry in 1617, was born probably about 1595, and died at Springfield, Mass., 30 Apr. 1662; married at Dean Prior, co. Devon, 28 Dec. 1619, Ulalia March, who died at Springfield, 29 Aug. 1690, daughter of Richard and Joan (Martyn?) March.

Henry Burt lived at Harberton, co. Devon, until his emigration, was a clothier, and in 1624 was taxed on land at Harberton. These facts serve to identify him as son of the earlier Henry, who was also a clothier and left real estate to his son Henry.

He came to New England by 1638/9, and settled first at Roxbury, Mass., where his house was burned, and in November 1639 the General Court made a grant of £8 to the town because of this loss. The following year he removed to Springfield, of which town he may be regarded as one of the founding fathers and chief citizens, though he did not arrive with the earliest settlers.

With Henry Smith, Thomas Cooper, Samuel Chapin, and Richard Sikes, he was a member of the first board of Selectmen, 1644, serving continuously through 1652 and again in 1654. Shortly thereafter, the family was represented on the board by his eldest son Jonathan. Henry Burt was the first to hold in Springfield the office of Clerk of the Writs, being elected 29 May 1649 and serving until his death in 1662. The vital statistics for that period are in his handwriting. After Rev. George Moxon left Springfield, the town for some time was without a settled minister and got along with what may be termed lay readers as a substitute. It was voted, 18 Feb. 1655/6, that Mr. Holyoke and Henry Burt should carry on the work of the Sabbath, and recompense was voted to Deacon Wright, Deacon Chapin, Mr. Holyoke and Henry Burt for their labors in that work the previous summer. On 9 Nov. 1657, Mr. Holyoke, Mr. Pynchon, Deacon Chapin, and Henry Burt were appointed to continue this work.[b] Although there were attempts to secure a settled minister, none remained long until the Rev. Pelatiah Glover commenced his pastorate in 1660.

March Family

Mr. Terry also communicated the ancestry of Ulalia March to the New England Historical and Genealogical Register in 1932.[c]

I. John Marche appears in the records of the court of the manor of Stokenham, co. Devon, in 1569 and 1570, when he was charged with diverting the water at Allymore from its right course, so that it could not run to the mill of the lord of the manor.

II. William Marche, son of John Marche, was mentioned in the manor rolls of Stokenham, 3 Jan. 1580/1, and in 1610 was called "William Marche, sen.," in the rolls. He was probably identical with William Marche "the elder" of Sherford, co. Devon, yeoman, whose will dated 29 Apr. 1612, named the seven children of his deceased son, Richard, and surviving children of his own. The inventory of his personal estate was taken 11 Feb. 1613/14.

III. Richard Marche, of Sherford, co. Devon, died before his father made his will in 1612. He married Joane, probably sister of Rev. Henry Martyn, vicar of Rattery, co. Devon, who was called uncle in the will of Richard Marche's daughter Elizabeth. Joane made her will 21 May 1616, proved 21 June 1616, and named her son William, who died unmarried soon after his mother, and six daughters, Alice, Elizabeth, Ulalia, Amias, Jane, and Johane.

IV. Ulalia Marche, married at Dean Prior, co. Devon, 28 Dec. 1619, Henry Burt.

Subject: Canfield family

Dear Ms Weaver,

I have had a hard time finding out info on my/our Canfield family. I have seen your name numerous times in postings offering help to others, and I would be most happy if you would share some of your info with me to expidite my digging process.

Like you, my line is descended from Freelove Canfield Lacey, and aside from scattered "single" mentions of sibblings in that pedigree, I can only find "total" sibbling listings for Thomas Jr., which contradicts info I've found in other places on his family unit. So it goes without being said that any help that you can provide me would be most welcome.

Thanks for your time & efforts,
Dave Curliss

Individual biographical text for Ebenezer Lacy Jr.

The Lacy Family From Fairfield, Connecticut by Philip S. Lacy 1973

P.27 Ebenezer Lacey Jr. (s. of Ebenezer Lacey Sr., No. 9, and Jedidah (Jackson) Lacey); b. Stratfield, Conn. Apr. 19, 1727; d. Laceyville, PA. Dec. 21, 1807(g.s.); m. New Milford, Litchfield Co., Conn. Dec. 15, 1748 to Freelove Canfield, b. New Milford, Dec. 29, 1726, d. Laceyville Mar. 5, 1801 (g.s.); dau. of Azariah and Mercey (Bassett) Canfield of Milford, Conn, who were m. Feb. 17, 1719. Mercy Bassett was bapt. at Milford Oct. 24, 1703, and her parents were Thomas and Sarah (Baldwin) Bassett of Milford. In 1750/51 Ebenezer's father Ebenezer Sr. No. 9 removed with part of his family to New Fairfield, but it is improbable that Ebenezer Jr. accompanied them; for he had married in New Milford two years before that time, & had purchased land there on Mar. 14, 1750. This document of land purchase, owned by Charles L. Sanford, no. 3569, a descendant, of 723 Congress St., Neenah, Wis. mentions "Ebenezer Lacey of said New Milford", and locates this property with reference to said Lacey's dwelling house." Quoting from Ackley-Bosworth Gen. "He established himself as a blacksmith near his father-in-law's home in lower Merryall, on the west branch of the west Aspetuck, & afterwards apparently removed to New Milford village." New Milford was adjacent to Roxbury until 1856, when the part of New Milford nearest to Roxbury was established as the town of Bridgewater. Ebenezer Lacey Jr. served from 7 to 14 days in Aug. 1757 in the French & Indian War, in the company of Capt. John Hitchcock of New Milford,in Col. Ebenezer Marsh's Regt. at the time of the alarm for the relief of Ft. William Henry & places adjacent-65 of those named in the muster rode horses from New Milford, 18 from New Fairfiled.(Conn. Hist. Soc. Coll. 9:226). He served in the Revolution as a Sergeant in Capt. David Leavenworth's Company of col. Increase Moseley's Regiment of Colonial Militia, guarding the coastal area between Horseneck near Narragansett Bay & New Haven, Conn. on June 12, 1779 he was serving there as a member of the Continental Guards under his father-in-law Azariah Canfield (Conn. State Library, War, 7, 31). One of his daughters married in the New Preston Church, & it is possible that he became a resident of that parish which was partly in New Milford & partly in Washington. Among the early settlers of New Preston were people who adhered to the Episcopal Church. such was St. Andrew's Church. " At a meeting warned & held June 26, 1784, the inhabitants of New Preston & East-Wich(Warren) of the denomination of the Church of England so called parishes, having formed themselves into a lawful society according to the late act of the general assembly of the State of Connecticut: We, the subscribers whose names are underwritten, being desirous for the promoting religion & good order, do acknowledge ourselves to be & belong to the above said society, as witness our hands".(Signatures were from the towns of New Milford, Twps. of Kent, Washington, & Warren). Included in names from the Twp. of Washington were Ebenezer Lacey and Isaac Lacey, his son). New York land grants show that between 1760 & 1763 he was interesated in the purchase of lands there, his grant apparently being in Kingsbury(Washington Co., NY); but it is not until 1794, after his son Isaac had removed with his family from Tinmouth, VT. to Braintrim, Luzerne Co., PA.(later Laceyville, Wyoming Co.) that he removed to Pennsylvania to be with his son. Next is from ACKLEY-BOSWORTH GENEALOGY: Ebenezer Lacey, born @ Stratfield,Conn,, 19 Apr. 1727, died @ Laceyvile, Wyoming Co., Pa., 21 Dec. 1807, aged 81(gravestone); married @ New Milford, Conn., 15 Dec. 1748, Freelove Canfield, born @ New Milford, 29 Dec. 1726, died @ Laceyville, Pa. 5 Mar. 1801, aged 74 (gravestone), daughter of Azariah & Mercy (Bassett) Canfield. He went to New Milford as a young man, married there, & established himself as a blacksmith near his father-in-law's home in Lower Merryall, on the west branch of the West Asperuck, & afterwards apparently removed to New Milford village. New Milford was adjacent to Roxbury until 1856, when the part of New Milford nearest to Roxbury was established as the town of Bridgewater. Ebenezer had eight days of seervice in August 1757 in the French & Indian War as a member of the Company of Capt .John Hitchcock of New Milford. As one of his daughters married in the New Preston church, it is possible that he became a resident of that parish, which was partly in New Milford & partly in Washington. If so, he mmay have been the Ebenezer Lacy listed at Washington in the 1790 census with a boy under 16 & two females in his family. We do not find Ebenezer or his sons listed in Pennsylvania in 1790. New York Land Grants show that between 1760 & 1763 he was interested in the purchase of lands there, his grant apparenty being in Kingsbury, Wahsington Co., N.Y. but he may not have occupied the lands personally. He is said to have come "at an early day" from Connecticut to Braintrim Township, & his son Isaac to Laceyville, Wyoming Co., PA. THOMAS CANFIELD

Thomas Canfield had the following children baptized at Minsden, in Hitchin, co. Hertford, England:[a]

- i. Elizabeth, bapt. 30 Nov. 1621.
- + ii. Thomas, bapt. 23 June 1623.
- iii. Jacob, bapt. 14 June 1626.
- iv. Jeremiah, bapt. 29 Dec. 1636.
- v. John, bapt. 18 May 1639.

There were probably other children, not found in the Minsden registers, but no complete account can be offered here, as probate and other sources have not been consulted.

John Burwell of Milford came from Minsden and entries concerning his family appear there. Several other Milford surnames are found in the Minsden registers. Thomas Canfield was not an original Milford settler, but a later comer. He joined the Milford church in 1656 and then had three children baptized, of whom the eldest was born probably not later than 1650. He would therefore be of suitable age to identify with the Thomas baptized in 1623 above. We think the identification probable, because the distinct connection of Minsden with Milford colonists suggests that the young Thomas of Minsden may have followed relatives to the New World and that would explain why he selected Milford for his home. Furthermore, the Minsden Thomas had a brother Jeremiah and a sister Elizabeth, and the Milford Thomas bestowed those names on children.

The surname in the Minsden records, as in New England, was variously spelled Camfield, Canfeild, etc., and in one entry the elder Thomas was called "of Hill ende."

I. THOMAS CANFIELD

Thomas^1 Canfield, probably baptized at Minsden, Hertfordshire, England, 23 June 1623, died at Milford, Conn., (before 22 Aug.) 1689; married Phebe ———, who died at Milford in 1690.

He was an early but not an original settler in Milford, where he was admitted to the church, 1 Mar. 1656. His wife Phebe was not admitted until 4 May 1671.

The identity of his wife Phebe is unknown. Several publications call her daughter of Jasper Crane, a leading citizen of Branford, Conn., who removed to Newark, N. J. No evidence for this has been found in original records or in any of the books which make the claim. Other publications try to connect her with the Crane family of Wethersfield. It must be stated, however, that the present compiler has found no reason for supposing that she was a Crane at all, except that she has been called Crane in print, which is not a cogent reason for accepting the name unless the evidence for it is stated.

Thomas was confirmed Sergeant of the Milford Trainband, May 1669, and served as Deputy, Oct. 1673, Oct. 1674, Oct. 1676, Oct. 1681, Oct. 1683, Nov. 1683, May and July 1684.[b]

The will of Thomas Canfield, Sr., dated 13 Feb. 1687/8, mentioned his wife Phebe; three married daughters, Sarah, Phebe, and Elizabeth; daughter Abigail; three unmarried daughters; two sons, Thomas and Jeremiah; and son John Smith. His inventory, taken 22 Aug. 1689, calls him Sergeant.[c]

The will of Phebe Canfield, made 28 July 1690, named her daughters Mary, Hannah, Mehitabel, Sarah Platt, Phebe Smith, Elizabeth Baldwin, Abigail Staples; son Jeremiah Canfield; with legacies to grandson Thomas Canfield and to Rebecca Canfield. Proved 12 Nov. 1690, and administration granted to her daughter Mary Canfield.[c]

His will, dated 11 Mar. 1739/40, with a codicil the next day, was proved 31 Mar. 1740, and contains many interesting provisions. III. AZARIAH CANFIELD

Azariah^{3} Canfield, born at Milford about 1693, settled in New Milford 1727 and died there in 1769; married at Milford, 26 Feb. 1719/20, Mercy Baldwin, according to the Milford record, but there is no doubt that she was daughter of Thomas Bassett.[f] If her mother was a Baldwin, as stated by the manuscripts of the late Nathan G. Pond and printed in the third report of the Bassett Family Association, the name may have been an inadvertence on the part of the recorder who wrote her mother's maiden name instead of her own surname.

His will, dated 26 Nov. 1766, gave the usual dower to his wife Mercy, lands to his son Azariah, Jr., referring to his birthright, and to his daughter Freelove Lacey, six acres to his granddaughter Olive Lacey, lands to his two sons Oliver and Israel, the latter to have his dwelling house and half the barn. The inventory of the estate was received 13 June 1769.[g]

Children of Azariah and Mercy (Bassett) Canfield, all but the first one recorded at New Milford:[h]

THOMAS CANFIELD HAD THE FOLLOWING CHILDREN BAPTIZED AT MINSDEN, IN HITCHIN, CO. HERTFORD, ENGLAND: a

i. ELIZABETH, BAPT. 30 NOV. 1621.
+ii. THOMAS, BAPT.23 JUNE 1623.
iii. JACOB, BAPT. 14 JUNE 1626.
iv. JEREMIAH, BAPT. 29 DEC. 1636.
v. JOHN, BAPT. 18 MAY 1639.

THERE WERE PROBABLY OTHER CHILDREN, NOT FOUND IN THE MINSDEN REGISTERS, BUT NO COMPLETE ACCOUNT CAN BE OFFERED HERE, AS PROBATE AND OTHER SOURCES HAVE NOT BEEN CONSULTED.

JOHN BURWELL OF MILFORD CAME FROM MINSDEN AND ENTRIES CONCERNING HIS FAMILY APPEAR THERE. SEVERAL OTHER MILFORD SURNAMES ARE FOUND IN THE MINSDEN REGISTERS. THOMAS CANFIELD WAS NOT AN ORIGINAL MILFORD SETTLER, BUT A LATER COMER. HE JOINED THE MILFORD CHURCH IN 1656 AND THEN HAD THREE CHILDREN BAPTIZED, OF WHOM THE ELDEST WAS BORN PROBABLY NOT LATER THAN 1650. HE WOULD THEREFORE BE OF SUITABLE AGE TO IDENTIFY WITH THE THOMAS BAPTIZED IN 1623 ABOVE. WE THINK THE IDENTIFICATION PROBABLE, BECAUSE THE DISTINCT CONNECTION OF MINSDEN WITH MILFORD COLONISTS SUGGESTS THAT THE YOUNG THOMAS OF MINSDEN MAY HAVE FOLLOWED RELATIVES TO THE NEW WORLD AND THAT WOULD EXPLAIN WHY HE SELECTED MILFORD FOR HIS HOME. FURTHERMORE, THE MINSDEN THOMAS HAD A BROTHER JEREMIAH AND A SISTER ELIZABETH, AND THE MILFORD THOMAS BESTOWED THOSE NAMES ON HIS CHILDREN.

THE SURNAME IN THE MINSDEN RECORDS, AS IN NEW ENGLAND, WAS VARIOUSLY SPELLED CAMFIELD, CAN FEILD, ETC. AND IN ONE ENTRY, THE ELDER THOMAS WAS CALLED " OF HILL ENDE."

I. THOMAS CANFIELD

THOMAS(1) CANFIELD, PROBABLY BAPTIZED AT MINSDEN, HERTFORDSHIRE, ENGLAND, 23 JUNE 1623, DIED AT MILFORD, CONN., (BEFORE 22 AUG.) 1689; MARRIED PHEBE _______, WHO DIED AT MILFORD IN 1690.

HE WAS AN EARLY BUT NOT AN ORIGINAL SETTLER IN MILFORD, WHERE HE WAS ADMITTED TO THE CHURCH, 1 MAR. 1656. HIS WIFE PHEBE WAS NOT ADMITTED UNTIL 4 MAY 1671.

THE IDENTITY OF HIS WIFE PHEBE IS UNKNOWN. SEVERAL PUBLICATIONS CALL HER DAUGHTER OF JASPER CRANE, A LEADING CITIZEN OF BRANFORD, CONN., WHO REMOVED TO NEWARK, N.J. NO EVIDENCE FOR THIS HAS BEEN FOUND IN ORIGINAL RECORDS OR IN ANY OF THE BOOKS WHICH MAKE THE CLAIM. OTHER PUBLICATIONS TRY TO CONNECT HER WITH THE CRANE FAMILY OF WETHERSFIELD. IT MUST BE STATED, HOWEVER, THAT THE PRESENT COMPILER HAS FOUND NO REASON FOR SUPPOSING THAT SHE WAS A CRANE AT ALL, EXCEPT THAT SHE HAS BEEN CALLED CRANE IN PRINT, WHICH IS NOT A COGENT REASON FOR ACCEPTING THE NAME UNLESS THE EVIDENCE FOR IT IS STATED.

THOMAS WAS CONFIRMED SERGEANT OF THE MILFORD TRAINBAND, MAY 1669, AND SERVED AS DEPUTY, OCT. 1673, OCT. 1674, OCT.1676, OCT. 1681, OCT. 1683, NOV. 1683, MAY AND JULY 1684.(b)

THE WILL OF THOMAS CANFIELD SR., DATED 13 FEB. 1687/8, MENTIONED HIS WIFE PHEBE; THREE MARRIED DAUGHTERS, SARAH, PHEBE, AND ELIZABETH; DAUGHTER ABIGAIL; THREE UNMARRIED DAUGHTERS; TWO SONS, THOMAS AND JEREMIAH; AND SON JOHN SMITH. HIS INVENTORY, TAKEN 22 AUG. 1689, CALLS HIM SERGEANT.(c)

THE WILL OF PHEBE CANFIELD, MADE 28 JULY 1690, NAMED HER DAUGHTERS MARY, HANNAH, MEHITABEL, SARAH PLATT, PHEBE SMITH, ELIZABETH BALDWIN, ABIGAIL STAPLES; SON JEREMIAH CANFIELD; WITH LEGACIES TO GRANDSON THOMAS CANFIELD AND TO REBECCA CANFIELD. PROVED 12 NOV. 1690, AND ADMINISTRATION GRANTED TO HER DAUGHTER MARY CANFIELD.(c)

IF HER MOTHER WAS A BALDWIN, AS STATED BY THE MANUSCRIPTS OF THE LATE NATHAN G. POND AND PRINTED IN THE THIRD REPORT OF THE BASSETT FAMILY ASSOCIATION, THE NAME MAY HAVE BEEN AN INADVERTENCE ON THE PART OF THE RECORDER WHO WROTE HER MOTHER'S MAIDEN NAME INSTEAD OF HER OWN SURNAME.

HIS WILL, DATED 26 NOV. 1766, GAVE THE USUAL DOWER TO HIS WIFE MERCY, LANDS TO HIS SON, AZARIAH, JR., REFERRING TO HIS BIRTHRIGHT, AND TO HIS DAUGHTER FREELOVE LACEY, SIX ACRES TO HIS GRANDDAUGHTER OLIVE LACEY, LANDS TO HIS TWO SONS OLIVER AND ISRAEL, THE LATTER TO HAVE HIS DWELLING HOUSE AND HALF THE BARN. Lucy,

I saw your entry at GenForum. I also descend from Jeremiah Canfield and Alice Hine. In fact, I have a website with most of my research available at www.geocities.com/Heartland/Meadows/4032. 4302

I have information on Azariah and his wife (whom I show as Marcy Baldwin), but not any descendants. I would love to include children and further generations, if you have that data and would be willing to share. If Azariah's wife is Mercy Bassett, is she a sister to Josiah Bassett who married Azariah's younger sister, Alice?

Subject: UFT

Hi Lucy,

Sorry it took so long to respond. My husband had to reformat our computer this weekend & so I haven't had access to my email until yesterday.

I didn't use Roots before UFT. I'm not sure how you go about creating family journal for only specific descendents in Roots, but in UFT, it appears that you need to first search for descendents for a particular individual. Then you can remove certain individuals and group these remaining individuals. You can then run a Family Journal report checking on the box "use list". It's a bit of a hassle, depending on how many generations you plan on doing.

Don't worry about asking for help. I do the same all the time. I still haven't figured out how to run a report listing individuals with events in certain geographic locations. I have never tried to contact Palladium, but they do have a message list on their web page that users post questions to. I have posted a couple of questions myself. There is one man who always seems to respond to these types of questions & he seems to know the program pretty well. But I am not sure how different UFT is from ROOTS.

I received the information you sent. Thank you very much. It was very helpful regarding the Phebe Crane situation.

Is there anything from my family lines you would like? I'm not sure if I sent everything you were looking for regarding the Wheeler lines.

Michele

I would like to add your branch to my database since I show no children for Thomas and Phebe except Sarah who married PLATT. I never knew about Hannah and John GILBERT.

I CAN accept large e-mail attachments...text or gedcoms. When someone sends me a gedcom, I usually print it and enter by hand unless it is a short one. Eithr way I open each individual file and give YOU credit for sharing the information as part of the source. So if you send a gedcom, also send me permanent mailing/address/contact information in case I (or somebody else) wants to contact you in future. ;-)

I will gladly share what I have with you. Please tell me if you can accept attachments or whatever . . .

BTW what did you hear from Lucy?

I've been sick and that is why I've been distracted from answering you sooner. I wonder how we are related? (you and my husband, that is)

Until I hear from you again,

Namaste'

SOME ANCESTORS OF HENRY^1 GREGORY: WORSLEY AND PARR

By John Insley Coddington, F.A.S.G., of Bordentown, N.J.

This paper deals, though by no means definitively, with some of the ancestors of Henry^1 Gregory, shoemaker, who was born in England and most probably in Nottinghamshire, presumably between 1580 and 1590. He came to New England with his wife and most of his surviving children in or about 1636, lived for some years at Springfield, Mass. (where his wife died), and later moved to Stratford, Conn., where he died shortly before 19 June 1655.

There is an excellent book on Henry Gregory and his family: Grant Gregory, Ancestors and Descendants of Henry Gregory, Rutland, Vt., 1938, and there is a brief outline of the early generations of Henry Gregory's descendants in Donald Lines Jacobus, Families of Old Fairfield, 1930, 1:236-241. There is also a rather unsatisfactory account of the Henry Gregory family in Charles A. Hoppin, The Washington Ancestry and Records of the McClain, Johnson, and Forty Other Colonial Families, Greenfield, Ohio, 1932, 3:516-520; there have been other published accounts of the Henry Gregory family as well, but we shall not discuss them at the present time.

Henry^1 Gregory the New England settler was, unquestionably, a son of John and Alice (———) Gregory, who lived for a time at Broughton Sulney (sometimes called Upper Broughton), co. Nottingham, which is close to the border of co. Leicester. Some of the evidence for this connection has been known, indeed, since 1869, when an article on the subject by Isaac J. Greenwood appeared in the New England Hist. and Gen. Register, 23:304-307. Henry^1 Gregory was, moreover, a brother (probably a younger brother) of the wealthy William Gregory, butcher, and later alderman and mayor of Nottingham and sheriff of Nottingham, who was buried at St. Mary's Church, Nottingham, 23 Aug. 1650, and whose will, dated 18 June 1650 and proved 5 Feb. 1650/1, is given in good abstract form in Henry F. Waters, Genealogical Gleanings in England, Boston, 1901, 1:717-718, as well as in the books by Grant Gregory and C. A. Hoppin.

William Gregory's will contains this clause; "I give to my brother Henry Gregory twenty marks if he live six months after my decease, and to every child of his body lawfully begotten (except my cousin Perry [?Percy] his daughter) that shall be living at the end of six months after my decease, five pounds, to be paid within twelve months after my decease. I also give and bequeath the sume of four pounds to be paid towards the charges of fetching of the said legacies, given as aforesaid unto my said brother Henry and his children, they being now, as I am informed, in the parts beyond the seas called New England. I give and bequeath to my said cousin Perrie [?Percie], my said brother Henry's daughter, the sum of ten pounds, to be paid within six months after my decease..." This will proved the identity of Henry^1 Gregory, the New England settler, and it is known that he and his brother William were sons of John and Alice (———) Gregory, who lived for some years, at least, at Broughton Sulney.

Mrs. Florence E. Skillington, of Leicester, England, has kindly examined the Parish Registers of Broughton Sulney for the contributor. She reported that the Registers began in 1563, but that there were no Gregory entries until 1611, in which year (16 Sept.) Elizabeth Gregory (a daughter of John and Alice, and younger sister of William and Henry) was married to Michael Smaley. Winifred Gregory, another daughter of John and Alice, was buried at Broughton Sulney 20 Dec. 1614, and "Ales Gregorie wife to John Gregorie" was buried there 3 Dec. 1617. John Gregory himself was not buried at Broughton Sulney and, what is more important, he was not married there and none of his children were baptized there. They were probably living in another parish not far away at the time of the birth and baptism of Henry Gregory the New England settler and his brothers and sisters.

The ancestral line of the Gregory family seems, nevertheless, to be entirely satisfactory, and the contributor agrees with the evidence adduced by Grant Gregory in his genealogy. But Grant Gregory and C. A. Hoppin did not attempt to trace the ancestry of Dorothy Parr, wife of William Gregory of Highhurst, co. Lancaster, which couple were the great-great-grandparents in the paternal line of Henry^1 Gregory. It is our purpose to draw attention to some of Dorothy Parr's ancestors, in the hope that the interest of some of the many descendants of Henry^1 Gregory will be attracted to mediaeval English research.

One of the greatest authorities on English gentry families of the Middle Ages is Mr. Walter Goodwin Davis, F.A.S.G., F.S.A., F.S.G., of Portland, Maine, and it is highly appropriate that the first discoverable ancestor of Dorothy Parr appears in Mr. Davis's magnificent work, The Ancestry of Mary Isaac, Portland, Maine, The Anthoensen Press, 1955. In this book, pp. 299-308 are devoted to the Worsley family, then of Worsley in the parish of Eccles, hundred of Salford, co. Lancaster. It is also a matter of great interest that the present male representative of the ancient family of Worsley of Worsley is Sir William Arthington Worsley, 4th Baronet, of Hovingham Hall, co. York, whose daughter, Katharine Lucy Mary Worsley, was married at York Minster on 8 June 1961 to H.R.H. Prince Edward George Nicholas Paul Patrick of Great Britain, 2nd Duke of Kent, and that the child of this couple will be tenth in succession to the British Crown, as well as being a very remote cousin of all the descendants of Mary (Isaac) Appleton and all the descendants of Henry^1 Gregory.

It will suffice to summarize the Worsley pedigree so excellently treated by Mr. Davis in The Ancestry of Mary Isaac.

1. Elias de Worsley, of Worsley in the parish of Eccles, co. Lancaster, was possibly b. about 1150 (Ancestry of Mary Isaac, hereafter M.I., p. 303). His son,

2. Richard de Worsley, of Worsley, was b. possibly about 1175, apparently d. before 1233, and m. Maud, who may have been either Maud de Singleton or Maud de Parles (M.I., 304-5). Their 2nd son:

3. Roger de Worsley, probably b. about 1212 and founded the branch of the family known as the Worsleys of Kempnall or Kempnough, co. Lancaster. He was twice married; his first wife Agnes may have been Agnes de Bedford or Agnes de Sale, and she was living in 1259. The date of Roger's death is not known, but he was survived by his 2nd wife, Constance de Rivington, who was living, a widow, in 1277 (M.I., 306-7). His son,

4. Richard de Worsley of Kempnall or Kempnough was recorded in 1270, 1275, 1278 and 1302. The name of his wife is unknown (M.I., 307). His son,

5. Robert de Worsley, known as "Robert the Clerk," of Kempnall or Kempnough, also had an unknown wife (M.I., 307), and was father of

6. Richard de Worsley, who made a settlement of his lands in Worsley and elsewhere before 1334, and was still living in 1346, when he made a new settlement of lands. He had sons Richard and Robert, both of whom seem to have died without issue, and a daughter Ellen, who eventually succeeded to the lands of Kempnall or Kempnough (M.I., 307-8).

7. Ellen de Worsley, on whom the lands of Kempnall or Kempnough devolved after the death of her brothers, m. Richard de Parr. This man is described as "a younger son of Parr of Parr" in a Parr of Kempnall pedigree in The Topographer and Genealogist (hereafter Top. & Gen.), vol. 3, (1858), p. 359, but he does not appear in the Parr of Parr pedigrees in ibid, 354, 356, 357, or in the Parr pedigree in John William Clay, Extinct and Dormant Peerages of the Northern Counties of England, 1913, p. 156.

8. Oliver de Parr, eldest son of Richard de Parr and wife Ellen de Worsley, received the lands of Kempnall or Kempnough by a settlement of 1408 (M.I., 308). He m. Emme Tuthill, daughter and heiress of William Tuthill of Cleworth, co. Lancaster (Top. & Gen., 3:359; Chetham Society Publ., 81:120).

9. Richard Parr, of Kempnall or Kempnough and Cleworth, co. Lancaster, m. Emme Hulton, daughter of Roger Hulton, of Hulton, co. Lancaster, by his wife Katherine Harrington, daughter and heiress of Sir James Harrington of Wolfedge, co. Lancaster (Top. & Gen., 3:359; Chetham Soc., 81:120).

10. Richard Parr, of Kempnall or Kempnough and Cleworth, m. Elizabeth Travers, daughter of John Travers, of Rudgate, co. Lancaster (Top. & Gen., 3:359; Chetham Soc., 81:120).

11. Hugh Parr, of Kempnall or Kempnough and Cleworth; m. (1) Constance Tildesley, daughter of Thomas Tildesley of Wardley, co. Lancaster; (2) Isabel Dychefield, daughter of John Dychefield, of Ditton, co. Lancaster (Top. & Gen., 3:359; Chetham Soc., 81:120). By the first wife, Hugh Parr had two sons, Thurstan Parr of Kempnall or Kempnough and Cleworth, and Oliver Parr, a younger son. Hugh Parr also had a daughter, Dorothy Parr, though by which marriage is uncertain.

12. Dorothy Parr, m. William Gregory, of Highhurst, township o of Tyldesley with Shakerley, parish of Leigh, West Derby Hundred (about 10 miles west of Manchester), co. Lancaster (Grant Gregory, Anc. & Desc. of Henry Gregory, p.18).

13. Hugh Gregory, second son of William and Dorothy (Parr) Gregory, was b. ca. 1490-95, and apparently lived at Urmston, co. Lancaster. He m. Mary ——— (ibid., p.20).

14. William or Thomas Gregory, farmer and grazier at Broughton Sulney, co. Nottingham, b. (say 1520), m. Dorothy Beeston, daughter of George Beeston "of co. Chester." He is called "William Gregory" in Thoroton Society Record Series, 13:1; "Thomas Gregory" in Grant Gregory, p. 20.

15. John Gregory, yeoman, for a time resident of Broughton Sulney, co. Nottingham, b. (say 1550). d. after 1617; m. Alice ———, who was bur. at Broughton Sulney 3 Dec. 1617. Hoppin (op. cit., 3:516) asserts that she was Alice Alton; this is probably due to confusion in Hoppin's mind with the wife of John Gregory of Nottingham, grandson of John and Alice Gregory. The wife of this younger John Gregory was in fact Elizabeth Alton , daughter of George Alton of Nottingham, "Doctor of Phisick." The maiden surname of Alice, wife of the elder John Gregory, is not known.

16. Henry Gregory, b. probably between 1580 and 1590; settled in New England ca. 1636; d. at Stratford, Conn., in 1655.

CLARENCE ALMON TORREY

It is with a sense of personal loss that I record the death of Clarence Almon Torrey at Boston on the 5th of February 1962. Once I had the pleasure of meeting him when I was in Boston, but for more than thirty-five years he was a friend and frequent correspondent. He was a Contributing Editor of our quarterly from the day of its founding in 1932, and the last of his many fine articles was published in it in April 1961.

A gentleman and a scholar, he was always ready to aid others, and his death is a loss to all genealogists. His great work, an index to New England marriages before 1700, was given to the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston.

HENRY GREGORY

STRATFORD, CONNECTICUT

ORIGIN

Henry Gregory seems to have belonged to a family of the "minor gentry" in England, but was a shoemaker by trade. The will of William Gregory of Nottingham, England, Gent., made 18 June 1650, proved 5 Feb. 1651, remembered many relatives besides his immediate family, and one clause reads: "I give to my brother Henry Gregory twenty marks if he live six months after my decease, and to every child of his body lawfully begotten (except my cousin Perry, his daughter) that shall be living at the end of six months after my decease, five pounds . . . I also give and bequeath the sum of four pounds to be paid towards the charges of fetching of the said legacies, given as aforesaid to my said brother Henry and his children, they being now, as I am informed, in the parts beyond the seas called New England. I give and bequeath to my said Cousin Perrie, my said brother Henry's daughter, the sum of ten pounds . . ."[a] The inference seems plain that all of Henry's children were in New England with him except his daughter "Perry," who was better known by her uncle and to whom he gave twice as much as to the other children. Furthermore, no carrying charges were provided to place her legacy in her hands.

This William Gregory had been Mayor of Nottingham in 1632 and 1639, and a pedigree of his family appeared in Deering's History of Nottingham, 1751.[b] On this pedigree, William's brother Henry is called "de Boston in Nova Anglia." He is represented as son of John Gregory of Broughton Sulney, Notts (by wife Alice), son of Thomas Gregory of Overbroughton, Notts (by wife Dorothy Beeston), son of Hugh Gregory (by wife Mary), son of William Gregory (by wife Dorothy Parr of Kempenhaugh, Lancs), son of Adam Gregory (by his wife, an Ormeston of Ormeston, Lancs), with whom the pedigree starts. There is no reason to doubt this line, but neither can it be accepted as true in every detail without verification by research in contemporary records.

I. HENRY GREGORY

Henry^{1} Gregory settled in Springfield, Mass., by 1639, and was planning to sell his lot there on 14 Mar. 1642/3, when the matter was presented to the Selectmen "by his sonne Judah."[c]

He removed to Stratford, Conn., about that time, and in 1647, complaint was made of the quality of his work as a shoemaker. The records speak of him as an old man at that time, and his sons John and Judah and his daughter the wife of William Crooker testified in the case.[d] He died in 1655; the inventory of his estate was taken 19 June 1655. The meagre probate entry refers to his eldest son John and to other children but not by name.[e]

The identity of his wife is entirely unknown.

Children of Henry Gregory (so far as known):[e]

- i. A daughter^{2}, m. ——— Perry; remained in England.
- ii. John, d. at Norwalk, Conn., in 1689; served as Deputy for Norwalk at seventeen sessions of the General Court; m. Sarah ———, who d. between 9 and 28 Oct. 1689.
- iii. A daughter, m. William Crooker.
- + iv. Judah, d. abt. 1648.

II. JUDAH GREGORY

Judah^{2} Gregory, born in England probably by 1620 or earlier, died at Stratford, Conn., about 1648; married at Springfield, Mass., 20 June 1643, Sarah Burt, baptized at Harberton, co. Devon, England, 14 Jan. 1620/1, died after 1689. She married second, 4 Sept. 1649, Henry Wakelee, of Stratford, Conn., who died in 1690.

We know little about Judah, as he died so young. On 15 May 1650, Henry Wakelee as administrator of the estate of his wife's other husband gave bond of £50 "which is left with Mr. Blakeman of Stratford [the minister] for the payment of £20 to the two children."[f] The two children were Samuel and Sarah who married Henry Summers. In 1689 Samuel Gregory called Henry Wakelee his "father-in-law" [stepfather], and in a deed Samuel Summers, son of Henry, called Samuel Gregory his uncle.[g]

Children of Judah and Sarah (Burt) Gregory:

- + i. Samuel^{3}, b. [say 1645]; d. in 1702.
- ii. Sarah, b. [say 1647]; d. probably abt. 1688-90; m. abt. 1668, Henry Summers, of Stratford and Milford, Conn., who d. at Milford in 1717. He m. (2) Mary (Holbrook) Wheeler, bapt. at Dorchester, Mass., 17 Mar. 1650, d. after 26 Mar. 1722, widow of Ephraim Wheeler of Milford.

III. SAMUEL GREGORY

Samuel^{3} Gregory, born [say 1645], died at Stratford in 1702; married Rebecca^{2} Wheeler, who survived him, daughter of Ephraim^{1} and Ann (———) Wheeler.

On 21 Apr. 1682 entry was made that Samuel Gregory hath in right of his wife Rebecca land as a legacy from her father Sergeant Ephraim Wheeler deceased.[h]

The inventory of the estate of Sergt. Samuel Gregory of Stratfield was taken in June 1702, and administration was granted on the 18th of that month to the widow Rebecca and sons Samuel and Benjamin; three sons and five daughters were specified but not named. Their names are revealed in a deed signed by the following children: Samuel Gregory, Edward Lacy and Abigail his wife, James Seeley and Sarah his wife, George Hull and Martha his wife, Benjamin Gregory, Ezekiel Sanford and Rebecca his wife, Jonathan Rudd and Johanna his wife, and Ebenezer Gregory.[i]

Children of Samuel and Rebecca (Wheeler) Gregory, born at Stratfield, Conn.:[j]

Lucy, I have tried to call you several times, and now that I find you on the internet, maybe we can finally get together. I have an old piece of yellowed paper that has some excellent info. on it. It is as follows: Elizabeth Boyd was born October 30th 1796 William Hall was born Jan 4th 1796 We was married Nov 22, 1819 James Hall was born Feb 2, 1821 John Hall was born August 13. 1823 Mary Ann Hall was born June 11th, 1827 Sarah Grizza was born July 8th, 1830 There is also a Grave Registration record of James Hall at the Paulding Courthouse showing burial at Clark Cemetery Antwerp, Ohio. I looked up his pension records. he was born in 1790, and married at Portage County, Ohio, to Honoria Beaird. My address is 1118 Emerald Road
Paulding, Ohio.

Lucy, I agree with all of your information. I found William Hall, William Wheaton, and a Joseph Vail on Holmes County, Ohio, tax lists for1826. I also found them in Seneca county census records. Did you notice that William is not on the Ohio 1850 census?. I believe they were in Monroe Co., Michigan from 1846 to maybe around 1849 or 1850 because one of John Hall's children was born there in 1846. I want to check the census to see.Also one of the grandchildren of William who died in Paulding County, I think a James??(I can't remember right now) was born in Oakland, Michigan, which is in Monroe Co., Michigan. It sure is worth a try to see if there is a record of them there.

Now, on the Boyd's. The Boyd family that lived in Highland Twsp. where my g.grandfather lived were related to the Hall's, and lived close by them. My mom still owns what she calls the Boyd place. I could bet they were related Elizabeth Boyd, but I don't quite have the connection yet.

I will write more about James Hall, the War of 1812 veteran ,when I can find my records. I can't find his pension records, but I remember his wife applied in Kansas . I will look for them in the morning, and let you know what they say. Sue just passing this along in case anyone can use it, from town of meriden, conn.

RUFUS HALL.

Rufus Hall, for over forty years a valued resident and leading merchant of Meriden, and whose useful life ended February 3, 1901, was born in Middlefield, October 3, 1839.

A direct descendant of John Hall, Boston 1633, New Haven 1637, one of the original proprietors of the town of Wallingford in 1670, a signer of the original "Covenant" or original agreement of the first planters of Wallingford, as were two of his sons, Samuel and Sergeant Thomas, whose marriage to Grace Walker Watson June 5, 1673, was the first marriage in Wallingford. The following ancestors of Rufus Hall were also signers of the "Covenant": Lieut. John Peck, Sergeant Abraham Doolittle and John Mosse.

He was the youngest of the four children born to Harley Hall [the fifth in descent from John] and Martha Cone Hall. His mother, a native of East Haddam, born April 3, 1805, and died in Meriden April 20, 1880, was directly descended from that John Hall who was one of the first proprietors of Middletown in 1650 and who, coming to this country from England, settled in Boston in 1633. She was a granddaughter of Sylvanus Cone, a Revolutionary soldier.

Rufus Hall, as a boy, during his attendance at the Middlefield district school, assisted in the work about his father's farm. He left home at the age of nineteen and engaged in the meat business, first at Portland, Conn., later in Middlefield, afterwards at Wallingford, and finally in 1860 came to Meriden and clerked for I. H. Hall & Co. in the old Franklin Hall building up town. The next year he engaged in the grocery trade with his brother under the firm name of N. C. Hall & Co. His honorable dealings and energy won him the confidence of the townspeople, and his good name, thus early established, he maintained throughout his life.

In 1870 he sold out his interest in the grocery store and engaged in the meat business, in partnership with Charles Grether, under the firm name of Grether & Hall, later buying out Grether, and after a long period of success he sold out to his former partner, and again became associated with his brother in the grocery trade. In 1884, however, he again engaged in the meat business, which he conducted with uninterrupted success until he was stricken with pneumonia and died at the age of sixty-one, after which his well established business was conducted by his son, Eugene A. Hall, the present treasurer of the Town of Meriden.

Mr. Hall, on April 2, 1859, married Esther Asenath Grover, to whom two children were born: Effie Maria, born March 13, 1860 and died March 1, 1862, and Eugene Ashley Hall, above mentioned. The wife of Rufus Hall was born in Middletown, January 2, 1837, and died in Meriden, December 18, 1891. She was a daughter of Arden and Sarah Maria (Clark) Grover, her father being a son of Oliver and Asenath (Eaton) Grover. Her grandfather, Daniel Clark, served as a soldier in the Revolution. The wife of Rufus Hall was also descended from William Eaton, who settled in Watertown, Mass., in 1642, and from Thomas Flint, who located in Salem in 1650.

Rufus Hall, who, with his wife, is buried at Indian Hill cemetery, Middletown, was a man who held the unlimited confidence, respect and esteem of his fellow townsmen to a remarkable extent. His genial disposition made him the typical merchant with whom customers found pleasure in trading. He was always deeply concerned in local affairs and never refused his influence in matters of benefit either to his neighbors or the town. His loss to the ranks of the business men of Meriden will be long remembered.

EUGENE ASHLEY HALL.

Eugene A. Hall, a prominent merchant and treasurer of the town of Meriden, is a life-long resident of the town. He is the only son of Rufus and Esther Asenath (Grover) Hall. He is a worthy descendant of sturdy, reliable New England ancestry. He was born in Meriden August 7, 1865, attended the old Corner district school until at the age of fifteen he left school to begin his own career and has succeeded in earning his own living ever since; was first with J. Cook & Co., manufacturers of printing presses, cards, etc.; a short time on a drop press at Bradley & Hubbard's; then one year in William Hagadon's news, fruit and toy store, clerking and delivering newspapers, and one year in castor bottle department, Meriden Britannia Co., until May, 1883, when he entered the employ of the Meriden Savings Bank as office boy.

After an honorable connection of eighteen years with that institution, and after the sudden and regretted decease of his father, he resigned his position as teller and assumed control of his father's business, for many years known as Hall's Cash Market, and which he has since continued with increasing success.

He is a trustee, director and auditor of the Meriden Savings Bank; for several years was a member of the board of trustees and secretary and treasurer of the Connecticut School for Boys; is treasurer of the Connecticut State and the Meriden Agricultural societies; treasurer of the Town of Meriden, which office he has filled most acceptably since 1899; is a director and first vice president of the Meriden Board of Trade; director and treasurer of the Meriden Times Publishing Co., publishers of The Evening Times.

Mr. Hall is a prominent figure in Masonic circles and is connected with no other fraternity. He is a past master and present treasurer of Meridian lodge, No. 77, A. F. & A. M.; a past high priest of Keystone Chapter, No. 27, R. A. M.; P. T. I. master of Hamilton Council, No. 22, R. & S. M., and a past eminent commander of St Elmo Commandery, No. 9, Knights Templar; a thirty-second degree Mason, being a member of the New Haven and Bridgeport bodies of Scottish Rite; is an officer in the following Masonic grand bodies of Connecticut, Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter and Grand Commandery, an honorary life member of the Masonic Charity Foundation of Connecticut, and a member of Pyramid Temple, Mystic Shrine, of Bridgeport.

He was married December 15, 1897, to Edna Adele Mix, daughter of ex-Senator John Walter and Kate Urana (Wallace) Mix, of (Yalesville) Wallingford. John Walter Mix, United States collector of customs of the port of New Haven at the time of his death, was a direct descendant of Thomas Mix, of New Haven, 1643, and three of his ancestors, Daniel Mix, Robert Roice and John Hall, were original proprietors of Wallingford. His widow, Kate Urana Wallace, is a daughter of Franklin and Fanny (Hall) Wallace, the latter a daughter of Lyman and Milla Hall, both direct descendants of John Hall, the original proprietor of Wallingford. Benjamin Hall, father of Lyman, was a soldier in the Revolution.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall have three children: Fanny, born November 15, 1898; Edna, born February 3, 1900, and Eugene Mix, born June 27, 1903.

Mr. Hall is known as one of the more progressive merchants, who possesses a wide experience in matters of finance and who has been much honored by elections to various offices, all of which he has filled with credit, not only to himself but to those who have safely placed their confidence in his ability and honesty to carry out the duties devolving upon him.

Subject: Lyman Hall

Janny,

Your Lyman Hall is probably a descendant of John Hall and Jane Woolen. I don't have your Lyman b. 1874 in my database, but he was probably named after Lyman Hall, b. April 12, 1724, signer of the Declaration of Independence, and later Governor of Georgia. This Lyman had no children, but several cousins and nephews were named Lyman after him.

My Hall line (originally in Wallingford, New Haven, CT) moved to Leyden, Lewis, NY about 1800, as did many of the cousins. See some of my info posted at:
http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Pointe/6265/index.html

I am working on getting more posted, but unfornately I have to earn a living and can't devote all my spare time to genealogy!! Keep checking back for updates.

Suzanne Leonard

17. Jane Woolen, born 1620 in England; died 1690 in Wallingford, CT. She was the daughter of 34. John Woolen and 35. Jane Hall.

Notes for Jane Woolen:
>From "Halls of New England" by Rev. David Hall, A.M., 1883: Jean or Jane Woolen had lived with William Wilkes in Boston, and had probably come over with him, as he paid her fare and gave her three pounds a year for her service in his family for five years, and also promised her 10 pounds as a gift when she should marry; but this he did not do, and Mr. Hall obtained it from his estate by litigation, an account of which is found in the records of New Haven, in which she is called good wife Hall. Mr. Wilkes was in Boston in 1633, and removed with his family to New Haven with the first settlers in 1639. Few families have been more respectable than the descendants of John and Jean (Woolen) Hall. Her connections in England have a coat of arms.

18. Edward Watson, born WFT Est. 1602-1632; died 1660. He married 19. Grace Walker July 01, 1652.
19. Grace Walker, born WFT Est. 1610-1635; died 1660.

20. William Andrews, born WFT Est. 1581-1610; died 1676. He married 21. Ann Gibbands WFT Est. 1607-1650.
21. Ann Gibbands, born WFT Est. 1590-1613; died 1701. She was the daughter of 42. William Gibbands.

22. Deacon William Peck, born 1601 in Near London; died October 04, 1694 in Lyme, New London, or New Haven, CT. He married 23. Elizabeth Holt 1620.
23. Elizabeth Holt, born WFT Est. 1587-1609; died December 05, 1683 in Lyme, or New Haven, CT.

Subject: meriden connecticut 1906 Hall family

According to the "Hall Ancestry," Brenton Hall was a man of dignified bearing, a clear, dark complexion, bright intelligent eyes, and dark brown hair. He was Meriden's first representative to the General Assembly, and had acted in like capacity for the town of Wallingford previously, and was largely instrumental in having Meriden set off as a separate township. Brenton was first cousin of Col. Street Hall of Revolutionary fame and first cousin of Lyman Hall, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and during the Tryon Invasion of New Haven in 1779, Brenton as ensign, marched with a company of Meriden men to the scene of action. He was twice married, his second wife being Widow Abigail Guy, of Branford.

He died Nov. 25, 1820, and his body lies buried in the old Broad street cemetery. His son, Caspar, inherited the homestead and many acres of the farm and Mrs. Joseph Morse, of Meriden, is one of his children. Collins Hall, the second son of Brenton, married in 1795 and, doubtless, built his home at that time. It is still standing on the east side of Pomeroy avenue, at its junction with East Main street or Middletown turnpike.

On Nov. 9, 1796, his father gave him a farm of sixty acres "on which he now dwells," showing that the house was then built. The northwest corner of the farm is stated to be near Constant Miller's mill dam. Collins died in 1849. When the house was built the turnpike was not in existence. Another son of Brenton, Augustus, was given a farm by his father that fronted west on Preston avenue, and the house he built is still standing and is located on that avenue on the east side, about 160 rods north of East Main street. Walter Hall, the son of Augustus, lives in the old Ambrose Hough place, at the corner of Liberty and Broad streets.

At the junction of Pomeroy and Murdock avenues formerly stood a very old house which was bought and lived in by Noah Pomeroy when he came to Meriiden about 1816. It was that in which Captain Benjamin A. Hall was supposed to have kept the tavern that gave the section the name of Bangall. Many years [Image for Historic Record of the Town of Meriden, Connecticut, 1906, Vol 1] ago the Pomeroy family moved the old dwelling a few hundred feet east of its former location and there it stands to-day. A modern house occupies the old site.

It has lost the dignified aspect it presented when it stood on its former site shaded by lordly old maples. Its ancient lines, however, are still apparent, although it has lost its great chimney. The first mention the writer has been able to find relating to this house is dated March 25, 1751, when Israel Hall and his wife, Abigail, deeded it and sixty acres of land to Phineas Hall. The land extended north to Black Pond Brook and it was surrounded on three sides by the land of Enos and Abraham Hall and on the east also by a highway. The description is the same very nearly of the farm afterwards bought by Noah Pomeroy, and without much doubt the house is the same.

This Israel Hall was a son of Thomas and the brother of Daniel whose farm was further down Murdock avenue and whose house has already been described. It is probable, therefore, that it is a very old one and the date of erection was considerably earlier than that of the transfer in 1751. Captain Benjamin A. was certainly a son of a Phineas--probably the grantee in this deed. Here Noah Pomeroy lived for many years.

If now we retrace our steps to East Main street and then follow Preston avenue towards the north, we pass, at the corner of old Liberty street, another old Hall homestead site: the house was known for many years during the last century [Image for Historic Record of the Town of Meriden, Connecticut, 1906, Vol 1] as the Captain Booth place and it stood just south of the present home of William H. Booth. Before the days of Captain Booth it was the dwelling of another Phineas Hall. The house was a very old one, and when and by whom it was built the writer has been unable to learn from either records or tradition.

After passing the former home of Augustus Hall, we come within less than a half mile to the Nelson Hall homestead on the left, and then just before Baldwin avenue is reached, we pass the George L. Hall house on the east, now occupied by his widow and two sons, George A. and Clayton F. From what has been written it can readily be seen that a large portion of the eastern part of Meriden was the domain of the Hall family. It is a strange fact that not one of all the roads in this section bears the name of Hall.

But before we leave this interesting family neighborhood, there is another Hall homestead to be seen. Just as we reach Baldwin avenue, on the west side of the street, is the wreck of an old house that is in a most pitiable condition. All its dignity has gone, and it is now used as a wood house.

As in the case of so many of these old houses, it seems to have grown on its site; the old builders, now and then, combined the happy faculties of harmony of environment and utility. They frequently nestled their houses into some nook or sheltered spot, in a way that is pleasing to the artistic sense.

[Image for Historic Record of the Town of Meriden, Connecticut, 1906, Vol 1]

It was once known as the Moses Hall place, built by Phineas for his son, but just when, it has been impossible to learn. Moses was doubtless the soldier in the Revolution of that name, so that it is safe to assume that the house has a flavor of very respectable antiquity. In the early part of the last century it was known as the Loyal Booth place.

If now we go west on Baldwin avenue, we come within half a mile to the homestead of Nathan S. Baldwin, located on a gentle knoll, where a sweep of the eye takes in the broad meadows to the south, flanked on the east by the bold ranges of Higby and Beset mountains. To the north lie Mt. Lamentation and the Notch leading to Westfield parish. Here Mr. Baldwin has passed his life, tilling the meadows of the farm bought by his father, Moses, about the year 1815, of Timothy Ives. Timothy was a carpenter and built the house in the year 1798. Moses was a son of James who came from Cheshire in 1796 and bought an interest in Hough's Mills in that year. James was a soldier in the war of the Revolution.

Hi, Maureen, Back again! JUst looked through my notes and the researcher who sent me data on James Hall, says Orange County, New York census page 352. She selected this particular James Hall, because he had two sons under 10 and alos because other family names such as Boyd, Moss, and Griggs lived near by. She doesn't mention a town. If you have access to the Orange Co. NY census for 1800, you might want to look at pg. 352. Lucy

This is all I have. I don't have the actual name of James Hall's wife, although somewhere along the line, someone sent me the name Mary Ann, b. NY (??)

There may be some connection, since your Halls were in Orange Co., NY..and the date of 1808 for David Babcock Hall is close to birthdates of my Hall chn. I'll have to go back & see if I can find what town James was in when living in Orange Co., NY. If it turns out to be Greenwood Lake, we have a connection for sure. Another family researcher sent me the census data, & I don't think she had listed a town. Will keep your e-mail address and let you know if I find it. Lucy Weaver, Defiance,OH. north@defnet.com

Subject: Re: Colby

Sue, Glad you visited Colby Cem. My folks (when they were in their seventies) hauled water, cement, etc.up that hill, to make a new foundation for Wm. Wheaton & Sarah Hall's tombstone , then they inscribed the names and dates in the cement on the foundation just in case the tombstone ever came up missing. They were the ones who read most of the cemeteries in Defiance County and my Dad typed the inscriptions for over two years for Defiance Co. Chapter(who still have to get these published!) My Dad has been dead for 12 yrs. and my Mom 8 yrs.

They were really interested in genealogy. In their car they kept a kit to trace inscriptions, clippers to cut brush, etc. They ended up with chiggers quite often, & encountered snakes and sometimes farmers reluctant to let them go into the cemetery on their farm! Hopefully where they are now, they are meeting some of our elusive ancestors and might even send down some clues....That has happened before. Shortly after my Grandpa's sister died, a relative invited me to look at her stack of books that he had stored to see if I wanted any. When I got there, there were many, many books! While I was looking ,one book fell to the floor and a paper fell out and had the names & birthdates of the thirteen children of Wm. & Sarah Hall Wheaton ! Talk about coincidence or serendipity or whatever!

Let's make arrangements to get together to discuss our common ancestry. I realize October is a busy month, but perhaps we can find a day. We were in Mich. for a few days, helping our dtr. move, so I didn't even get over to the funeral home in Bryan to see the husband of Joan Buchman's sister Rose, after he died. If you see Joan, please tell her hello for me. Lucy

Subject: HALLS of New England , by Rev. David B. Hall, A.M., of NY - 1883

I recently purchased the following book: Hall, David B., Rev., A.M., "HALLS OF NEW ENGLAND" - Genealogical and Biographical, Albany, N.Y., printed for the author by Joel Munsell's sons, 82 State Street, 1883.

This book is a treasure of information on HALL families which originated in the following areas: CT -Middletown, Guilford, Fairfield, Wallingford; Portsmouth, RI; NH -Dover, Exeter; MA - Bradford, Yarmouth, Medford, Concord, Stow, Rehoboth, Taunton.

Most of these HALL families were born between the early to late 1600's and ran through 1883, the date of printing of the book.

I'll be glad to do a look-up for you but would need very specific information from which to work since all the indexing is by HALL surnames originating from the above cities, and from a list of other than HALL surnames by these same areas.

Lucy:

I also would love to see what you have. Lets call it a trade as far as postage etc. You could sent it to the following:

Tom Poier
19832 Southeast 29th St.
Issaquah, Wa. 98027

If you look at the names carefully, You will see a Beadon Hall. He lived and died here in Wash. I kinda remember him and his sister Isadore. In fact the town of Issaquah where I now live is only minutes from the homestead Beadon had. He was a VERY successful person in the banking world. He traveled world wide. He and his daughter (ruth i think it was) did a whole big bunch of this tree many many years ago. They are the ones that show Suzanne being a part of the tree. In my mind, I have not proved it in my mind, but can not rule it out either. Some dates and names appear exactly as Beadon had them. But I still have not PROVED IT to my satisfaction.

I will be glad to see what you have, and will incorp. to what I have and then again forward it on to you. I am doing this family tree by the seat of my pants. When I have time to work on it I do, but for the last year, have been not able to spend much time on it. But hopefully this winter I can find nice people like yourself that are willing to share, look, and advise. You have not heard the last of me yet. Take care and looking forward to the arrival of your information.

Just got your package and I thank you dearly. I have a lot of reading and typing to do now. Just browsing thru it quickly, you have put a lot of work into it. It looks wonderful. I hope to be able to get as good as you are at this soon. I will keep you posted on any new things should I come across them. I am 47, work 10-12 hrs a day, have a lovely wife, 6year old boy at home, 2 girls in college, am a sports nut, so some times I get forgetful. Please do not hesistate emailing me at any time and check up on me to see if I have found new stuff. Sometimes I just get over my head and forget to pass on what I have promised to pass on.

Thanks again

Dear Tom,

Enclosed are the copies of my John Hall Descendants, also pages from "The Halls of Wallingford" by Agnes Hall Putnam(sent to me by someone several years ago). My Mary Hall isn't listed in the "Halls of Wallingford". Hope you are able to follow my material since it is in a different format than yours. I haven't added the data that you sent me yet.

Will keep you posted if I run across any new data on the Halls. Hope you will do the same. As you will see, I have two sets of Halls in my ancestry(I also have a James Hall, father of the Sarah Hall, who married William Anson Wheaton).

Best regards,

Lucy Weaver

Hi Lucy,

I started out scanning and editing, but the process takes much too long due to the script type print used by the printer which is not recognizable in the OCR software I use.

Here's what I got thus far; I will take the book to a local store and make copies of the remaining pages which detail your lineage, if you'd like, and mail it snail mail. Let me know what you'd like me to do, and send your snail mail address if you'd like the material.

HALLS OF WALLINGFORD, CONN.

[Are mostly compiled from the History of Wallingford.]
The emigrant was (Family 1.) JOHN HALL: b. about 1605; d. in the early part of 1676, ae. 71 years; he made an oral will; m. Jean or Jane Woolen. She had lived with William Wilkes in Boston, and probably came over with him, as he paid her fare and gave her L(pounds sign)3 a year for her services in his family for five years, also promised her L10 as a gift when she should marry; but this he did not do, and Mr. Hall obtained it from his estate by litigation, an account of which is found on the records of New Haven, in which she is called good wife Hall. Mr. Wilkes was in Boston in 1633, and removed with his family to New Haven with the first settlers in 1639. John Hall may also have come from Boston. His autograph signature is found on the Colonial Records of New Haven (page 4) in 1639. His name appears often on those records, mostly in reference to several pieces of land. He was freed from training in 1665, being then in his 60th year of age. Three or four of his sons joined a company and settled Wallingford in 1670. And the father went with them at that time or soon after. He was selectman in 1675. Few families have been more respectable than the descendants of John and Jean (Woolen) Hall. Her connections in England have a coat of arms. The names of their children were:

1. John, baptised August 9, 1646] (Family 2). 2. Sarah, baptised August 9, 1646; m., December, 1664, Wingle Johnson.
3. Richard, b. July 11, 1645 (Family3). 4- Samuel, b. May 21, 1646 (Family 4). 5. Daniel, b. about 1647 or 8 (Family 5). 6. Thomas, b.

March 25, 1649 (Family 6). 7. Jonathan, b. April 5, 1651 (Family 7). 8. David, b. March 17, 1852 (Family 8).

Among the original proprietors of Wallingford were John Hall, David Hall and Doctor Hall. This Doctor Hall was probably Isaac the son of Francis Hall, of Fairfield, who resided some time in New Haven, but did not settle in Wallingford.

Among those who signed the covenant of the first planters, Nov. 31, 1669, and then proceeded to locate a place for the village, were Thomas Hall, Samuel Hall and John Hall.

After the village was settled certain wood and meadow lands were assigned to each of the 36 families, among whom were those of Samuel Hall, John Hall and Thomas Hall.

At a meeting held Feb. 15, 1675, a committee was appointed to secure the organization of a church. Among the names were John Hall, Sen , and John Hall, Jr.

The town of Wallingford appointed, April 4, 1689, a committee of five to make out a. call upon Rev. Mr. Whittelsey to come and settle as pastor, among the names were John Hall, Sen., Samuel Hall and John Hall. The committee offer to purchase an acre and a half of Deac. John Hall's home lot for Mr Whittelsey to build upon.

In 1689 the head of the plain, now Meriden, was laid out for a village 80 rods long, and building lots staked out; these lots were drawn by raffle, one by each planter in Wallingford; among the names were those of Thomas Hall, Samuel Hall, John Hail, Sen., and David Hall.

In 1679 the town of Wallingford granted to David Hall, Thomas Hall and others, three acres each, lying on the east side of the meadow and swamp, called Dog's Misery. In 1707 the town chose David Hall and two others a committee to see that the misery highway was not pinched of the 20 rods in any place, from the town to misery.

In 1696, a protest was signed disapproving of making expense for the town in settling a dispute between Yale and Royce about a watering place, among the signors were John Hall, Jr., David Hall, Thomas Hall, Sen.; but lieutenant, Samuel Hall, dissented.

(Family 2.) John HALL (2), John (1): b. probably in 1641; d. Sept. 2, 1721, ae. 86, probably 80; m., Dec. 6, 1666 Mary, dau. of Edward Parker, of New Haven, she d. Sept. 22, 1725. John Hall became the first deacon of the church of Wallingford; was selectman in 1675; and was deputy to General Court held in Hartford, 1687; one of his descendants, Rev. Aaron Hall, minister of Keene, N. H., had a silver spoon marked "John and Mary Hall." Children were:

1. Elizabeth, b. Aug. 11, 1670, in New Haven. 2. Daniel, b. July 26, 1672 (Family 9) 3. Mary, b. June 23, 1675. 4. Nathaniel, b. Feb. 8, 1677 (Family 10). 5. John, b. March 14, 1681(Family 11)

6. Lydia, b. Jan. 22, 1683. 7. Samuel, b. Dec. 24, 1686; d. Nov. 1, 1689. 8. Esther, b. Aug. 30, 1693; 9. Caleb, b. Sept. 14, 1697.

(Family 3') RICHARD(2), John (1) b. in New Haven, July 11, 1645; m. Hannah ______ , and died in New Haven 1726. Children were:

1. Samuel, b. Aug. 2, 1700; m. Hannah Brown. 2. Hannah, b. Jan. 31, 1702. 3. Mary, b. March 19, 1712; d. before 1726. 4. John, b. Jan. 17, 1714; m. Abiah Macomber. 5. Jonathan, grad. at Yale College, 1735.

(Family 4.) SAMUEL HALL (2), John (1) b. in New Haven, May 21, 1647 or 8; d. in Wallingford, March 5, 1725, ae. 77 years; m., May, 1668, Hannah, dau. of John Walker; she d. Dec. 20, 1728, and was probably b. Sept. 26, 1646. Removed to Wallingford in 1670; he became a deacon of the church.

Lucy,
If Eliz is the daughter of Wm Shakespeare and Ann Hathaway, have you tried to look in the Hathaway's of America book to see if she is mentioned there? Just a thought as another way to go and hope it helps.

William Shakespeare (1564-1616)

English poet, dramatist, and actor, considered by many to be the greatest dramatist of all time.

William Shakespeare was born in Stratford-upon-Avon. He was the eldest son of Mary Arden and his husband John Shakespeare (c. 1530-1601), glover and wood dealer. In 1568 John Shakespeare was made a mayor of Stratford and a justice of peace. His wool business failed in the 1570s, but the family's position was restored in the 1590s by earnings of William Shakespeare, and in 1596 he was awarded a coat of arms.

Shakespeare is assumed to have been educated at Stratford Grammar School, and he may have spent the years 1580-82 as a teacher for the Roman Catholic Houghton family in Lancashire. At the age of 18 he married a local girl, Anne Hathaway (died 1623), who was eight years older. The first child, Susannah, was born within six months, and twins Hamnet and Judith were born in 1585. Hamnet, Shakespeares only son, died in 1596, at the age of 11.

After 1582 Shakespeare probably joined as an actor one or several companies of players. By 1584 he emerged as a rising playwright in London, and became soon a central figure in London´s leading theater company, the Lord Chamberlain´s Company, renamed later as the King´s Men.

About 1610 Shakespeare returned to his birthplace , where he had a house, called New Place, and lived as a country gentleman. A number of his plays were published during his lifetime, but none of the original dramatic manuscripts have survived. In 1623 appeared a folio edition of Shakespeare's collected works - known as the First Folio.

On Shakespeare's gravestone are four lines of verse:

- Good friend, for Jesus´ sake forbear
- To dig the dust enclosed here!
- Blest be the man that spares these stones
- And curst be he that moves my bones.

DON´T BELIEVE

There is not much records of Shakespeare´s personal life. Rumors arise from time to time that he didn´t write his plays, but the real author was Christopher Marlowe, Queen Elizabeth or whoever.

1. The dates given for plays, of course, are only approximate. The actual composition date is rarely know for certain. The list of Shakespeare's works given in column three is in very rough approximate order of composition. There are significant disagreements among scholars about the actual order of composition and in most cases no firm dates. Works listed in column four are usually by date of publication. The Spanish Tragedy, for instance, was probably composed around 1586, but not published until 1592.

THE INVENTORY TAKEN 15 MAR. 1697/8, AMOUNTED TO OVER L234. THE SISTER MARY LANE PROVIDED FOR IN THE WILL HAS NOT BEEN IDENTIFIED. SOME HAVE SUPPOSED HER TO BE THE MARY WHO WAS WIFE FIRST OF EDWARD CAMP & SECOND OF JOHN LANE OF MILFORD, BUT THAT MARY LANE DIED IN FEB. 1680(1680/1) ACCORDING TO MILFORD CHURCH RECORDS, AND THE INVENTORY OF HER ESTATE WAS TAKEN FEB. 1680/1, SO SHE WAS NOT LIVING WHEN THOMAS HINE MADE HIS WILL IN 1694. POSSIBLY SHE WAS AN UNMARRIED SISTER OF ELIZABETH, WIFE OF THOMAS HINE, & BOTH ELIZABETH & MARY LANE MAY HAVE BEEN SISTERS OF JOHN LANE OF MILFORD.

THOMAS HINE (16-- TO 1698) WAS AT MILFORD IN 1646 OR BEFORE. HIS WILL WAS MADE MAY 9, 1694; HE DIED ABOUT 1698; HAD TWELVE OR MORE CHILDREN. THOMAS HINE

I. THOMAS HINE

THOMAS HINE had a homelot in Milford by 1646, and died there early in 1698. The wife of Thomas was ELIZABETH ———, who was admitted to the church in Milford in 1669.

The will of Thomas, Sr., dated 9 May 1694, gave to his eldest son Thomas the west end of the lot in the new field and other lands; gave lands to his sons Stephen and William; to his daughters Elizabeth Simkins and Alice Canfield, £10 apiece in movable estate in addition to what they had received; "my sister" Mary Lane if she stay not with my son Samuel but part from him should have £5 given to her; son Samuel, sole Executor, to have my dwelling house and certain lands. The inventory, taken 15 Mar. 1697/8, amounted to over £234.[a]

The sister Mary Lane provided for in the will has not been identified. Some have supposed her to be the Mary who was wife first of Edward Camp and second of John Lane of Milford, but that Mary Lane died in Feb. 1680 [1680/1] according to Milford Church records, and the inventory of her estate was taken 22 Feb. 1680/1, so was not living when Thomas Hine made his will in 1694. Possibly she was an unmarried sister of Elizabeth wife of Thomas Hine, and both Elizabeth and Mary Lane may have been sisters of John Lane of Milford.

The children of "Sister Hine,"—Thomas, John, Elizabeth, Samuel, Stephen, and Alice, were baptized together 21 Nov. 1669.

HENRY JACKSON (1679-1717)

DISTRIBUTION OF HIS ESTATE WAS MADE ON 28 NOV. 1723, TO THE WIDOW AND TO DAVID, ISAAC, JEDIDAH, ANNA, DEBORAH, MARY AND EUNICE JACKSON. THE SON ISAAC CHOSE HIS MOTHER MARY SHERWOOD FOR GUARDIAN, 4 JUNE 1728.

ACKLEY-BOSWORTH GENEALOGY

SAMUEL JACKSON

SAMUEL'S WILL, MADE 30 AUG. 1712, MADE HIS WIFE EXECUTRIX, GAVE MOVEABLE ESTATE TO DAUGHTERS HANNAH, DEBORAH, RACHEL, AND ABIGAIL, AND MENTIONED THAT HIS LANDS HAD ALREADY BEEN DISPOSED TO SONS BY DEED. THE WIDOW PHEBE SWORE TO THE INVENTORY 12 FEB., 1714/15, AND APPEARED UNDER THE NAME PHEBE LAWRENCE ON 2 MAR. 1714/15, PROBABLY 1715/16. BESIDES ONE CHILD BY PHEBE, SAMUEL HAD BY PREVIOUS WIVES, THIRTEEN CHILDREN BORN BETWEEN THE LATE 1660S OR THE EARLY 1670S AND 1701, A SPREAD OF NEARLY THIRTY YEARS, WHICH SUGGESTS THAT HE MAY HAVE HAD TWO WIVES BEFORE HE MARRIED PHEBE. IT IS SUSPECTED THAT THE MOTHER OF THE YOUNGER CHILDREN, BEGINNING WITH HENRY (B. 1679) AND INCLUDING ABIGAIL (B. ABT. 1696) WAS NAMED JEDIDAH, FOR BOTH HENRY AND ABIGAIL, ALTHOUGH THEY LIVED IN DIFFERENT TOWNS AFTER MARRIAGE, GAVE TO THEIR RESPECTIVE FIRST-BORN DAUGHTERS, THE UNUSUAL NAME OF JEDIDAH. THIS NAME IS FOUND AT THAT PERIOD IN ONLY ONE OF THE FIARFIELD-STRATFORD FAMILIES. THOMAS SKIDMORE (D. FAIRFIELD 1684) HAD A DAUGHTER JEDIDAH WHO MARRIED EDWARD HIGBEE AND HAD FOUR CHILDREN BY 1660; HIS GRANDSONJOHN SKIDMORE (D. STRATFORD 1740/1) HAD A SON THOMAS SKIDMORE OF NEWTON, CONN. WHO NAMED A DAUGHTER JEDIDAH, SUGGESTING THAT THE NAME MAY ALSO HAVE BEEN USED IN THE INTERVENING SKIDMORE GENERATIONS WHERETHE FAMILY GROUPS ARE NOT COMPLETELY KNOWN. THIS IS ENTIRELY THEORETICAL, BUT THE MOTHER OF HENRY JACKSON MAY HAVE BEEN NAMED JEDIDAH AND MAY HAVE BEEN A GRANDDAUGHTER OF THOMAS SKIDMORE, EITHER A SKIDMORE, OR A HIGBEE.

HENRY JACKSON

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT

I. HENRY JACKSON[a]

Henry^1 Jackson, born in England, about 1606, died at Fairfield, Conn., in 1686; married ——— ———.

He came from London, aged 29, on the Elizabeth and Ann, 1635, and settled first at Watertown, Mass., where he was a lessee of fishing rights. He removed to Fairfield, Conn., where he made an agreement with the town about the tide mill, 2 Feb. 1648 [1648/9], and sold the mill to Thomas Morehouse in 1653. He bought land in Fairfield, 16 June 1650, from Thomas Wheeler, Jr., and became a large land-owner.

His will, dated 11 Nov. 1682, proved 22 Sept. 1686, gave to his son Moses his house at "Poquanocke"; son Samuel already had land; to grandchild Moses Jackson, land at Compo; son John; grandchild Samuel Jackson; wife; the old negro woman; sons John, Moses and Samuel, and daughter Hannah; Major Nathan Gold and Mr. Josiah Harvey, overseers; portion due to Estate of my son Joseph per her (sic) father (his father-in-law) Goodwin's will; five children of son Joseph. The inventory was taken 21 June 1686.

There were lands, probably rights in the common or undivided lands, not disposed of in the will, and many years later, on 13 Jan. 1718/19, administration was granted to Henry's grandsons John and Robert Jackson, and distribution was ordered to the legal representatives of the sons John (the eldest), Moses, Samuel and Joseph. The distribution, dated at Stratfield 3 Jan. 1720, named the heirs of Samuel Jackson as Daniel, Jonathan, Ebenezer, and Gabriel Jackson, Hannah Jennings, Deborah Fairchild, Rachel Lyon, and Abigail.

Children of Henry and ——— (———) Jackson:

- i. John^2, b. abt. 1640; testified on 4 Aug. 1680 ae. 40; d. at Fairfield, in 1689 (inventory dated 11 Nov. 1689); m. Elizabeth Smith, dau. of Giles.
- ii. Hannah, m. (1) Philip Galpin, who d. at Rye, N. Y., in 1684; m. (2) Stephen Sherwood.
- iii. Moses, d. at Stratfield, 13 Nov. 1712 (g.s.); m. (1) 24 Oct. 1672, Deborah Hyatt, dau. of Thomas; m. (2) Esther (———) Seeley, probably widow of Obadiah Seeley.
- + iv. Samuel, d. abt. 1714/15.
- v. Joseph, d. at Fairfield in 1681; m. Mary Godwin, dau. of George. She m. (2) Joseph Seeley, and removed to Cohansey, N. J.

II. SAMUEL JACKSON[b]

Samuel^2 Jackson, born probably somewhere around 1645, died at Fairfield, Conn., prior to 12 Feb. 1714/15; married one or two wives, names unknown; married last, about 1708, Phebe (———) (Lyon) Crofut, widow of William Lyon (d. 1700) and of Daniel Crofut (d. 1707), who died by 1736. She married fourth, Zachariah Lawrence.

His will, made 30 Aug. 1712, made his wife Executrix, gave movable estate to daughters Hannah, Deborah, Rachel, and Abigail, and mentioned that his lands had already been disposed to sons by deed. The widow Phebe swore to the inventory 12 Feb. 1714/15, and appeared under the name Phebe Lawrence on 2 Mar. 1715, probably 1715/16.

Besides one child by Phebe, Samuel had by previous wives thirteen children born between the late 1660's or the early 1670's and 1701, a spread of nearly thirty years, which suggests that he may have had two wives before he married Phebe. It is suspected that the mother of the younger children, beginning with Henry (b. 1679) and including Abigail (b. say 1696) was named Jedidah, for both Henry and Abigail, although they lived in different towns after marriage, gave to their respective first-born daughters the unusual name of Jedidah. This name is found at that period in only one of the Fairfield-Stratford families. Thomas^1 Skidmore (d. at Fairfield, 1684) had a daughter Jedidah who married Edward Higbee and had four children by 1660; his grandson John Skidmore (d. at Stratford, 1740/1) had a son Thomas Skidmore of Newtown, Conn., who named a daughter Jedidah, suggesting that the name may also have been used in the intervening Skidmore generations where the family groups are not completely known. This is entirely theoretical, but the mother of Henry^3 Jackson may have been named Jedidah and may have been a granddaughter of Thomas^1 Skidmore, either a Skidmore or a Higbee.

Children of Samuel Jackson by an unknown first wife:

- i. Samuel^3, b. 19 June [year date gone, say 1668]; d. young.
- ii. Nathaniel, b. 6 Mar. [say 1670]; d. young.
- iii. Hannah, b. 17 Mar. 167[2?]; perhaps d. young, as she would be too old to be the Hannah who m. in 1709.
- iv. Joshua, b. [say 1674]; as he was presumably younger than the three recorded children above; d. before 10 Jan. 1698/9 (date of inventory of estate); m. Elizabeth Sanford, b. 6 Sept. 1679, dau. of Ezekiel Sanford; their only child d. young; she m. (2) Joseph^3 Jackson (Joseph^2, Henry^1), and (3) Thomas Chambers.

Children of Samuel Jackson, probably by a later wife, perhaps named Jedidah:

- + v. Henry, b. abt. 1679; bapt. 6 Apr. 1701; d. 15 Sept. 1717.
- vi. Deborah, b. [say 1681]; bapt. 6 Apr. 1701; d. in 1753; m. abt. 1701, Alexander Fairchild, b. Feb. 1680/1, d. at Stratfield in 1727.
- vii. Daniel, b. [say 1683]; removed to Newtown, Conn., and Dover, N. Y.; m. Mary Preston, b. [say 1683], d. at Stratfield, 7 Aug. 1734, dau. of Jehiel and Temperance (Nichols) Preston.

viii. HANNAH, b. [say 1685]; m. (1) at Fairfield, 15 Apr. 1709, NATHANIEL LYON, her stepbrother, b. [before 1688], bapt. 9 Sept. 1694, d. in 1718; m. (2) abt. 1719, as his second wife, MATTHEW JENNINGS, who d. at Fairfield in 1738.

ix. RACHEL, b. [say 1692-3]; m. abt. 1720, her stepbrother, MOSES LYON, bapt. at Fairfield, 8 May 1698, d. at Newtown, Conn., 20 Apr. 1745.

x. JONATHAN, bapt. 21 July 1695; of Stratfield, Newtown, Wilton, and Woodbury, Conn.; m. (1) abt. 1718, ——— ———; m. (2) at Woodbury, 15 Dec. 1738, ANN DRAKELEY.

xi. ABIGAIL, b. [say 1696]; d. at Woodbury, Conn., 2 Nov. 1772; m. (recorded at Woodbury), 6 Nov. 1717, CORNELIUS BRONSON, Jr., bapt. 25 Dec. 1692.

xii. EBENEZER, bapt. 16 Oct. 1698; of Wilton and Sharon, Conn.; m. ESTHER ABBOTT, dau. of John.

xiii. BETHIA, bapt. 11 May 1701; d. young.

Child of Samuel and Phebe (———) (Lyon) (Crofut) Jackson, baptized at Stratfield:

xiv. GABRIEL, bapt. 9 Jan. 1708/9; m. at Fairfield, 24 May 1727, MARGARET HALL, b. 5 Oct. 1707, dau. of Francis and Margaret (Stites) Hall.

III. HENRY JACKSON[c]

HENRY^3 JACKSON, born at Fairfield, about 1679, died at Stratfield, Conn., 15 Sept. 1717, aged 38 (gravestone); married at Stratfield, 16 Jan. 1703/4, MARY WHEELER, born about 1683, died at Stratfield, 18 Sept. 1743, in her 61st year (gravestone), daughter of Isaac and ——— (———) Wheeler. She married second, in 1722, as his second wife, Capt. Samuel Sherwood, born about 1681, died at Stratfield, 10 Nov. 1732, in 52d year (gravestone), by whom she had one child, a daughter Prudence.

Distribution of his estate was made, 28 Nov. 1723, to the widow and to David, Isaac, Jedidah, Anna, Deborah, Mary, and Eunice Jackson. The son Isaac chose his mother Mary Sherwood for guardian, 4 June 1728.

Children of Henry and Mary (Wheeler) Jackson, born at Stratfield, Conn.:

+ i. JEDIDAH^4, b. 17 Apr. 1705; bapt. 22 Apr. 1705; d. after 30 Jan. 1775; m. by 1726, EBENEZER^3 LACY, b. at Stratfield, 12 Mar. 1703/4, d. probably at New Fairfield, Conn.

ii. DAVID, b. 14 Mar. 1706/7; bapt. 16 Mar. 1706/7; d. at New Milford, Conn., 26 Dec. 1754 ae. 47 (g.s.); m. HANNAH FAIRCHILD, bapt. 29 June 1713, d. at New Milford, 11 June 1784 ae. 70 (g.s.), dau. of Alexander and Deborah (Jackson) Fairchild. Their children named in probate were: Henry, Uri, Isaac, Eunice (wife of John Hull), Deborah, David, Jedidah.

EBENEZER LACY SR. AND JEDIDAH, HIS WIFE OF STRATFIELD, CONN. SOLD 30 DEC. 1726 TO DANIEL COMSTOCK A RIGHT TO LAND FROM THEIR FATHER HENRY JACKSON; & EBENEZER & JEDIDAH OF FAIRFIELD ON 14 NOV. 1743 CONVEYED TO THEIR BROTHER DAVID JACKSON JR. A RIGHT IN THE DWELLING HOUSE OF THEIR FATHER, MR. HENRY JACKSON OF FAIRFIELD, DECEASED. (FAIRFIELD DEED 4;125, 8:83). THEY GAVE OTHER DEEDS, BUT THE ABOVE ARE ENOUGH TO PROVE THAT JEDIDAH JACKSON WAS EBENEZER'S WIFE & THAT SHE MUST HAVE BEEN THE MOTHER OF ALL OF THE CHILDREN OF EBENEZER, B. BETWEEN 1726 & 1743.(ACKLEY-BOSWORTH GENEALOGY).

IN 1750, EBENEZER LACY, THEN OF STRATFIELD, CONVEYED LAND TO EBENEZER HALL OF STRATFIELD, BUT IN APR. 1751, FAAIRFIELD DEEDS SHOW HE WAS OF NEW FAIRFIELD. " HE WAS A HOUSEHOLDER IN STRATFORD IN 1730, BUT IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE REMOVED TO DANBURY."(F.O.F. VOL.11 P. 569). THE TOWN OF NEW FAIRFIELD LAY IMMEDIATELY NORTH OF DANBURY. BEYOND DOUBT, THEY REMOVED FROM STRATFIELD TO NEW FAIRFIELD IN 1750/1. THE NEW FAIRFIELD CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH & PARISH RECORDS SHOW THAT ON DEC.1, 1756 EBENEZER LACY WAS A MEMBER OF THE SOCIETY'S COMMITTEE; ON APR. 21, 1757, HE WAS A MODERATOR; HE WAS APPOINTED IN 1760 TO REPRESENT THE SOCIETY AS ONE OF THE ARBITRATORS BETWEEN ELNATHAN HALL & THE SOCIETY. HIS SON SETH ALSO LIVED IN NEW FAIRFIELD & ON DEC. 1, 1756, SETH WAS COLLECTOR OF MINISTERIAL RATES & IN 1759, SETH'S WIFE HANNAH WAS LISTED AS COMMUNICANT. THESE RECORDS SHOW THAT ISAAC LACY, ANOTHER SON OF EBENEZER LIVED THERE, THAT HIS CHN. WERE B. IN NEW FAIRF. & BAPT. IN THAT CHURCH. IT IS CLEAR THAT EBENEZER LACY SR. WITH HIS FAMILY WITH THE EXCEPTION OF HIS SON EBENEZER LACY JR., WHO WAS MARRIED & RESIDED IN NEW MILFORD, CONN., REMOVED TO NEW FAIRFIELD & THAT HIS FATHER EDWARD LACY JR. & HIS THIRD WIFE REBECCA (GREY) LACY ALSO REMOVED THERE, FOR IN 1758 EDWARD LACY & HIS WIFE WERE RECORDED AS COMMUNICANTS IN THAT CHURCH. IT IS ABOUT THAT TIME THAT EBENEZER LACY SR. & HIS DESCENDANTS BEGAN TO ADOPT THE SURNAME OF LACEY. IN THE NEW FAIRFIELD CHURCH RECORDS, IT IS SOMETIMES SPELLED LACY & SOMETIMES LACEY. MOST OF THE DESCENDANTS HAVE SINCE CONTINUED THE USE OF THE NAME SPELLED LACEY.

THE LACY FAMILY FROM FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT
BY PHILIP S. LACY 1973

P.27

60. EBENEZER LACEY JR., (S. OF EBENEZER LACEY SR., NO.9, AND JEDIDAH (JACKSON) LACY); B. STRATFIELD, CONN. APR. 19, 1727; D. LACEYVILLE, PA. DEC. 21, 1807(G.S.); M. NEW MILFORD, LITCHFIELD CO., CONN. DEC. 15, 1748 TO FREELOVE CANFIELD, B. NEW MILFORD, DEC.29,1726, D. LACEYVILLE MAR. 5, 1801(G.S.); DAU. OF AZARIAH AND MERCEY (BASSETT) CANFIELD OF MILFORD, CONN, WHO WERE M. FEB. 27, 1719. MERCEY BASSETT WAS BAPT. AT MILFORD OCT. 24, 1703, AND HER PARENTS WERE THOMAS AND SARAH (BALDWIN) BASSETT OF MILFORD.

IN 1750/51, EBENEZER'S FATHER, EBENEZER SR. NO.9 REMOVED WITH PART OF HIS FAMILY TO NEW FAIRFIELD, BUT IT IS IMPROBABLE THAT EBENEZER JR. ACCOMPANIED THEM; FOR HE HAD MARRIED IN NEW MILFORD TWO YEARS BEFORE THAT TIME, AND HAD PURCHASED LAND THERE ON MAR. 14, 1750. THIS DOCUMENT OF LAND PURCHASE, OWNED BY CHARLES L. SANFORD, NO.3569, A DESCENDANT, OF 723 CONGRESS ST., NEENAH, WIS. MENTIONS"EBENEZER LACEY OF SAID NEW MILFORD", AND LOCATES THIS PROPERTY WITH REFERENCE TO" SAID LACEY'S DWELLING HOUSE".

QUOTING FROM ACKLEY-BOSWORTH GEN. "HE ESTABLISHED HIMSELF AS A BLACKSMITH NEAR HIS FATHER-IN-LAW'S HOME IN LOWER MERRYALL, ON THE WEST BRANCH OF THE WEST ASPETUCK, AND AFTERWARDS APPARENTLY REMOVED TO NEW MILFORD VILLAGE". NEW MILFORD WAS ADJACENT TO ROXBURY UNTIL 1856, WHEN THE PART OF NEW MILFORD NEAREST TO ROXBURY WAS ESTABLISHED AS THE TOWN OF BRIDGEWATER.

EBENEZER LACEY JR. SERVED FROM SEVEN TO FOURTEEN DAYS IN AUG. 1757 IN THE FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR, IN THE COMPANY OF CAPT. JOHN HITCHCOCK OF NEW MILFORD, IN COL. EBENEZER MARSH'S REGT. AT THE TIME OF THE ALARM FOR THE RELIEF OF FT. WILLIAM HENRY AND PLACES ADJACENT-65 OF THOSE NAMED IN THE MUSTER RODE HORSES FROM NEW MILFORD, 18 FROM NEW FAIRFIELD.(CONN. HIST. SOC. COLL. 9:226).

HE SERVED IN THE REVOLUTION AS A SERGEANT IN CAPT. DAVID LEAVENWORTH'S COMPANY OF COL. INCREASE MOSELEY'S REGIMENT OF COLONIAL MILITIA, GUARDING THE COASTAL AREA BETWEEN HORSENECK NEAR NARRAGANSETT BAY AND NEW HAVEN, CONN, ON JUNE 12, 1779 HE WAS SERVING THERE AS A MEMBER OF THE CONTINENTAL GUARDS UNDER HIS FATHER-IN-LAW, AZARIAH CANFIELD(CONN. STATE LIBRARY, WAR, 7, 31).

ONE OF HIS DAUGHTERS MARRIED IN THE NEW PRESTON CHURCH, AND IT IS POSIBLE THAT HE BECAME A RESIDENT OF THAT PARISH WHICH WAS PARTLY IN NEW MILFORD AND PARTLY IN WASHINGTON. AMONG THE EARLY SETTLERS OF NEW PRESTON WERE PEOPLE WHO ADHERED TO THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

SUCH WAS ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH. " AT A MEETING WARNED AND HELD JUNE 26, 1784, THE INHABITANTS OF NEW PRESTON AND EAST-WICH(WARREN) OF THE DENOMINATIONOF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND SO CALLED PARISHES, HAVING FORMED THEMSELVES INTO A LAWFUL SOCIETY ACCORDING TO THE LATE ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT: WE, THE SUBSCRIBERS WHOSE NAMES ARE UNDERWRITTEN, BEING DESIROUS FOR THE PROMOTING RELIGION AND GOOD ORDER, DO ACKNOWLEDGE OURSELVES TO BE AND BELONG TO THE ABOVE SAID SOCIETY, AS WITNESS OUR HANDS".(SIGNATURES WERE FROM THE TOWNS OF NEW MILFORD, TWPS. OF KENT, WASHINGTON AND WARREN. INCLUDED IN NAMES FROM THE TWP. OF WASHINGTON WERE EBENEZER LACEY AND ISAAC LACEY, HIS SON).

NEW YORK LAND GRANTS SHOW THAT BETWEEN 1760 AND 1763 HE WAS INTERESTED IN THE PURCHASE OF LANDS THERE, HIS GRANT APPARENTLY BEING IN KINGSBURY(WASHINGTON CO.NY); BUT IT WAS NOT UNTIL 1794, AFTER HI SON ISAAC HAD REMOVED WITH HIS FAMILY FROM TINMOUTH VT. TO BRAINTRIM, LUZERNE CO. PA.(LATER, LACEYVILLE, WYOMING CO.)THAT HE REMOVED TO PENNSYLVANIA TO BE WITH HIS SON.

THE AMERICAN ANCESTRY OF FREELOVE CANFIELD, WIFE OF EBENEZER LACEY JR. FOLLOWS:
THOMAS CANFIELD, BAPT. ENGLAND, JUNE 23, 1623; D. MILFORD, CONN. 1687/8; M. PHEOBE CRANE, B. 1630, D. 1690.

District and despite the fact that he has a good law practice in Estill County he planned to return to Washington to enter Government service.

Since this information was collected Mr. Kash has been very ill and in the hospital in Lexington for a long period of time. However, he is some better but we are wondering if perhaps this will not change his plans about returning to Washington. (Mr. Kash died in 1954.)

We might say here that his brother, Will, was also a lawyer and a preacher and made an illustrious career for himself. Daniel was a doctor who practiced widely in Wolfe, Breathitt and Perry counties and died at the height of his career.

MONROE LACY

(This bit of information was rendered by Mrs. Marie O. Steckley, 13 W. Court St., Cincinnati 2, Ohio.)

My father, Monroe Lacy, who will be 80 years old on Nov. 20, 1954, came to Ohio in March, 1929 and has been here ever since.

Dad has two sisters and one brother living. Grace Johnson, Columbus, Ohio; Mollie Rose, South Lebanon, Ohio; and James (Jim) A. Lacey, Leeco, Ky.

My mother, Margaret Ellen (Robinson) Lacey (nick name Maggie) died in March, 1919. She was the daughter of Greenberry and Florence Robinson, formerly of Hazel Green.

Dad never re-married and there are four of his children. I am the oldest and was only eight years old when my mother died and the baby was 17 months old. Dad kept us all together and was practically father and mother, both, to us and I just can't put into words how grand and swell he is. I'll just say this much, he is the finest Dad in the world.

He has eleven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

THE LACY FAMILY OF WOLFE COUNTY, KY.

(Compiled by Mrs. Wm. Everett Bach, Lexington, Ky.)

Mr. John Lacy of Greenbrier County, Virginia, came to Montgomery County, Ky., at a very early date. He moved to what is known as "Lacy Creek" (named for him) when possibly this was still Montgomery County. He married Sarah Porter and the name Porter was handed down through the generations. Their children were as follows: William, Marcus (or Mark), Alexander, Ambrose, Moses B., Harvey, Nancy, Pheby and Caroline.

Wilbourn and Elinor were half brothers and sisters.

Mark Lacy married Sally Huff and had the following children: John, Nancy, Green, Sanford, Eliza, Andy Porter who married Emily Trimble Cockrell, Alexander Preston, James and Perry Lacy.

Mr. Mark Lacy died at his home on Lacy Creek in Wolfe County, in 1885 at the age of 92 years.

John and Sanford Lacy went West. Alexander Preston Lacy married Polly Nickell; Perry Lacy married and had the following children: John, Sally Jane, Edi Ellen who married Marion Vaughn.

William Porter Lacy married Mollie Johnson. Their children were Flossie Lacy, who married R. P. Swango; and Courtney Lacy married Pearl Clark and had one son, William Earl Lacy, married Edna Mae Immel and had three children: William Earl Jr., Katherine, and John Andrew. William Porter Lacy had one brother, Daniel Boone Lacy, who married Callie Johnson (sister to Mollie Johnson) and they had the following children: Oliver married Jess; Ollie, died young; Monnie, never married; Devonia married Charles Cundiff and had one daughter, Sandra Cundiff; Hallie married Blair Childers, no children; Sanford married and had two children: Allen and Joyce.

THE LANDSAW FAMILY

(Permission of Caesar Hurst from his book.)

The Landsaw family of Wolfe County was established by William, who was born in Greenbriar, Va. (now West Va.) about 1774 and who died on Stillwater Creek in Wolfe County in 1826. He was married to Elizabeth Murphy, a daughter of John and Nancy Ransome Murphy. Nancy Ransome claimed to have been a cousin of George Washington, our first president. She is said to have claimed she attended the same church as George in her early days; and that her father sold some of the land on which the city of Washington now stands, and received payment for it in gold.

Elizabeth and William eloped when they were married as she was only 13 and her parents objected to her marriage. They came to Fleming, Ky., and established their home there.

About 1808 Landsaw purchased a large tract of land on Stillwater, Wolfe County, Ky., and erected buildings and moved his family to it in 1809. This embraced all the land that is now on Murphy Fork and Landsaw. This was a fine farm and contained much bottom land.

In the meantime the Landsaws had been forgiven by the Murphys and to help seal the friendship, William Landsaw gave John and

EDWARD LACY

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT

I. EDWARD LACY[a]

Edward^{1} Lacy with wife Sarah appeared in Fairfield, Conn., prior to 20 Jan. 1694/5, when their six children were baptized together at Christ Church, Fairfield. Their earlier history has not been ascertained, and it is not known whether they were late immigrants from England or whether they had been living in one of the other American colonies.

They lived in Stratfield Parish, then a part of Stratford and Fairfield, now Bridgeport. No probate of Edward's estate has been found.

Children of Edward and Sarah (———) Lacy:

+ i. Edward.^{2}
ii. John, d. at Stratfield in 1761 (will 31 May 1754, proved 3 Mar. 1761); m. Ruth (Wakelee) Treadwell, b. 27 Aug. 1681, dau. of Jacob Wakelee and widow of Ephraim Treadwell.
iii. Sarah, living in 1753; m. (1) at Stratfield, 30 Dec. 1697, Samuel Trowbridge, b. at New Haven, Conn., 7 Oct. 1670, d. at Stratfield between 11 Feb. and 25 Mar. 1741/2; m. (2) at Fairfield Church, 26 May 1743, Edward Treadwell, who d. at Stratfield between 20 Jan. and 6 Mar. 1753.
iv. Henry, removed to Newark, N. J., by 1730 when he and his wife conveyed her inherited land in Fairfield; m. at Stratfield, 11 Dec. 1716, Hannah Morehouse, bapt. at Fairfield, 7 Oct. 1694, dau. of Jonathan and Rebecca (Knowles) Morehouse.
v. Mary.
vi. Elizabeth.

II. EDWARD LACY[b]

Edward^{2} Lacy, born probably around 1680, died after 1760; married first, at Fairfield [Stratfield], Conn., 23 July 1702, Abigail^{4} Gregory, born [say 1682], living at least as late of 1720, daughter of Samuel^{3} and Rebecca (Wheeler) Gregory; married second, perhaps 1728-9, Hannah (Beardsley) Parruck, born at Stratford, 25 Oct. 1682, daughter of Samuel and Abigail (Clark) Beardsley, and widow of John Parruck; married third, at Fairfield [Greenfield], 18 May 1748, Rebecca Gray, quite probably born about 1714, daughter of Jacob and Hannah (Seeley) Gray. The last wife's identity is not certain, but this Rebecca's branch of the Gray family lived in Greenfield where she married, and she had a brother who settled in Danbury.

No probate of Edward Lacy has been found, and he appears to have removed late in life to New Fairfield, where his son Ebenezer had settled about 1750, for a "wife of Edward" Lacy is entered in 1758 as a church member in New Fairfield. However, in 1760, he is described as "late of Fairfield, now of Danbury." The birth of only the eldest child of Edward, Ebenezer, is recorded at Fairfield, and at Stratfield Church only Ebenezer and two other children were baptized, in 1704, 1705 and 1708. Since the Stratfield Church records are very complete to 1718 (after which there is a gap), and no baptismal records of other churches in the vicinity of Stratfield relate to children of Edward Lacy, perhaps the three recorded children were all the children he had.

Children of Edward and Abigail (Gregory) Lacy, born at Stratfield:

+ i. Ebenezer^{3}, b. 12 Mar. 1703/4; bapt. 19 Mar. 1703/4.
ii. Abigail, bapt. 3 June 1705; living in 1773; m. Samuel Wheeler, bapt. at Stratfield, 20 Apr. 1701, d. at New Fairfield, Conn., in 1773.
iii. Rebecca, bapt. 11 Apr. 1708.

III. EBENEZER LACY[c]

Ebenezer^{3} Lacy, born at Stratfield, Conn., 12 Mar. 1703/4, died probably at New Fairfield, Conn.; married by 1726 Jedidah Jackson, baptized at Stratfield, 22 Apr. 1705, died after 30 Jan. 1775, daughter of Henry and Mary (Wheeler) Jackson.

Ebenezer Lacy and Jedidah his wife, of Stratfield, sold 30 Dec. 1726 to Daniel Comstock a right to land from their father, Henry Jackson; and Ebenezer and Jedidah, of Fairfield, on 14 Nov. 1743 conveyed to their brother David Jackson, Jr., a right in the dwelling house of their father, Mr. Henry Jackson of Fairfield, deceased.[d] They gave other deeds, but the above are sufficient to prove that Jedidah Jackson was Ebenezer's wife and that she must have been mother of all the children of Ebenezer born between 1726 and 1743.

The Stratfield Church baptisms are very incomplete after 1718, and for quite a long period, into the 1730's, only scattering baptisms were entered. The only child of Ebenezer whose baptism was recorded was Isaac in 1735, and since we know that Ebenezer's marriage occurred at least nine years before that, we place the undoubted older children on the basis of other records and their dates of marriage.

On 7 Feb. 1749/50, Ebenezer Lacey of Stratfield conveyed land to Ebenezer Hall of Stratfield; and on 6 Apr. 1751, Ebenezer Lacey of New Fairfield conveyed to William Odell of Stratfield.[e] These deeds fix the date of the family's removal to New Fairfield as 1750. The destruction in 1832 of the vital and land records of New Fairfield, and lack of probate of Ebenezer in the Danbury District, impair our ability to give a full account of this family. We are thrown back on the very meagre information contained in the New Fairfield Church records, which show that "Sister Jedidah Lacey" was summoned before a church meeting for some slight indiscretion. All the Lacys who appear in the New Fairfield Church records prior to 1800 can be identified as belonging to the family of Ebenezer.

Children of Ebenezer and Jedidah (Jackson) Lacy, presumably born at Stratfield, Conn.:

- i. Thaddeus^{4}, b. [say 1725]; d. at Castleton, Vt., 3 Oct. 1776; will dated 13 Feb. 1770; m. (1) Mary ———, who d. at Roxbury, Conn., 12 May 1764; m. (2) Anna ———, who d. there 17 Nov. 1787 ae. 62 (g.s.). He settled in Roxbury and was a Captain in the Revolutionary War. Children by first wife:
    - 1. Mary^5, b. 14 Oct. 1748; m. 21 Nov. 1771, Richard Hurd.

IV. EBENEZER LACEY

Ebenezer^4 Lacey, born at Stratfield, Conn., 19 Apr. 1727, died at Laceyville, Wyoming Co., Pa., 21 Dec. 1807, aged 81 (gravestone); married at New Milford, Conn., 15 Dec. 1748, Freelove Canfield, born at New Milford, 29 Dec. 1726, died at Laceyville, Pa., 5 Mar. 1801, aged 74 (gravestone), daughter of Azariah and Mercy (Bassett) Canfield.

He went to New Milford as a young man, married there, and established himself as a blacksmith near his father-in-law's home in Lower Merryall, on the west branch of the West Aspetuck, and afterwards apparently removed to New Milford village.[f] New Milford was adjacent to Roxbury until 1856, when the part of New Milford nearest to Roxbury was established as the town of Bridgewater.

Ebenezer had eight days of service in August 1757 in the French and Indian War as a member of the Company of Capt. John Hitchcock of New Milford.[g]

As one of his daughters married in the New Preston church, it is possible [illegible] of that parish, which was partly in New Milford and partly in Washington. If so, he may be the Ebenezer Lacy listed at Washington in the 1790 Census with a boy under 16 and two females in his family. We do not find Ebenezer or his sons listed in Pennsylvania in 1790. New York Land Grants show that between 1760 and 1763 he was interested in the purchase of lands there, his grant apparently being in Kingsbury, Washington Co., N. Y., but he may not have occupied the lands personally.

He is said to have come "at an early day" from Connecticut to Braintrim Township, and his son Isaac to Laceyville, Wyoming Co., Pa.[h]

The Bible record of Isaac Lacey, which gives records of his children, states his birth date in exact conformity with the entry of it in New Milford, thus proving his identity.[i]

Isaac came with his family and settled on the present site of Laceyville. Although a weaver by trade, he engaged in farming there. Starting with little prospect of making more than a living, he became one of the well-to-do men of his section, and engaged in agriculture on an extensive scale. He gave to each of his children a farm of 100 acres or more.[h]

P. 156 PORTRAIT OF WYOMING & LACKAW

CANFIELD I. LACEY, a representative and prominent citizen of Laceyville, and associate judge, was born in the village where he still resides, August 28, 1828, and comes of a family that has long been prominently identified with the interests of this section of the state, bearing an important part in its development and prosperity. His father, Ebenezer Lacey, was a native of Vermont, but when only two years of age was brought to Wyoming County, Pa., by his parents, Isaac and Lydia (Pratt) Lacey, who were also born in the Green Mountain State and came to Pennsylvania in 1790, locating near Laceyville, about a mile above where our subject now lives. The grandfather was born in 1754, and died November 2, 1830, while the grandmother was born in October, 1764, and died March 6, 1809. He was twice married. On coming to this state he was accompanied by his parents, Ebenezer and Freelove (Canfield) Lacey, natives of Connecticut, who now lie buried near Laceyville.

The first of the family to come to the New World was Ebenezer Lacey, the great-grandfather of our subject, who was born in England and landed in Massachusetts in the early part of the eighteenth century. He also came to Wyoming County, Pa., with his wife and two children, and here spent his remaining days. The family was among the first to settle in the county, and the village of Laceyville was named in honor of our subject's father, who was one of the most prominent and distinguished citizens of that region. He married Zuriah Northrup, a native of Connecticut, and both died at Laceyville, the former at the age of eighty-three and the latter at the age of eighty. As an old line Whig he was a leading politician of his locality, and took quite an active part in public affairs. He helped to bury the first child that died in this part of the county.

Mr. Lacey of this review is one of a family of eleven children, of whom three are yet living. His father and grandfather were also one in families of eleven. Upon the old home farm our subject grew to manhood, and in the old-time schools of the neighborhood he was educated. He remained under the parental roof until twenty-five years of age, but for several years previous had worked for himself upon the canal, and on leaving home he was with his brother George G. in a store in Laceyville. On the 12th of December, 1854, Mr. Lacey married Miss Elizabeth Norton, a native of Mifflin County, Pa., where her parents, Michael and Mary (Jacobs) Norton, were also born and were married in 1819. In that county they continued to make their home until called to their final rest. Of their eight children, three are still living, and the members of the family have principally followed agricultural pursuits. The paternal grandfather of Mrs. Lacey was John Norton. Five children were born to the union of our subject and his wife: Juniata H. is married and has four children; Sarah Z. is at home; A. V. is deceased; William Norton, who obtained a good academic education, and later was a student for two years in a medical university at New York, is an ex-newspaper man and is now filling a responsible position at the state capitol; and George H., a well-educated young man, was for some time connected with the Western Union Telegraph Company, and is now chief operator at the head office of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, located at Sayre, Pa.

For six years after his marriage, Mr. Lacey engaged in general merchandising and was later a contractor in railroad and canal work for twelve years and a half. The following ten years were passed in farming near the old homestead, after which he was a contractor on the Lackawanna Valley Railroad for two years. He then operated a grist mill for about four years, and for two years and a half conducted a hotel at Skinner's Eddy. Subsequently, after spending six months in the oil regions he returned to Lacey, where he has since made his home. In 1892 he was elected associate judge, which office he has since acceptably filled, his rulings being marked by fairness and impartiality. His first presidential vote was cast for the Whig candidate, but since the organization of the Republican party he has been one of its prominent members, and was a delegate to the first Republican convention. Fraternally he is a Knight Templar Mason and a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The members of his family either belong to the Methodist Episcopal or Presbyterian Church, and they hold prominent positions in social circles.

grand juryman of the town of Bethel, and he was active in religious work as a member of the Methodist Church. On November 24, 1818, he married Miss Aurilla Fairchild, who was born December 25, 1797, and died September 24, 1837. They had nine children: Rev. George S., born August 17, 1819, married Clara A. Benedict May 4, 1841, was a Methodist minister, and had charge of a Church at Bolton, Conn., where he died October 19, 1847; David J., born May 24, 1821, died May 18, 1832; Harriet, born February 15, 1823, died March 12, 1857; Betsey M., born May 18, 1825, died February 28, 1852; Frederick, our subject, is mentioned more fully below; Truman, F., born August 22, 1829, is a resident of Bristol, Conn.; Alonzo, born August 7, 1831, died March 13, 1852; Eliza, born November 2, 1833, married Oscar H. Hibbard, and they now reside in Bethel; and Maryett, born October 1, 1835, married Henry Fairchild of Roxbury, Conn. On August 24, 1841, Elihu Judd married for his second wife Nancy Ann Boughton, who died, and on April 21, 1847, he formed a third matrimonial union, this time with Eliza Ann Gregory, by whom he had three children: Jane E., born August 29, 1848, Charles H., born April 29, 1850; and Julia M., born March 13, 1852, of whom Charles alone grew to maturity.

The subject of our sketch was born September 29, 1827, at the old home in Center District, Bethel, and was educated in the schools of Easton, Bethel, Roxbury, and Georgetown. At the age of seventeen he began to learn the hatter's trade with Isaac H. Seeley & Son, of Bethel, and until November, 1892, he was almost continuously employed in that business in different shops in Bethel. He has taken an active part in local affairs, and in addition to his duties as justice of the peace he is now serving as assessor. At various times he has been a member of the board of relief, grand juryman, and for twelve years he was selectman, during eight years of that time being first selectman, while he has held the office of assessor for ten years past. In politics he was a Whig in early life, but he has supported Republican principles ever since the organization of that party. He is a leading member of the Congregational Church, for many years was a teacher in the Sabbath-school and he has also been prominent in reform work as a member of the Sons of Temperance and the Good Templars.

On November 28, 1848, Mr. Judd was married in the town of Bethel to his first wife, Miss Harriet M. Smith, who was born September 7, 1828, and died March 4, 1864, and on May 17, 1866, he married Mrs. Alza A. Barnes, daughter of Benjamin and Almena (Wickwire) Dunning, of Morris township, Litchfield Co., Conn. Mr. Judd is the father of five children, all by the first marriage: (1) George S., born December 22, 1849, died October 17, 1863. (2) Esther A., born February 6, 1851, died April 26, 1852. (3) Fredrick A. born April 14, 1853, is a hatter by trade, and he resides in Danbury, where he holds the position of general superintendent with Rundle & White. He was married in Bethel to Miss Harriet Mayhew, daughter of Theodore and Betsy Mayhew, and she departed this life, leaving two children—George F. and Theodore H.—both living. On October 26, 1882, he was married again, this time to Louisa W. Sanford, daughter of George A. and Carrie (Banks) Sanford, of Redding, and they have one child, Frederick A. Mr. Judd is a member of the Masonic Fraternity. (4) Melville T., born August 14, 1855, died August 14, 1862. (5) William H., born January 11, 1861, married Elizabeth Smith, and died August 21, 1891, leaving a widow and two children, of whom one, Richard M., still survives.

ROWLAND BRADLEY LACEY (deceased). The passing away on March 31, 1897, of Mr. Lacey ended the life of one of the best known residents of Bridgeport and of Fairfield county, a life of activity and usefulness, and marked the end of a kindly and lovable man.

Mr. Lacey was born April 6, 1818, in Easton, Conn., being the only son of Jesse and Edna (Munson) Lacey, and descended from Edward Lacey, who with his wife Sarah was admitted to the Fairfield (Conn.) Church January 13, 1694. Our subject was of the sixth generation from Edward Lacey, the line of his descent being through John, Edward, Zachariah and Jesse Lacey.

As a boy our subject spent much of his time farming, as was the custom of the boys of that time. At the age of sixteen he was graduated from Eli Gilbert's select school in Redding, and then began the teaching of school himself. When eighteen he removed to Bridgeport at the time it was but a borough, and for a period was assistant postmaster to Stephen Lounsbury. On the opening of the Housatonic railroad in Bridgeport, in 1839, he was appointed the local agent. From that incumbency he resigned in 1844 to accept a position as bookkeeper with the saddlery firm of Harral & Calhoun, and nine years later he became manager of the concern, which was then one of the leading manufactories in the State, having agents in both the South and the West. In 1863 the firm name was Lacey, Meeker & Co.

of and recovered sacred vessels that had gotten into the hands of the laity; had part in many civil commissions, attended Dublin Parliament in 1560, and was arrested there for opposing the Queen's spiritual reforms. In 1562 the Deputy reported him as "a stubborn and disobedient man in causes of religion, and had committed offences whereby he hath, by the laws of the realm, forfeited his bishopric." He was deprived of his temporalities, being charged with alienating episcopal lands (Lisready, Carrubane, Ballynash) by Bishop Webb (1641), who styled him "the black Bishop." He received Sydney officially at Limerick, and presently was appointed one of the Munster Commissioners; owing to his great poverty he, on the occasion of the Countess visiting Cork, had to borrow the expenses. He contributed towards the travelling expenses of Dr. Creagh to Rome, and he is found mentioned for the Arch-Diocese of Armagh at this time; Earl Gerald could not, however, afford to dispense with so ripe a councillor. Hugh was a fugative after 1571 and, being extremely old, had special faculties from Rome. Through interest of friends he in 1577 secured leases of the rectories of La Garthe, Askeaton, Kilmacow, Lismakeery and Iverus for 21 years. His relative, Canon Robert Lawless, was on April 8, 1580, deposed and expelled by some English Lutherans. Lawless went to Spain, bearing letters from Hugh, where he sought aid from Salamanca University to pursue his studies; he died there in 1581. James de Lacy, i.e., James FitzMaurice Oge de Lacy, held Ballyfukeen (¼), B-nowrane (¼), Palmerstown (alias Ballynalmor) (¼), etc., in 1586. He is to be identified with James Reogh de Lacy, the latter having been executed at Limerick during the rebellion of James Fitzmaurice. He also held Lismakeery and Castle (¼), Laghbane (¼), Creavehurragh (¼), and Feahenecurrelea wood. Obviously, the above is a most important entry. James of Ballyfukeen, dead in 1636, held [illegible] carucates of land, viz., Dromin (Drominfearky), Clogher, Ballyfukeen, Bally[illegible], B'william; his son and heir, Maurice Oge Lacy, held these lands at his father's decease. He paid a tax to the Government and a head-rent to the Earl of Kildare; James and his son, Thomas, were at the siege of Askeaton. John Lacy and Peter Lacy commanded under Malby at the Battle of Manister (Tory Hill) where John of Desmond met defeat shortly after his victory at Springfield. John Lacy surrendered Croom to the insurgents in 1579 and burned the town. This was he whom Ormond sent to treat with Desmond (1583). David FitzJohn Roe Lacy died during the rebellion. John Lacy here held La Garthe, Kilmacaneerla, Ballygylletagle (¼ each), B'neale, Cappakane, Kyllvohoge, Kilmihill, Clonregan, Garthe Castle, i.e., Castle-Rylanes (321 acres) (excepting first few); he also held a quarter in Bealdorrod, Obbane (Kilcolman), and Inchmore in Rathkeale; he possessed, besides, Tullagh (Tullaghawson) (1½ x ¼s), Ballenmollen (1½ x ¼s), Cunniger (½ x ¼), Creaveyeragh ([illegible]), etc. John was Sheriff of Limerick in 1643. The lands of John Fitz-William Lacy passed to George Thornton (1500 acres in Uregare and Dunaman). John de Lacy, son of Sir H. Pierce Lacy, was enfeoffed of Bruff and Dorroughclock by his father, but was deprived of them under cover of his father's supposed attainder; Sir Thomas Standish secured them and, to ligalise his title, had a bill rushed through the Irish House of Commons to the second reading; but J. Lacy petitioned the House in 16[illegible] to be heard against it through counsel; in the ensuing debate (October) by both counsel the bill was rejected, 84 to 64 votes. Lacy had then recourse to Common Law to enforce his title, but was frustrated by the Irish Council and the intrigues of his enemies, who were powerful enough to detain him in prison till, to regain his liberty, he had perforce to resign his title and lands for 100 pounds! In respect of this injustice there was a special article in the peace of 1648–1649, assuring him justice in the next parliament. His troop of horse, commanded by his son, Colonel Pierce, was annihilated at Rathmines, and he himself suffered imprisonment again where, it is asserted, he died, after six years of untold suffering. Lady Catherine Comyn was Colonel Pierce's wife. She was aged 35 years when her husband was transplanted to Connaught;[21] John de Lacy was in the French service in 1673 having, it is said, came to Ireland in that year to raise troops for the Brigade; he returned to France in 1675; this, more likely, has reference to Colonel Pierce. Maurice de Lady was prior of the Hermits of St. Augustine at Limerick in 1648. Pierce de Lacy of Bruff held Dorrocloghe and Castle (2 x ½s), Motoge (¼), Kyllmokodan (¼), Ballynranke (¼), [illegible]lantanna-ne-Tonnaha woods and Kyllglanne-Dunnacloghe. He was Justice of the Peace and Captain of 60 Kerne, some time Sheriff of Limerick, and had protection from Ormond against Thornton. After the Restoration Lacy's discretion and appreciation of the King's embarrassment evoked the following notice from Lord Sunderland: "All this would be very easily remedied and the King would have done as he has a mind to, if men would be discreet in their estates as several are, amongst whom ought to be remembered Sir J. Fitzgerald, Lacy, and many more, who have moulded their troops and companies to their mind without the least dissatisfaction to anyone. They are beloved in their quarters, cherish and comfort the people, and punish those who talk impertinently (ca. 1688)." Robert de Lacy appears at the siege of Kilfinny Castle, together with Richard Collum. James de Lacy of Athlacca possessed in 1636 the castle, bawn, and mill there, 20 acres of burgess land, of which 12 lay in Gorthnigh, and the Ville; also 1½ carucates called Rathbane and Glanvall. He enfeoffed as his heir Thomas, his son, who was bound to pay dues to Government. In 1652 an order was granted one Butler to raise 34 pounds on [illegible] where, he said, money had been taken from him by Thomas Lacy, a priest; Thomas was arrested by Lt. W'm Sheldon in 1656, and Corporal Rostoll, on the [illegible]ying of Henry Ingoldsby, received 5 pounds reward. Lacy was then committed to Limerick gaol. In February of the next year he applied for permission to [illegible] beyond the seas, which was granted. THE EDWARD LACY FAMILY OF CONNECTICUT and some problems with some information Revised September, 1997.

By Sheila Ann Johnson

The earliest known members of the Lacy family of Fairfield, CT are: EDWARD LACY, Sr. Date and place of birth not known. Death date is not known but probably after the deed dated November, 1701 between son Edward Lacy who is specifically refered to as junior and James Bennet Attorney for Ephraim Wheeler. It would seem not necessary to refer to a junior if the senior were not living. SARAH ______, wife of Edward Lacy, Sr. Her surname is sometimes given as Jackson, but to the best of my knowledge, there is nothing to substantiate this.

Their known children (not necessarily in birth order):

EDWARD LACY, Jr. m. (1) ABIGAIL GREGORY (2) HANNAH BEARDSLEY (3) REBECCA GREY. Children by (1): Ebenezer, Abigail, Rebecca.

JOHN LACY m. RUTH WAKELEE. Children: John, Edward, David, Ephraim, Eunice, Sarah, unamed child. Will dated 31 May 1754; proved 3 Mar 1761 includes names of 2 daughters and four sons and a grandaughter, Abiah.

SARAH LACY m. (1) SAMUEL TROWBRIDGE (2) EDWARD T READWELL. Children by (1): Sarah (died infancy), Samuel, John, Elizabeth, Hannah , Sarah. HENRY LACY m. HANNAH MOREHOUSE. Children: Joseph, David, Sarah, Rebecc a, Abraham, Hannah, Mary, Prudence. Will dated 8 Sep 1765; proved 16 July 1768.

MARY LACY m. JONATHAN HALL. Children: William, Kezia, Charity, Mary, Ichabod.

ELIZABETH LACY. No further information about Elizabeth.

The children were baptized 20 January 1694/5 at the First Congregational Church of Christ in Fairfield, CT. Sarah Lacy, wife of Edward Lacy, Sr. was admitted to full communion on January 13, 1694/5. There does not appear to be any record of Edward Lacy, Sr. being a member of the church. (The children of non-communicants who accepted the church covenant before the congregation, were baptized. This was not a practice accepted by all congregations.)

The International Genealogical Index (IGI) shows the children of Edward Lacy, Sr. and wife, Sarah, as being born in Salem, Essex Co., MA all on the same day, 20 June 1694. The placement of the CT family in Salem and the supposed identity of parents for Edward Lacy Sr. can be traced to three sources.

One is the article in "American Ancestry" regarding the family of Rowland Bradley Lacey, "...the Lacey family is evidently of Norman origin and migrated to Eng. in the time of or prior to the period of the commonwealth, and later many of them passed over to the North of Ireland, and from there they came to New England, landing at Salem or on the coast of N.H., and came into the vicinity of Boston, abt. 1690, and while sojourning there the aged parent John Lacy d. suddenly at the age of 104 yrs., and it is probable that he may have been the progenitor of the Fairfield family, among whom the name of John is of frequence (sic) occurrence, while other members settled in Mass., and still others in New Jersey and further south."

The second is included in "The Roll of the House of Lacy". "John Lacy of England, first settler in America, died near Boston and was then aged 104 years; his son, Edward (Sr.), was born in 1655-1656 and married Sarah [this part was quoted by Philip S. Lacy in his book, "The Lacy Family From Fairfield Connecticut"] .... In 1692 Mary de Lacy, wife of John, together with Mary daughter of Edward Lacy (Jr.), witnessed against witchcraft; the latter, who was born at Salem 1672, was tried but not executed...." The family involved in the Salem Witch Trials was that of Laurence Lacy of Andover, Essex Co., MA. His wife, Mary Lacy, his mother-in-law Ann Foster and daughter Mary Lacy, Jr. were convicted but not executed although Ann Foster died in prison. There is a great deal of documentation about the Salem Trials and the information in "The Roll" is absolutely incorrect. The date stated for the younger Mary Lacy's birth should have been a clue that there was a problem with this information.

The third source is from DAR Bible Records found in the NY State Library Vol. 6 pp135-8, "Lacey Family of Fairfield, CT and Laceyville, PA" submitted by Miss Mayme A. Spring of Syracuse NY March, 1925. Page 135: "The Lacey Family is evidently of Norman origin and migrated to New England. Our ancestors came direct from England to New England.....no line of descent can be traced until we come to John Lacey whose wife was Mary. He died suddently at the age of one hundred and four in the vicinity of Boston. Through his son Edward we trace our line descent. A fact worthy of note is that Mary Lacey, September 8, 1692 in Salem witnessed against witchcraft while her grand-daughter also called Mary Lacey nine days later was tried for witchcraft but not executed..." Page 136: "John - _________ Sarah eldest born 1580. Elizabeth, Thomas, Edward born 1655 or 6, settled in Fairfield, Connecticut about 1693. His wife, Sarah, was admitted to church of Fairfield January 13, 1694. He purchased land in Fairfield in 1704." This statement is followed by descendant information for Edward Lacy, Jr. It is very possible that the father of Edward Lacy, Sr. was named John but to my knowledge nothing has surfaced yet to prove that. Edward Lacy, Sr. is known only by his name being shown on the church records and by implication of his son being referred to as a junior in the1701 deed. Philip S. Lacy stated, "JOHN LACY, first American settler, was born in England, probably in Nottingham. He came with his wife, Mary, to America, landing at Salem or on the coast of New Hampshire, in which vicinities they lived at unascertained places and periods. He died in 1690 at the age of 104 years.

Due to lack of record proofs, the foregoing statement must rest on family tradition and such corroborating circumstantial evidence as is available." In the "History of the Old Town of Stratford..." there is a statement on p. 543 in a brief biography of John Lacey, grandson of Edward Lacy, Sr. and wife Sarah, "The first settler is said to have come from Nottingham, England". This information and that in the "American Ancestry" article can most likely be attributed to Rowland Bradley Lacey who was the president of the Fairfield County Historical Society 1881 -1892. At this time it is anybody's guess as to what prompted the idea that the family came from Nottinghamshire. This could be correct but, the family could have come from just about any other county in England. And, the family may have been any number of places in America before settling in CT. If they had been in anyplace in New England other than where they are first found in CT it would seem that there would be some record of them given the extensive records available. To my knowledge nothing has been found.

Dear Lucy,

I saw your post on the LACY mailing list about the LACYs of CT, and thought that I would touch bases with you. I am also descended from this family, through Mary LACY, b ca 1684, daughter of Edward, Sr. and Sarah, who married Jonathan HALL...........and their son, Ichabod HALL. When Jonathan HALL died in 1718/19, Edward LACY was appointed guardian of Ichabod who was an infant at the time (the other four children were placed under the guardianship of Jonathan's brother, Francis HALL). On 22 Jan 1732/3, Ichabod chose his uncle, John HALL to be his guardian.

You have probably seen the article written by Sheila Ann Johnson, on Elton Lacey's webpage. I thought that she did an excellent job of presenting the known facts about the CT family, while at the same time debunking some of the myths, and pointing out that proof has not been established for some of the speculations that have been presented as fact in some published sources and on the internet.

I wanted to pass on to you an interesting little item about an Edward LACY, that I found in "The Early History of Southampton, Long Island, New York" by George Rogers Howell, MA, published in 1887. It was in the chapter on Civil Laws, under the heading of Witchcraft:

"About1683 'Thomas Travelly enters a complaint agst Edward Lacy for that the Defend. injuriously called the Complainant's wife a witch and said that she set his corne on fire and sat upon his house in the night. A witch and that hee was hagridden 3 nights by her; and hee was Confident she was an old witch.

The charges to somons 0 1 0
To entering withdrawing the action to be paid by ye Deft 0 2 6'

It does not appear from the records or otherwise that this delusion so prevalent in New England, ever seriously troubled the peace of Southampton. The case above recorded stands alone -- the only intimation on record, and in this matter tradition is equally silent."

I wonder if this was our Edward. There's no way we can know for sure, but due to the close proximity of Long Island, NY to Fairfield Co., CT it is entirely possible. I have so far been unsuccessful in finding another record of an Edward LACY in Long Island, and didn't find him on the tax lists of Southampton in the 1680's. I haven't had much time to work on this, but I hope to some day be able to. It would also be interesting to see the original town record to see if anything important was left out when it was abstracted. Too bad that Travelly dropped the charges, he was obviously not thinking about helping out future generations with their genealogy research! Since there were no other cases of witchcraft in Southampton, and since Edward LACY accused a woman of being "an old witch," it seems likely that he had lived in an area where the witchcraft hysteria was going on, and took it seriously. Ah, well. It is fun to speculate.

I will post this data on the LACY mailing list, but I wanted to be sure that you received it, so am also sending it to you directly.

have been descended from the Anglo-Norman Lacys mentioned above, but may have been from Gaelic roots, perhaps known at one time by the name, "d'l'Esse", then "de Lees," and finally "de Lacy."

The standard work on the early history of these Lacys is "The Lacy Family in England and Normandy, 1066 - 1194," by W. E. Wightman, published in 1966 by Oxford University Press. The author of this book is said to have believed, as a result of his research, that none of us in the world today by the name of Lacy, Lacey, de Lacy, etc., are likely to be descended from this early Anglo-Norman family, but rather from other families who later adopted the same family name.

In any event, William of Orange, also known as King William III of England, Scotland and Ireland (1650 - 1702) was not even born until after the Lacy family had been in Ireland for nearly 500 years.

The Lacys and Laceys who migrated to America seem to have come from England, as far as I have been able to determine. However, some of them may have travelled from Ireland or elsewhere to England before departing for America. Unfortunately, we'll probably never know.

Naturally, I hope that Wightman was wrong, that we are descended from the Norman de Lacys, and that we will be able to prove it someday.

Hi Lucy,
This is the information I have. But have since heard this isn't necessarily correct. It was originally in a article by a Rowland Bradley Lacey. Edward Lacy was the son of John Lacy and Mary _______ who came to this country from Nottingham, England.
Edward b. abt. 1655 Nottingham, married Sarah (Jackson?) 1675.
Children:
Sarah b. 1679 married 1. Samuel Trowbridge 2. Edward Treadwell
John b. married Ruth Wakelee
Henry b. married Hannah Morehouse
Edward b. married 1. Abigail Gregory (I have two lines to the Gregory's) 2. Hannah Beardsley 3. Rebecca Grey.
Mary b. married Jonathan Hall
Elizabeth b.

Do you have anything other than this? or anything different?

This message set off lots of red flags and warning sirens for me. I've been researching the French/English/Irish Lacys/de Lacys intermittently for over 30 years, and there are some things in the above which are at odds with some of my research findings. Trim Castle was built or at least established by Hugh de Lacy, an interesting and important Anglo-Norman baron. When England invaded Ireland in 1170, King Henry II first left Hugh de Lacy (b. ca. 1120, d. 1186) to take care of his affairs in England, naming him vice-regent of the country. Then, after Ireland was taken, Hugh de Lacy was named Lord of Meath, and he set about building many towns and castles, including the one at Trim. Trim was one of his main castles, and had particularly strategic importance, because at that time, that was the furthest extent inland to which the Boyne River could be navigated. This castle was probably underway by about 1180. Hugh de Lacy was succeeded by his son, Walter de Lacy, II.

Hugh was a great-grandson of Walter de Lacy, I, who was probably born in Normandy, France about 1045. This Walter I and his older brother, Ilbert, were in England very early during the period of the Norman conquest. One or both of them may have been present at the Battle of Hastings in 1066, but in any event, they can both be shown to have been present in England by 1067. Walter I and his son, Roger de Lacy, started the important castle at Ludlow near the Welsh border in about 1085, among others, while Ilbert built Pontefract Castle in Yorkshire. If not in the retinue of William I, they would have been allied with one of the other supporters of William, such as William fitz Osbern or Odo, Bishop of Bayeux.

So, Lacys had been present in England for over 100 years before the conquest on Ireland.

There is a further problem in that many of the Lacys in Ireland may not of Hartford, for a time, and afterward they removed to Brooklyn, N. Y., where Mr. Bliss was deacon of the Pierrepont Street Baptist Church for many years. He was engaged in active business in New York City until his declining health caused him to retire from business; and he made his home with his son, his only surviving child, who is manager of the Anglo-American Oil Company in London, England.

Mr. Elijah Bliss's wife and four younger children died several years ago in Brooklyn. Besides his son he left four young grandsons. The interment was at the cemetery at Mortlake, England.

Abbie Goodrich Woodhouse, wife of Benjamin Bliss, is a descendant of Joseph Woodhouse, of Hertfordshire, England. He came to America, with his two sisters, in 1710, and settled in Wethersfield, Conn., where he married Dorothy Buck. Their children were William, Anne, Hannah, John, Sarah, Samuel, Phebe, Daniel, and Elizabeth. The mother of these children died Oct. 18, 1771, the father on Aug. 1, 1774. Their son Samuel, born Oct. 1, 1728, married Thankful Blinn, and their children were Samuel, Sarah, William, Prudence, Patience, Elizabeth, Humphrey, and Solomon.

Samuel Woodhouse (son of Samuel Woodhouse and Thankful Blinn), was born Dec. 23, 1756. He married Abigail Goodrich, born 1759. Their children were Samuel, George, Sylvester, Henry, Solomon, Huldah, Nancy, Mary and Abigail. He served in the war of the Revolution, as a private, for the period of fifteen months. He first entered the service in Wethersfield, Conn., in January, 1776, and was discharged finally in the year 1780. The following are mentioned as officers under whom he rendered service; Capt. Chester Wells, Col. Sears, Col. John Chester, Col. Thomas Belden, Capt. Charles Churchill, Capt. Benoni Smith, Col. John Belden, and Capt. John Welles. He died Sept. 6, 1834, and his wife died Oct. 27, 1851.

Solomon Woodhouse (son of Samuel Woodhouse and Abigail Goodrich) was born in Wethersfield, Conn., on Aug. 30, 1798, and died there May 19, 1853. He married Lura Adams, of Wethersfield (daughter of Joseph Adams and Mary Hatch Dix), January 30, 1821. She was born Aug. 10, 1800, and died Feb. 25, 1888. Their children were Mary Hatch, Abbie Goodrich, Lura Ann, George B.—who left home in November, 1847, for California, at the time of the "gold fever," and probably died there; but two letters were received from him after his arrival in California—William Henry, Elizabeth Butler, Elvira Maria, Henry W., Edward Gardner and Herbert Hayden.

HON. LINUS B. PLIMPTON, president of the Plimpton Manufacturing Co., State senator, and former police commissioner, Hartford, has descended from ancestry conspicuous in the history of Massachusetts.

Capt. John Plimpton, the first of the family in this country of whom a record is found, was Dedham, Mass., in 1642, later removed to Medfi and still later to Deerfield, where he was chief military affairs in King Philip's war. During war he was captured by the Indians and killed; version of his death being that he was burned
the stake. He enlisted in the Ancient and Hon

Southbridge, Mass., and in that town became a of considerable prominence. For many years served as a justice of the peace, and was collecto

the signatures of different governors, are stil

He married Lydia Fisk, a native of Southbri

1873 the Plimpton Manufacturing Co. was or have since been made, in appliances for doin work, that inventions protected by patents since enabled the company to underbid all con

Mass., joined the Plimpton Co., in the first co work has always been conducted in a separate

In 1886, to meet the growing demands

HISTORY OF DEERFIELD,MASS. by George Sheldon
SUTLIFF, Nathaniel of Medfield 1668; by a vote of Dedham, Feb. 16, 1671-72, Lieut. Fisher was allowed to sell six cow commons and one sheep common at Pocumtuck to Nathaniel Sutlieff of Medfield. The bargain was made and Sutlieff was here 1673, and sett. on lot No.34; he escaped the Bloody Brook Massacre, but was killed with Capt. Turner May 19,1676; he m. Jan. 31,1665, Hannah, dau. John Plympton; she m. (2) 1677, Sam'l Harrington.

HISTORY OF MEDFIELD 1650-1886, Wm. S. Tilden
Nathaniel Sutcliffe married Hannah Plimpton (2) in 1664. Three years afterward he was living in a house that stood apparently on the southerly side of the road leading to Harbor Island. He went to Deerfield as early as 1673; was killed at the "Falls fight" in 1676, and his widow married Samuel Harrington. His Medfiled place was, without a doubt, sold to Joseph Bullard who was living there in 1675. The house was burned by the Indians and appears never to have been rebuilt. (In 1715 Nathaniel Sutliffe of Durham, Conn. sold land in Medfield, said to have been received of Joseph Bullard.

Police arrest Ripper

1-5-81

LEEDS, England (UPI) — Police, departing from a longstanding policy against identifying a suspect prior to the filing of charges, announced today they have arrested a 35-year-old truck driver in the "Yorkshire Ripper" murders.

Vice squad police cruising a red-light district pulled the man out of a car and questioned him throughout the weekend about the murders of 13 women attributed to the psychopathic Yorkshire Ripper.

Not until mid-afternoon today did police identify the suspect as Peter William Sutcliffe, a long-distance truck driver married to a schoolteacher, who lives in the Heaton district of Bradford.

Police sources said Sutcliffe would be formally charged with one of the Yorkshire Ripper murders later in the day.

"We are hopeful that the Yorkshire Ripper series of attacks may well have been concluded," Supt. Frank Morritt, press liaison officer in the Ripper inquiry, said Sunday night.

The search for the Ripper was the biggest and

The Ripper Pleads Guilty

After five years, thirteen gruesome murders and the most extensive manhunt in British history, the case of the Yorkshire Ripper ended with a whisper last week. Peter Sutcliffe, 34, a quiet, hard-working truck driver with a nice home in Bradford and a pretty wife who teaches handicrafts, was led into the Old Bailey and stood near a table piled with the weapons he used to terrorize northern England: screwdrivers, knives, hammers, a hacksaw and a rope. As a packed courtroom including some of his surviving victims looked on, Sutcliffe pleaded guilty to seven counts of attempted murder. And as the thirteen murder charges were read to him, Sutcliffe responded very softly: "Not guilty to murder—but guilty to manslaughter on the grounds of diminished responsibility."

The plea was a complex legal move. Sutcliffe, who was arrested in January, contends he is guilty of manslaughter instead of murder because he was temporarily insane when he attacked and mutilated the women, most of them prostitutes. The prosecution accepted that plea, but Judge Leslie Boreham said he had "grave anxieties" about Sutcliffe's contention. The key question is whether or not Sutcliffe could have been temporarily insane. This week a jury will be empaneled to settle the matter—and whether Peter Sutcliffe spends the rest of his life in prison or in a mental hospital.

ARCHBOLD — Three persons have joined the student services staff at Northwest Technical College, said Charles Rooney, dean of student services.

Margaret Libbe has assumed the duties of admissions coordinator and will be chiefly responsible for the marketing and recruiting efforts of the college. She also will service as a counselor.

Libbe holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bowling Green State University and a master's degree in college student personnel from the same institution. She has done additional tgraduate work in counseling at Michigan State University.

Most recently, she was employed as a career counselor with the Lucas County Office of Education in Toledo.

Leslee Hoffman has been named coordinator of counseling, student activities, and placement. Her responsibilities include career and personal counseling, advising student groups, and developing extracurricular activities for both day and evening students. She also will administer the job placement program for students and graduates of the college.

For the past four years, Hoffman was an academic adviser at the University of Akron. Before that she was national field representative for Alpha Delta Pi sorority and had been a business teacher in the Parma City Schools.

Paul Sutcliffe has been named registrar and coordinator of financial aid. He will manage student and alumni records and oversee the financial aid programs offered at the college.

Sutcliffe has a bachelor's degree in psychology from Miami University and a master's degree in student personnel administration from Indiana University.

Before joining the staff at Northwest Tech, Sutcliffe was director of admissions at Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Pa., for five years. He previously served as director of admissions at Trinity College, Ill., and director of financial aid at Wheaton College, Ill.

Northwest Technical College, part of Ohio's state-assisted system of higher education, is empowered to grant both one-year certificates and two-year associate degrees and is located south of Archbold on Ohio 34, one-half mile east of the intersection of Ohio 34 and 66.

Bank now offers customers discount brokerage service

First National Bank Northwest Ohio has announced the offering of discount brokerage services to its customers.

"We are excited about out new Discount Brokerage Service," said Mark A. Klein, vice president of First National Bank. "The service allows anyone in our area who wishes to trade securities to save up to 70 percent or more on brokerage commissions."

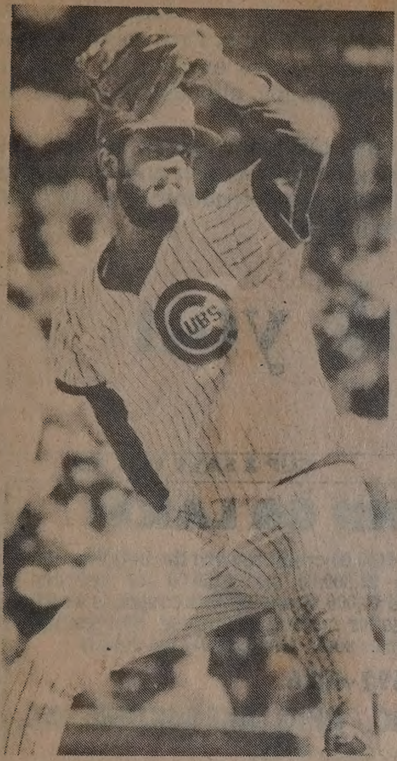
First National's Discount Brokerage Service is designed for investors who make their own investment decisions. The "discount" is possible because First National Bank will not provide some of the services, such as investment advice and recommendations and research on specific securities often provided by full-commission brokerage firms.

In addition, First National Bank will use salaried employees and will not solicit business from customers or underwrite and distribute securities.

First National Bank's offering of the Discount Brokerage Service is part of a trend among financial institutions to provide one-stop financial services to their customers.

First National will be offering the new Discount Brokerage Service in conjunction with Security Pacific National Bank, the nation's ninth largest.

Sutcliffe, DeLeon have opposite kinds of luck



RICK SUTCLIFFE

By United Press International

A lucky star seems to have accompanied Rick Sutcliffe from Cleveland to Chicago. A black cloud appears to have joined Jose DeLeon on his trips to the mound.

Sutcliffe posted his 10th straight victory Friday as Chicago downed the Atlanta Braves 3-0. The 28-year-old right-hander improved his record to 12-1 since he was traded from the Cleveland Indians to the Cubs on June 13.

On Friday night, DeLeon took a no-hitter past the fifth inning for the seventh time since he was promoted to the major leagues 13 months ago. In fact, the 23-year-old forkballer carried a perfect game into the seventh inning of a scoreless game.

But all DeLeon will have to show for his one-hitter Friday night is his 12th loss this season and he could only blame himself.

"This time I blew it myself," a dejected DeLeon said before bolting Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium after losing to the Cincinnati Reds 2-0.

DeLeon got himself in trouble with a walk and a throwing error in the seventh, setting the stage for former Pirate Dave Parker to break up the no-hitter with what Parker called a "72-hopper that got through the infield" just past the outstretched arms of diving second baseman Johnny Ray.

If DeLeon's luck wasn't bad enough on the night he dropped his seventh straight game, it became worse as Reds' starter Jeff Russell was keeping the Pirates at bay on a three-hitter of his own.

"Jose pitched a heckuva game," said Pirates Manager Chuck Tanner. "But so did Russell. Russell probably pitched his best game of the year."

DeLeon dropped to 6-11. Russell improved to 6-14.

Meanwhile, at Chicago, Sutcliffe continues to pitch as if he has a rabbit's foot in his pocket.

He walked one and struck out six in pitching his fourth complete game and second shutout of the season.

"I am one pitcher who does not look at his earned run average," said Sutcliffe. "It is misleading, when you consider how many times I have given up a lot of runs and have staggered to victory.

"I have to thank my lucky stars that I am able to not only pitch with a pennant contender, but a team that has a great offensive machine."

Sutcliffe aided his own cause with two singles and scored ahead of Ryne Sandberg's RBI single in the seventh.

Atlanta starter Rick Camp, 6-6, said Sutcliffe is "a pitcher who does not give you anything to hit and not only keeps the ball down — but makes you look bad swinging at pitches.

Sandberg also smashed his 16th home run to help the Cubs score their fourth straight win at home over the Braves. The Cubs now lead the second-place New York Mets by 5 ½ games in the NL East.

Elsewhere in the NL, Houston downed St. Louis 7-2, Philadelphia nipped Los Angeles 6-5 in 10 innings, Montreal and San Diego split a double-header, the Expos winning 4-1 and the Padres taking the second game 5-4 and San Francisco swept New York 7-6 and 6-5.

Astros 7, Cardinals 2

At Houston, Terry Puhl and Phil Garner each drove in two runs and Joe Niekro, 13-9, pitched a five-hitter to lead Houston past St. Louis. Cardinals' starter Rickey Horton, 8-3, lasted only two innings and took the loss.

Phillies 6, Dodgers 5

At Philadelphia, Len Matuszek scored from third base on German Rivera's throwing error with two out in the 10th inning to lift Philadelphia past Los Angeles. Steve Yeager hit his fourth homer for the Dodgers and Mike Schmidt cracked his 26th and 415th of his career for the Phils.

Expos 4-4, Padres 1-5

At Montreal, Steve Garvey singled in the go-ahead run with two out in the ninth to lift San Diego in the nightcap. In the opener, Tim Wallach's two-run single highlighted a three-run sixth to lead Montreal.

Giants 7-6, Mets 6-5

At New York, Chili Davis drove in three runs and Frank Williams notched his second victory of the night to give San Francisco a sweep over New York. Bob Brenly hit two homers, including a game-winning three-run shot in the eighth inning, to rally the Giants in the opener.

Reds fail to cash in against Sutcliffe

RICK SUTCLIFFE

CHICAGO (UPI) — The first inning told the story of the series finale between the Chicago Cubs and the Cincinnati Reds.

The Cubs cashed in on their opportunity, scoring two runs enroute to a 5-0 win Wednesday over the Reds. Cincinnati blew a golden scoring opportunity in the first and fell to the strong pitching of Rick Sutcliffe, 3-6. Jody Davis also hit his ninth homer of the season with two out in the third for the Cubs, winners of four of their last six.

Sutcliffe, 7-1 lifetime against Cincinnati, hurled his 13th career shutout and first since June 6 of last year when he blanked Pittsburgh 1-0 after weathering the first inning jam.

It was also his second complete game in a row, marking the first time since May of last year that a Cub pitcher had accomplished that feat.

"I was glad to see Rick get some early help and that enabled him not to worry about every pitch and every at-bat like he had been doing earlier in the season," said Cubs' manager Jim Frey.

Eddie Milner led off the game with a triple to rightcenter. Pete Rose then bounced a sharp grounder that Sutcliffe snared and got Milner out in a rundown.

"Being 6-foot-7 certainly helped on that play. I was ready to concede the run but one run wasn't going to kill me today," said Sutcliffe, who struck out five and walked two in pitching his 13th career shutout and his first since June 6 of last year when he blanked Pittsburgh 1-0.

Rose, the Reds' player-manager, said Sutcliffe's play helped turn the game around.

"If he isn't a great athlete, he doesn't make that play because I hit it hard and it would have been a hit," Rose said. "I don't blame Milner for trying to score on a play like that."

After Max Venable grounded out, the Cubs elected to intentionally walk Dave Parker, a decision that left Sutcliffe visibly upset. He then walked Buddy Bell to load the bases but got Dave Concepcion to ground out to short.

"I'm in the dughouse if Parker hits a two-run homer," Sutcliffe said. "If we walk him and it works out like it did, it looks like a good move."

Chicago responded by jumping on Bill Gullickson, 4-4, whose winning streak was snapped at 4. Shawon Dunston led off with a single, stole second and went to third on catcher Bo Diaz' throwing error. Davey Lopes, who had two RBI, lofted a sacrifice fly to right, scoring Dunston. Ryne Sandberg singled off Bell's glove at third and scored on Keith Moreland's RBI double to right.

"I'm not going to say that us not scoring one run and them getting two was the ballgame," Rose said. "But I'd be pretty dumb to say he didn't have great stuff when he stops us on four hits."

After the first, Cincinnati managed a runner as far as second only once.

Chicago got Sutcliffe some insurance in the second, loading the bases on a walk to Davis, a single by Manny Trillo and a single by Sutcliffe through a drawn-in infield. One out later, Lopes' infield RBI single and Sandberg's sacrifice fly made it 4-0.

"It just seemed when I got the ball up they hit it and when I got the ball low they didn't hit it good enough," Gullickson said. "I didn't think I pitched poorly, they just got some breaks and it was their day."

As top NL rookie

Sutcliffe is honored

NEW YORK (UPI) — Righthander Rick Sutcliffe, 23, who brightened an otherwise dismal season for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Wednesday was named the National League's Rookie of the Year by the Baseball Writers of America Association.

Sutcliffe led the Dodger staff in victories with 17 and lost only 10 to become an easy winner over outfielders Jeff Leonard of Houston and Scot Thompson of Chicago.

In becoming the eighth Dodger to receive the award since it was originated by the BBWAA in 1947, Sutcliffe collected 20 of a possible 24 votes from a special BBWAA committee consisting of two writers from each city.

The Dodgers' No. 1 selection in the June, 1974, free-agent draft, Sutcliffe appeared in one game in 1976 and two games in 1978. He began the 1979 season in the bullpen and was moved into the starting rotation after injuries hit the Los Angeles staff.

He became the club's most dependable pitcher, appearing in 39 games, completing five and compiling an earned run average of 3.46 over 242 innings.

Los Angeles, the league champion the two previous years, fell to third place — 11½ games behind first-place Cincinnati — but would have fallen lower without Sutcliffe.

The native of Independence, Mo., was the winningest Dodger rookie since the team moved to Los Angeles in 1958. Only five pitchers in the league, all veterans, won more games than Sutcliffe.

Indians sign Sutcliffe

RICK SUTCLIFFE

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The Cleveland Indians have signed their best pitcher, Rick Sutcliffe, who had demanded to be traded following last season.

Sutcliffe was Cleveland's winningest pitcher in 1983, compiling a 17-11 record with a 4.29 ERA. In 1982 he had the American League's best ERA at 2.96.

The 27-year-old right-hander, who had a team-high 160 strikeouts in 1983, signed a contract for 1984. Terms of the contract were not disclosed.

"Sutcliffe is one of the best pitchers in baseball and is being paid accordingly," Indians President Gabe Paul said.

"The signing of Rick Sutcliffe allows me to breathe a little easier," said Indians manager Pat Corrales. "I'm happy he's back with us and look forward to an outstanding performance by him this season."

"I'm very appreciative of the way Gabe Paul and (General Manager) Phil Seghi handled the negotiations," Sutcliffe said. "The deciding factor in my withdrawing my demand to be traded and to return to the Indians was when Pat Corrales came to town and we visited last week.

"Up to that point, we were serious in our demand to be traded. But after talking to Pat Corrales and learning of his plans for the upcoming season and his thoughts on the club, I decided I wanted to play for him. His overall outlook on the club is a good one and he is a good manager."

Hi Lucy,

I was going through my Wheeler file and found a message I sent you stating that I would send you copies of Wheeler Family in America for Ephraim Wheeler once I received the CD. Well, I do have it in my possession. So I am sending you page 491-492 from the book. Let me know if there are any other pages you would like. The names in bold are the lines that are continued in the book.

Hi Lucy,

Sorry it has taken so long to get back to you. I had to study for a test & have been having terrible time with my internet connection. Seems to be working today, though.

Here is the line I have from Ephraim Wheeler's father to Samuel Wheeler, the first husband of my 6th great grandmother, Hannah Wheeler:

1 Thomas WHEELER
 +Rebecca
  2 Ephraim WHEELER (1617 - 1670)
   +Ann TURNEY (abt 1620 - abt 1708)
    3 Isaac WHEELER (1642 - 1712)
     +Susannah
      4 Samuel WHEELER (abt 1672 - 1707/08)
       +Hannah WHEELER (1676 -   )

According to "The Wheeler Genealogy" Ephraim Wheeler is the son of Thomas & Rebecca Wheeler of Cranfield. Ephraim Wheeler as son of Thomas & Rebecca is also confirmed by "History of the Wheeler Family in America" by A.G. Wheeler. I do not have either of these books, but subscribers of the Wheeler list who do own them passed this info on to me. I plan on buying the FTM CD that includes "The Wheeler Genealogy" & can send you the appropriate pages once I have it.

Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England., p.496
Wheeler, EPHRAIM, Concord, freem. 13 Mar. 1639, had, says Farmer, Isaac, b. 1638, but prob. d. soon; Isaac, 13 Dec. 1642; rem. to Fairfield with Jones, one of the Concord min. in 1644, among the first sett. there was bless. with plenty of est. and ch. and d. 1670. The inv. 28 Oct. was £1,026. and his will of 22 Sept. 1669, names w. Ann. wh. may not have been mo. of all the four s. Isaac, Samuel, Timothy, Ephraim, and six ds. Mary, Ruth, Hannah, Rebecca, Judith, and Abigail. EPHRAIM, Milford, s. of Thomas of the same, was propound. for freem. Oct. 1669; m. 8 Sept. 1675, Mary, d. of Richard Holbrook, had two s. and two ds. and d. early in 1685. The inv. in Feb. was £534. Both the s. were d. in 1696, but ds. Mary and Abigail alive. He left wid. Mary.

I can send you my family group sheets by snail mail or email, whatever you prefer. It looks like we are using the same genealogy program. Are you using Ultimate Family Tree?

I'll look in my database to see if I have any info on Isaac & Rebecca and get back to you. I am getting an error message & need to restart my computer before I can acccess the program.

My connection is giving me problems again. Will you email me back to let me know if you received this message? If I don't hear from you, I will email it again.

Thanks,

Michele

New England colleges in 1826.

In Hotten's "List of Emigrants to America, 1600-1700" it is stated that in 1620, Henrie Wheeler arrived in Virginia in the "Tryall"; that Edward Wheeler embarked at London, May 16, 1635, in the "Plaine Joane" for Virginia; that on July 24, 1635 John Wheeler embarked in the "Assurance" from London for Virginia; that Richard Wheeler sailed for Virginia on August 21, 1635 in the "Thomas"; that on August 1, 1679 John Wheeler, Jr., embarked at London in the ship "Returne" for New England. There was a John Wheeler in Newbury, Mass. who Savage says came in the "Mary and John" in 1634. There was a Thomas in Boston in 1636; a Thomas in Lynn, made freeman in 1642, and a Moses (ancestor of Gen. Joseph Wheeler) in Stratford, Conn., who, Mr. Orcutt says, was born in 1598, in the County of Kent, England.

The progenitor of the branch of the Wheeler family of which I have herein undertaken to preserve some record, was Thomas Wheeler. In 1639 (possibly as early as 1635) he appeared in Concord, Mass. The new England records clearly show that at Concord and the vicinity there appeared at about the same time the following:

(1) Thomas, aforesaid.

(2) Ephraim, who first settled in Concord, and afterward permanently in Fairfield, Ct.

(3) Obadiah, with his wife Susannah, settled in Concord, and died there October 29, 1671, aged 63 years/

(4) George, with his wife Catherine, and two or three children.

(5) Thomas, afterward a Captain and the hero of the Indian fight at Brookfield, Mass.

(6) Joseph, who settled in Concord and was known as Lieutenant Joseph.

(7) Timothy, settled in Concord; made freeman May 13, 1640; Ensign in 1646 and Captain late in his days; most frequently called Lieutenant Timothy.

(8) Thomas, settled in Concord; was nephew of above Capt. Timothy. This Thomas was appointed Sergeant in 1642.

(9) Isaac, with his wife Frances, settled in Charlestown, Mass.

(10) Richard settled in Dedham, and afterward in Lancaster, Mass.

How these persons were related to one another the books on New England genealogy do not state. Orcutt does say that (1) and (2) were brothers and on this account Ephraim Wheeler's name was included in the above list. As to where these Wheelers came from there is in the books only a tradition - a faint whisper from the past - that it was Wales. Not a single fact or circumstance have I been able to find that points to Wales rather than to any other country as their home. On the other hand the local history of Concord, and the neighborhood, does disclose certain facts which seem significant and suggestive. First, that the original road cut through the woods by the first settlers in Concord, over which they and their immediate followers came into the meadows of the Musketequid has been known since 1650 as "the Virginia Road", and the district through which it runs is called "Verginy" on old deeds and records. And second, that the plain behind the hill at Meriam's Corner, right at the end of Virginia, is called "Cranefield" in conveyances and in the town's records from 1648 to almost the present day.

Now Peter Bulkeley, the first minister of Concord, came from Odell, Bedfordshire, England. (See "The Bulkeley Family" by F. W. Chapman.) In the same county, about eight miles from Odell, and equidistant southwest of the city of Bedford is a little parish called Cranfield, and in that parish there was in 1632 a district (or possibly merely an estate) known as Virginia. On the parish registers of Cranfield I find the names of most all of the foregoing Wheelers, the records of the marriages of some and the records of the baptisms of a number of their children. And after a careful comparison of these parish registers with the American records of the foregoing Wheelers, I think that Iam correct in solving their relationship in this way. Nine of them were sons and one a grandson of three brothers, viz: Richard, Thomas and John Wheeler, husbandmen, who lived and died in Cranfield. Nos. (1), (2) and (3) were sons of Richard; Nos. (4), (5), (6) and (7) were sons of Thomas; and Nos. (9) and (10) sons of John. No. (8) was a grandson of Thomas, a nephew and adopted son of (7) Captain Timothy. In the following pages will be given the genealogy of the descendants of (1) Thomas Wheeler.
